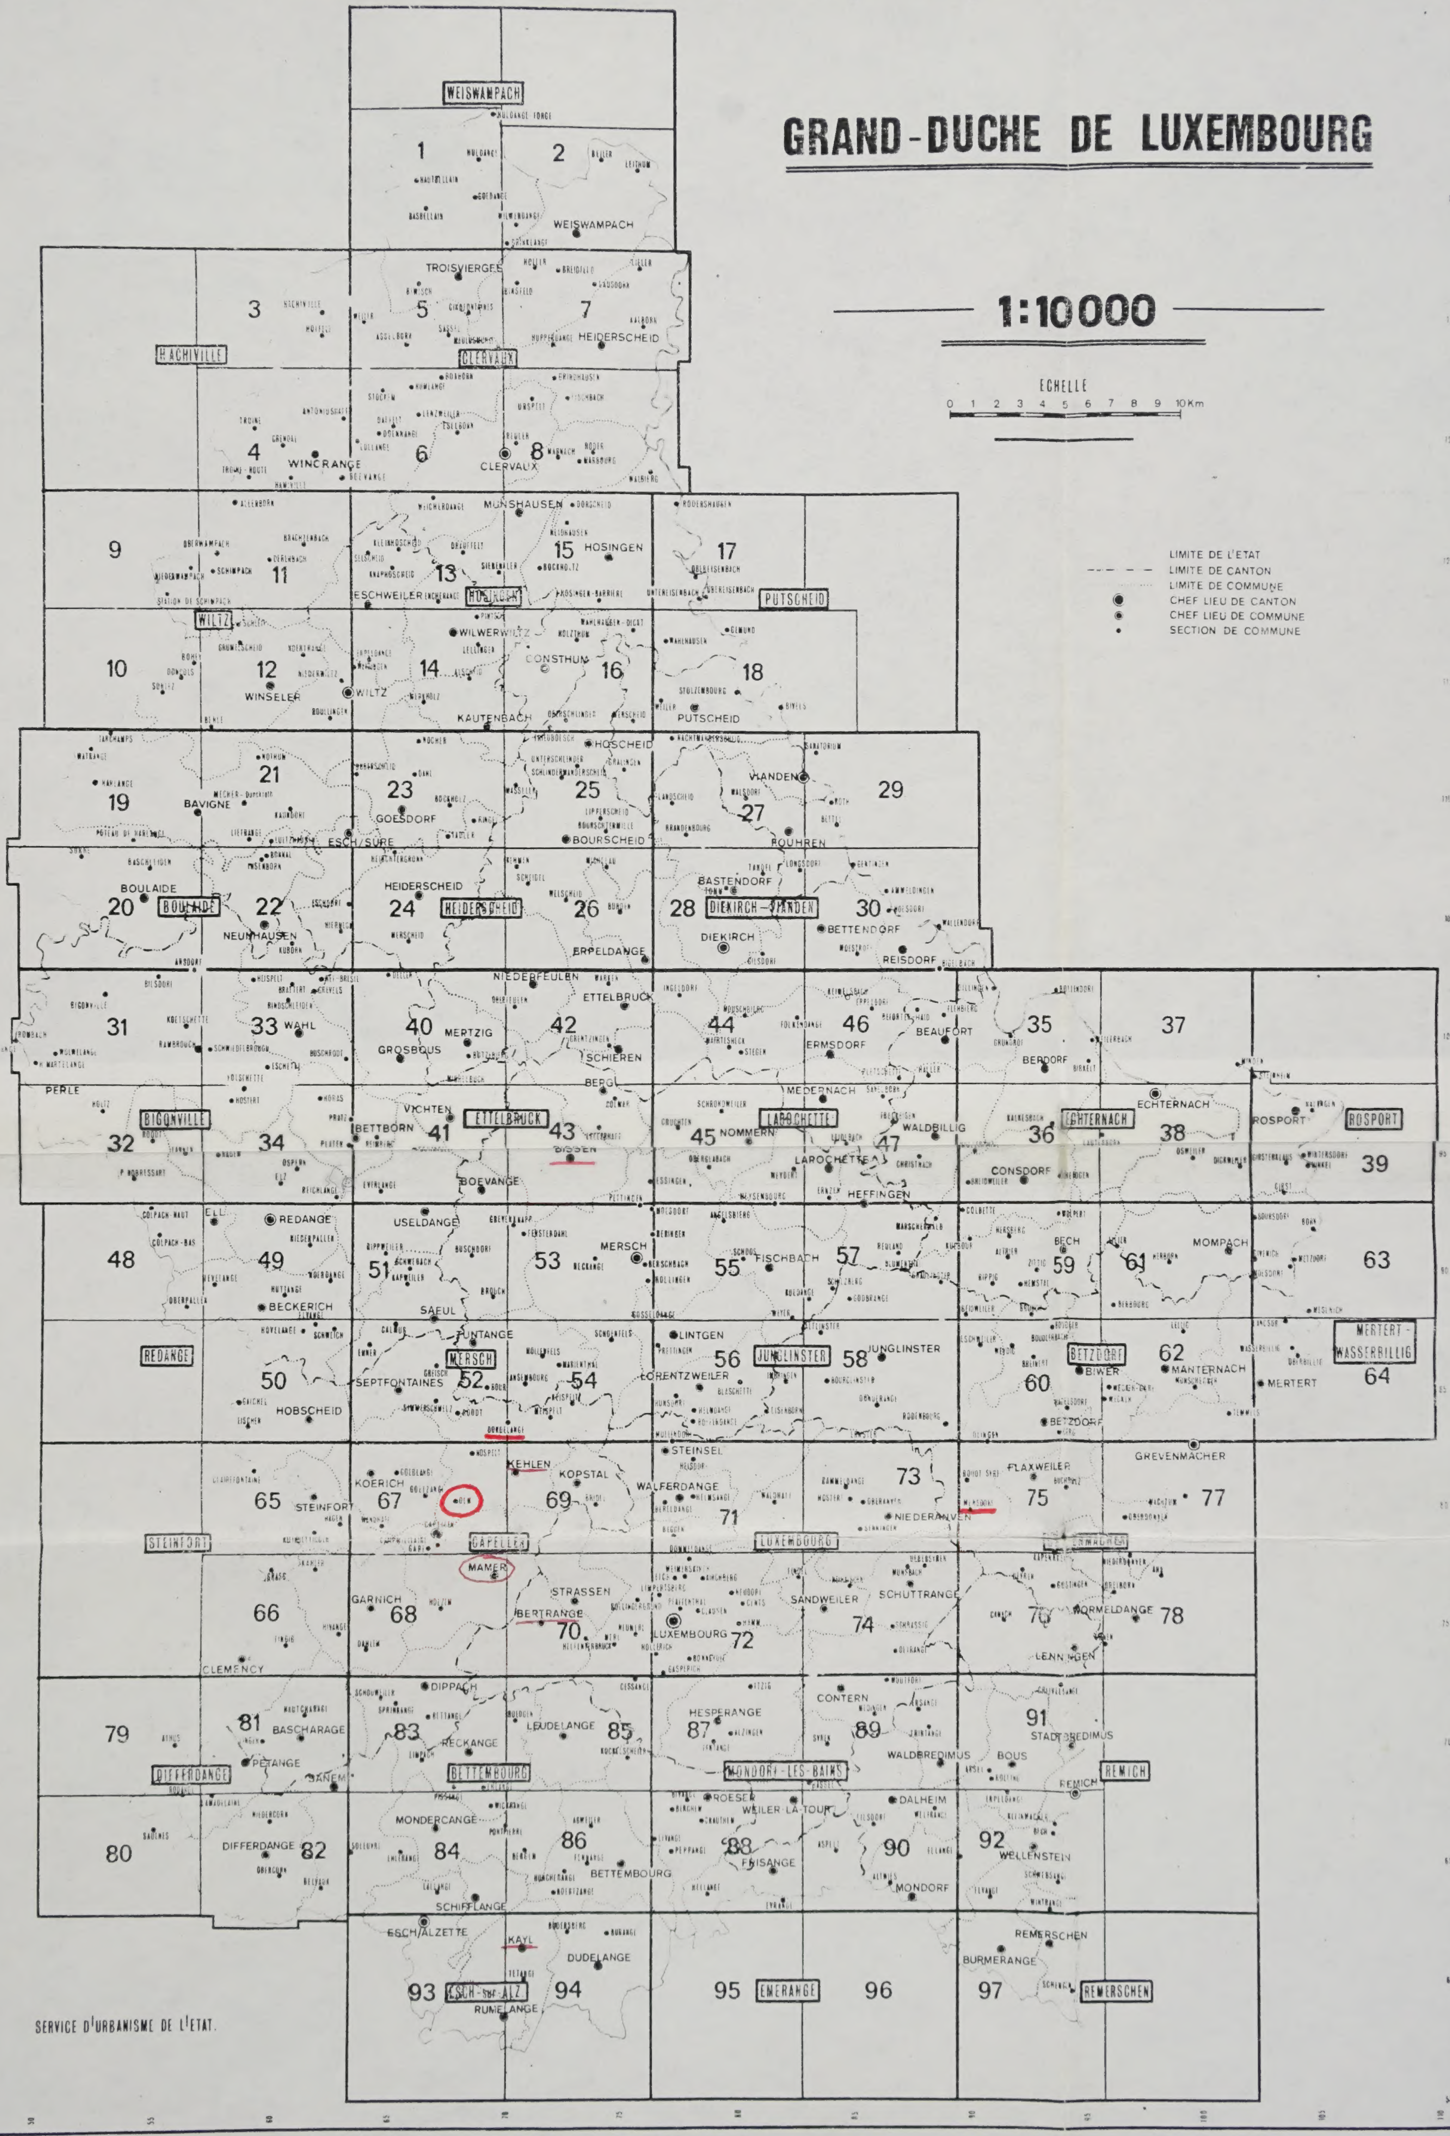
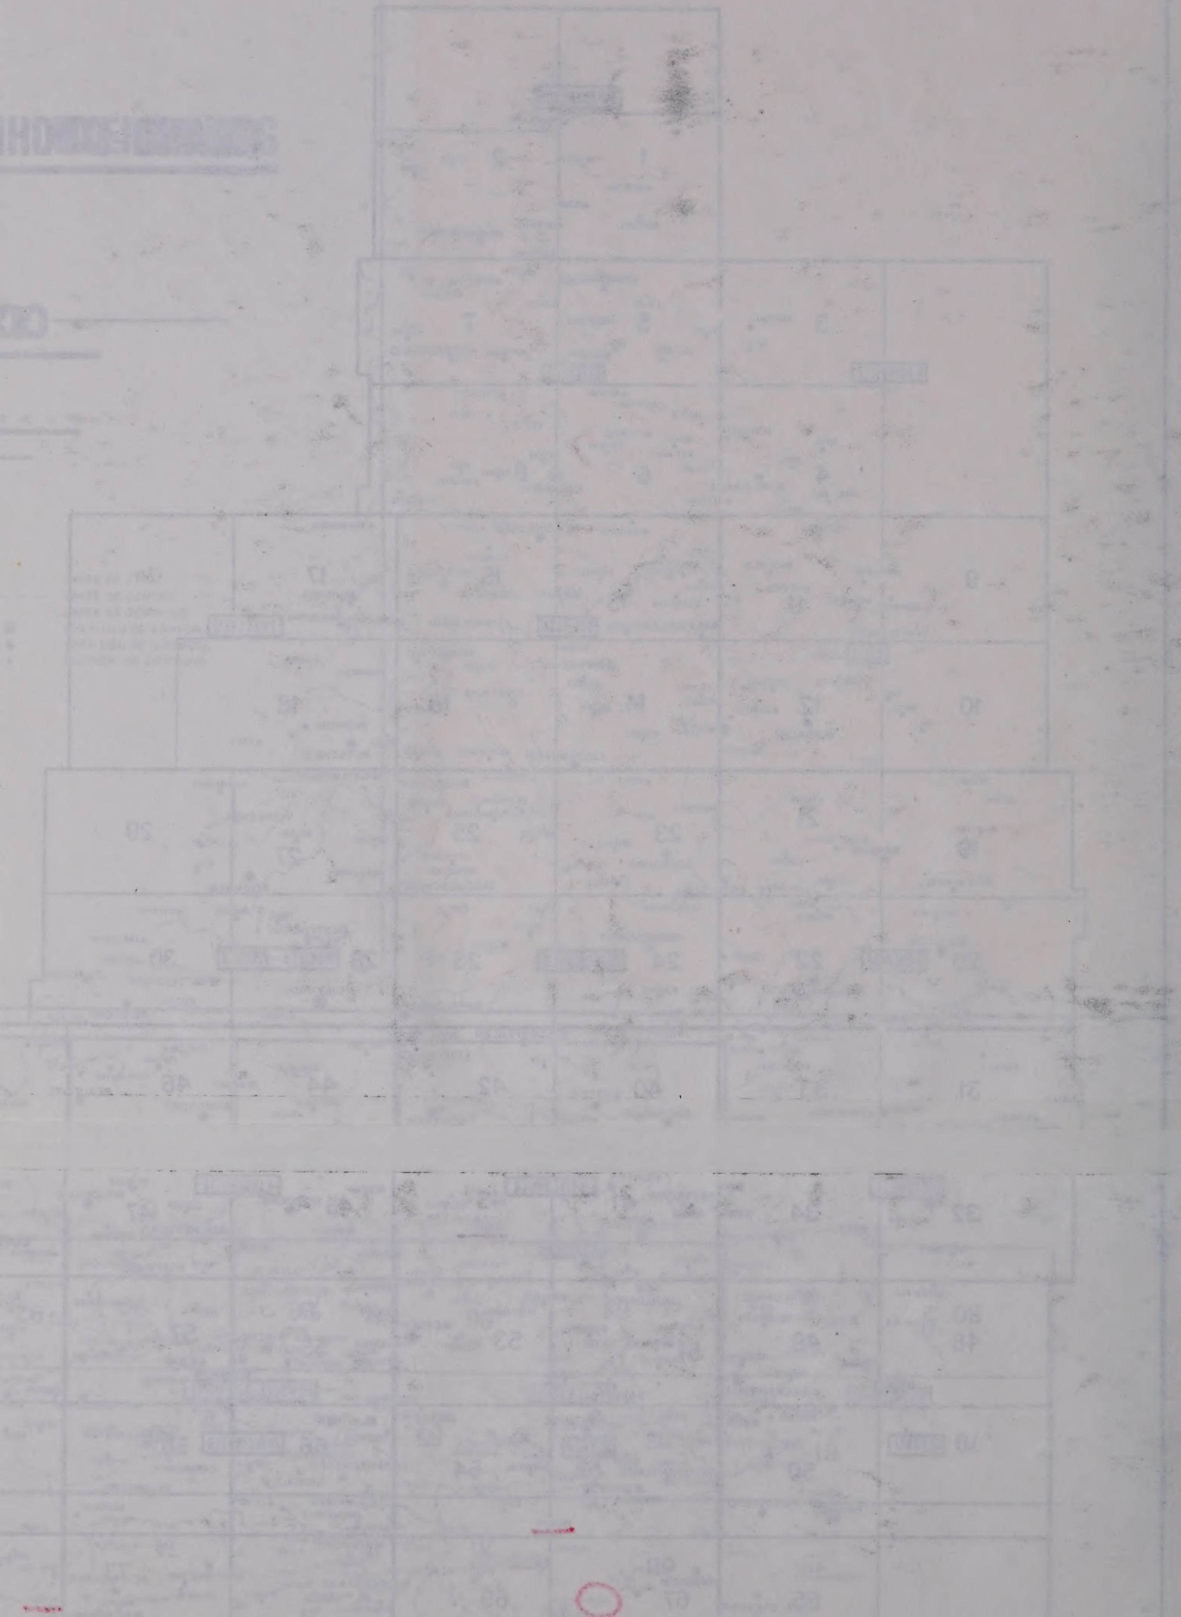
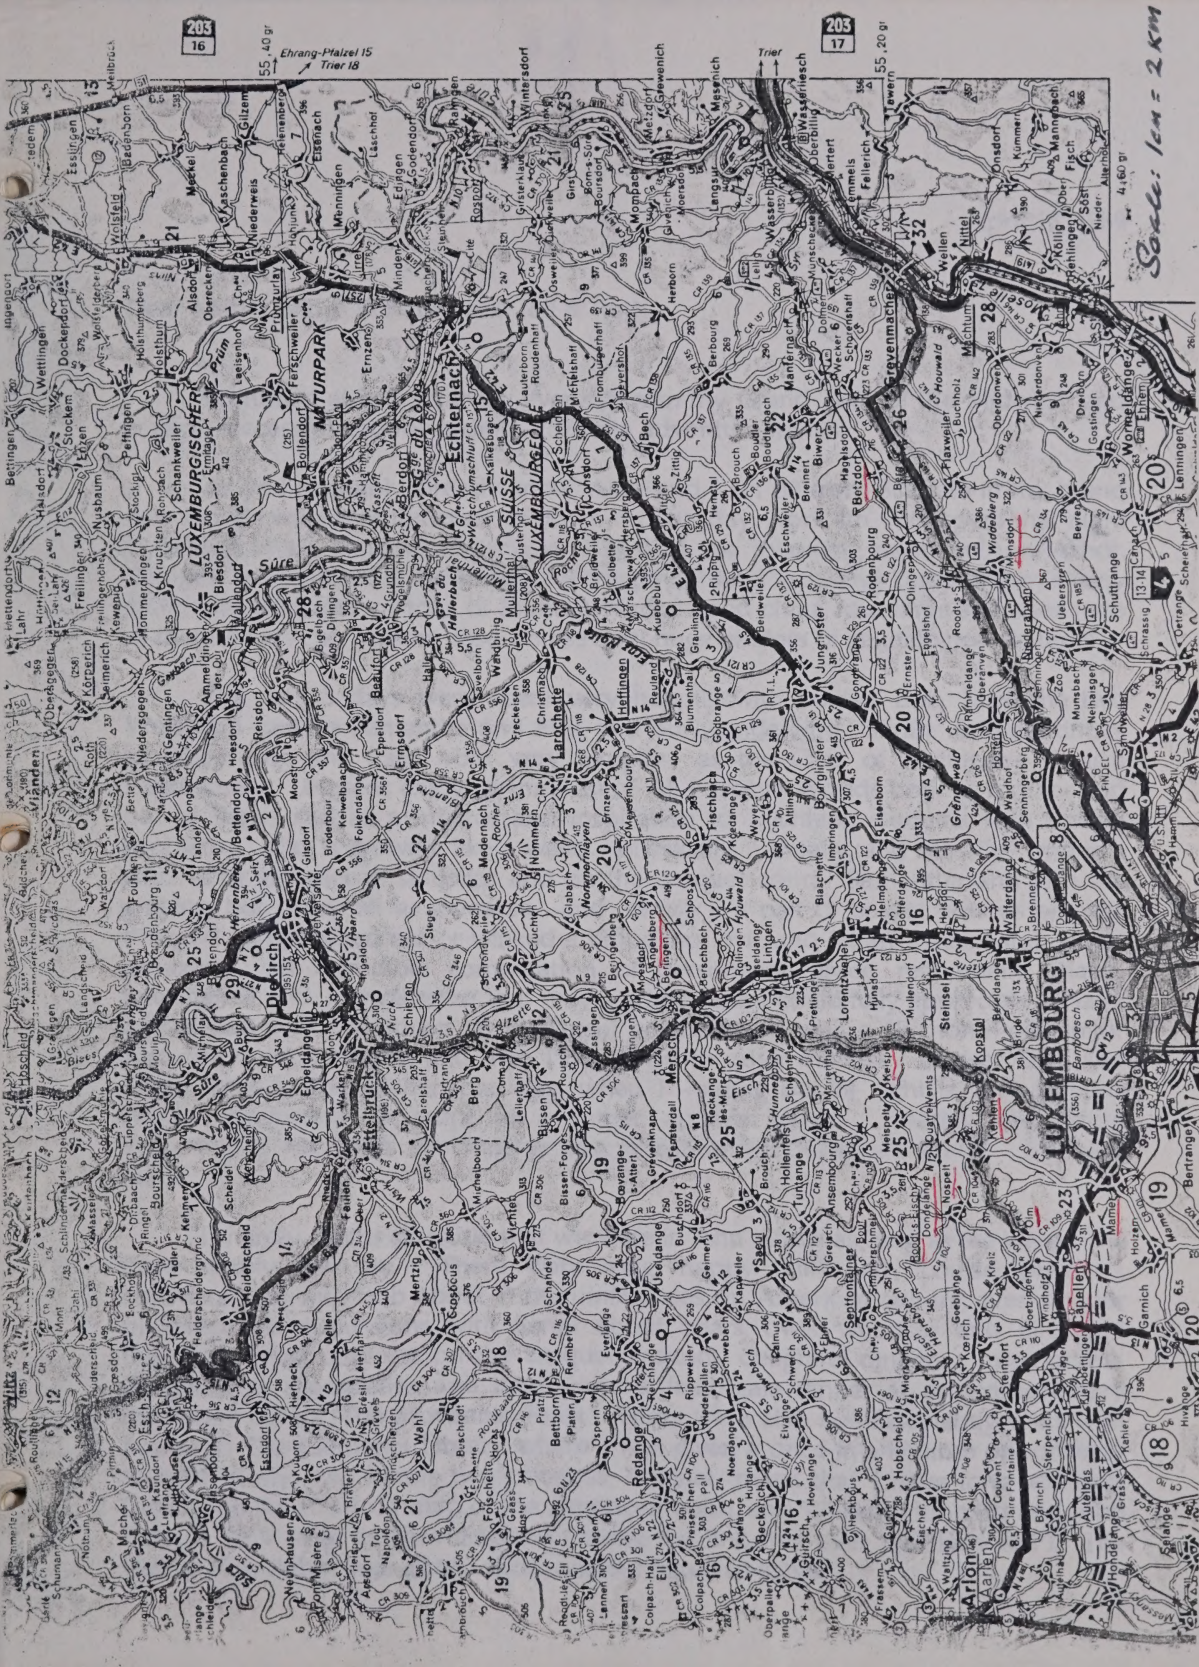
GRAND-DUCHE DE LUXEMBOURG

1:10000



SERVICE D'URBANISME DE L'ETAT.





Scale: 1cm = 2 KM

April 18, 1989

Dear Mamá, Moye & Kathy, and Jeff & Ruth,

I returned at 7:15 Saturday evening from my Grand Tour of the Midwest, and a very successful and rewarding 2757-mile adventure it was!

As you probably already know, Alice and I set off from Scituate in my brand new Honda wagon at the crack of dawn on Tuesday, April 4th. We spent that night in (where else?) London, Ontario, and arrived the following noon in Ann Arbor. The new car performed faultlessly, carrying a full load including Uncle Bobby's easy chair, footstool, four cartons of Mama's Wedgewood china, four large suitcases (two of them empty), an attache case, and several huge binders of genealogical material.

The next 5 days were spent very happily with Louise, Bob, Max, the two Weisbuch canines Samantha and Fish, and our wunderkind , Sarah. Bob continues to labor long and hard --but very happily-- as the Czar of Michigan's English Department; Louise is enjoying the Best of All Possible Worlds both as mother and pal to Sarah and as a mentor and inspiration to Michigan students with writing problems; Max is growing like a weed --physically, mentally, and socially-- and is a whiz both at baseball statistics and on the croquet court; Samantha and Fish are graying, but every bit as loveable --and smelly -- a pair of basset hounds as ever dragged an oversized ear or winked a bloodshot eye; and Sarah --well, Sarah is just amazing : an incredible combination of personality, grace, refinement, charm, intelligence and joie de vivre that only a grandparent could fully appreciate. Have any of you ever carried on an intelligent conversation with a 19 month-old child? Just one quick example, and then I'll pass on to other matters: Louise, Alice and Sarah were in the kitchen one day, when I --sitting out of sight in an adjoining room-- happened to erupt in a rather audible yawn. Hearing me, Sarah immediately informed her mother and grandma that "Granpa's tired!" My case rests.

It hardly seems possible that we were in Ann Arbor as long as we were. The days simply flew by. There were long, happy talks with Louise; pregnant conversations with Bob about Puritan influences on American culture; even deeper philosophical discussions with Sarah about bears, owls, walruses and Einstein's theories; great contests on the croquet ground; delightful dinners; memorable Zingerman's sandwiches and beer; and a final, gala dinner at an extraordinary restaurant called "The Moveable Feast." There were also two fascinating visits with Louise to The Clements Library, where I was given a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to hold in my own hands two priceless, original maps that I have long admired: Capt. John Smith's 1614 map of the American coast, and William Hubbard and John Foster's 1677 Map of New England ("being the first that ever was here cut"). The visit to Ann Arbor was all too short, and we hated to leave.

April 18, 1989

Dear Marta, Kaye & Kathy, and Jeff & Ruth,

I returned at 7:13 Saturday evening from my Grand Tour of the Midwest, and a very successful and rewarding 2757-mile adventure it was.

As you probably already know, Alice and I set off from Scituate in my brand new Honda wagon at the crack of dawn on Tuesday, April 4th. We spent that night in (where else?) London, Ontario, and arrived the following noon in Ann Arbor. The new car performed faultlessly, carrying a full load including Uncle Bobby's easy chair, footstool, four cartons of Mama's Wedgewood china, four large suitcases (two of them empty), an attache case, and several huge binders of genealogical material.

The next 5 days were spent very happily with Louise, Bob, Max, the two Weisbuch canines Samantha and Fish, and our wunderkind, Sarah. Bob continues to labor long and hard—but very happily—as the Czar of Michigan's English Department; Louise is enjoying the Best of All Possible Worlds both as mother and pal to Sarah and as a mentor and inspiration to Michigan students with writing problems; Max is growing like a weed—physically, mentally, and socially—and is a whiz both at baseball statistics and on the croquet court. Samantha and Fish are graying, but every bit as lovable—and smelly— a pair of basset hounds as ever dragged an oversized ear or winked a bloodshot eye, and Sarah—well, Sarah is just amazing: an incredible combination of personality, grace, refinement, charm, intelligence and joie de vivre that only a grandparent could fully appreciate. Have any of you ever carried on an intelligent conversation with a 19-month-old child? Just one quick example, and then I'll pass on to other matters: Louise, Alice and Sarah were in the kitchen one day, when I—sitting out of sight in an adjoining room—happened to burp in a rather audible way. Hearing me, Sarah [illegible] rude.

It hardly seems possible that we were in Ann Arbor as long as we were. The days simply flew by. There were long, happy talks with Louise, pregnant conversations with Bob about Puritan influences on American culture, even deeper philosophical discussions with Sarah about bears, owls, walruses and Einstein's theories; great contests on the croquet ground; delightful dinners; memorable Zingerman's sandwiches and beer; and a final gala dinner at an extraordinary restaurant called "The Moveable Feast." There were also two fascinating visits with Louise to The Clements Library, where I was given a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to hold in my own hands two priceless, original maps that I have long admired: Capt. John Smith's 1614 map of the American coast, and William Hubbard and John Foster's 1677 Map of New England ("being the first that ever was here cut"). The visit to Ann Arbor was all too short, and we hated to leave.

But leave we did, last Monday, April 10th. I drove Alice to the Detroit airport (about a half an hour to the East) and then doubled back and headed toward God's Own Country further to the west.

The drive through Michigan, Indiana and Illinois was smooth and uneventful (even though a few snowflakes were encountered along the way) and I crossed over the Mississippi and rolled into Dubuque, Iowa, at 6:15 that evening. Because the sun was still shining brightly, I proceeded on to St. Donatus (formerly called Tetes des Morts), a tiny village about 12 miles to the south. There I bellied up to the bar at Kalmes' filling station and general store and enquired about local history and lodgings. The girl at the bar told me that the closest motel was in Bellevue, 10 miles further to the south, and that the best historian in town was Judy Nemmers --who happened to walk in at that very moment. Judy agreed that I should go on to the Harbor Motel in Bellevue, but assured me that she would be delighted to see me on the following morning. She also mentioned --in answer to my question-- that Father Irwin Matt (who serves two nearby churches) would be saying mass at St. Donatus' Roman Catholic Church at 8:15 a.m., and that I should be able to speak to him about consulting the local parish records as soon as that service was over.

The Harbor Motel proved to be a very nice place, indeed: quiet, comfortable lodgings on the bank of the Mississippi River for $22.88 (including tax) and a delicious (4 pieces) fried chicken dinner, salad bar, waffle potatoes, hot bun, butter and two Budweisers for only $6.55. I was the sole customer at the restaurant, ably assisted by four very eager young waitresses.

I drove back to St. Donatus (which, by the way, is pronounced with a hard "a," the accent being placed on the second syllable) early on Tuesday morning, arriving before 8. As I came over the crest of the hill overlooking the town, the view was so beautiful that I stopped to take a photograph. Two passing truck drivers slowed to ask if I was in any trouble, and if they could help. It suddenly became abundantly clear to me that I was no longer on the eastern seaboard. Say what you will, the American midwest is a very special place!

As I approached St. Donatus' Church, I saw Father Matt scrambling inside to say his mass. I parked next to a number of other cars and went out to the cemetery in the rear. There I immediately found a stone monument engraved with the words "Hier ruhet Maria Kellen Geb. Dondelinger, ehegattin von Nicholas Kellen Geb. 2 Aug. 1821. Gest. 2 Juni 1891." (This was, of course, our great grandmother Maria Dondelinger Freymann, the wife of Karl Freymann and the mother of our Grandfather, Nicholas Freymann; she married Nicholas Kellen following her first husband's death.) An inscription on the side of the same monument reads: "Erinnerung an Karl Freiman aus Olm Luxembourg ehemann der Maria Dondelinger ebstarb am 31 Marz 1854 37 jahre alt." (To the memory of Karl Freymann from Luxembourg, former husband of Maria Dondelinger, who died on March 31, 1854, at the age of 37.) Below this inscription are the words "Barbara Freiman 5 jahre 3 monate alt" and "Dominic Freiman 9 monate alt." (These were Karl and Maria Dondelinger Freymanns' children Barbara, who was born on February 28, 1847 in Olm and died on May 29, 1852, and Dominic, the twin brother of Nicholas, who died on September 8, 1854, just seven (not 9) months after his birth on February 22, 1854.

Directly to the side of Maria Dondelinger Freymann Kehlen's monument was the grave of our Great, Great Grandmother, Barbara Kirbach Freymann, who was born in Bartringen about 1792 and who died in St. Donatus on October 26, 1854 at the age of 62. Poor Maria lost her husband, son and mother-in-law all in the span of just seven months!

I also found other members of the family --including Karl Freymann's sister Maria and her husband Nicholas Nemmers-- in nearby plots, but unfortunately lost my tape recorded notes when I made the stupid mistake of recording over them. --It was terribly cold and windy up there in the cemetery, and my fingers were numb. Jeff and Moye and I will have to be more careful when we return to St. Donatus late next summer.

When I returned from the cemetery to the church, all of the cars (except my trusty Honda) were gone. The service had ended and Father Matt had fled. This was, in fact, no great disappointment, inasmuch as the good folks at Kalmes' general store had made it clear that the priest was a relative newcomer, knew little of the history of the town, and was likely to be of little help to me in any case. I took the opportunity to walk through the building, reflecting on the fact that our Grandfather probably knew it well. The church is an attractive stone structure, begun in 1857 and completed in 1860. Unfortunately, however, it was gutted by fire in 1907 and the present interior dates only from 1908.

My next stop was Kalmes' store, where I asked for Judy Nemmers. The owner's wife (who turned out to be Judy's sister) immediately 'phoned her, and she joined me for coffee a few minutes later. I soon learned that I was in very good company, indeed: Judy is not only the treasurer of St. Donatus' Roman Catholic Church and the local Historical Society, but also President of the St. Donatus Chamber of Commerce! (The town once had 1,200 residents served by no less than three taverns, three blacksmiths, two tailors and one very busy physician and healer, the famous Dr. Peter Schwind. A decade ago there were still 205 residents, but the current population has fallen to only 139.)

Following a brief introductory chat over coffee at Kalmes', Judy took me across the street to meet Harold and Betty Fondell, the owners of "The Doll Museum", which was formerly the home and barn of Peter Gehlen. Peter Gehlen's second wife was Margaret (or Maria) Catherina Freymann, a sister of our Great Grandfather Karl Freymann. The Gehlens were married in Dubuque's cathedral in 1849. Farver's dear friend, Joe Gehlen, was Peter and M. Catherina's grandson. Although the Fondell's "Doll Museum" left me cold, Betty and Harold seemed to be Directly to the side of Maria Dondelinger Freymann Kehlen's monument was the grave of our Great, Great Grandmother, Barbara Kirpach Freymann, who was born in Bettingen about 1772 and who died in St. Donatus on October 26, 1854 at the age of 82. Poor Maria lost her husband, son and mother-in-law all in the span of just seven months!

When I returned from the cemetery to the church, all of the cars (except my trusty Honda) were gone. The service had ended and Father Mau had fled. This was, in fact, no great disappointment, inasmuch as the good folks at Kalmes' general store had made it clear that the priest was a relative newcomer, knew little of the history of the town, and was likely to be of little help to me in any case. I took the opportunity to walk through the building, reflecting on the fact that our Grandfather probably knew it well. I soon learned that I was in very good company, indeed. (The town once had 1,200 residents served by no less than three taverns, three blacksmiths, two tailors and one very busy physician and healer, the famous Dr. Peter Selwind. A decade ago there were still 205 residents, but the current population has fallen to only 135.)

Following a brief introductory chat over coffee at Kalmes', Judy took me across the street to meet Harold and Betty Rondell, the owners of "The Doll Museum", which was formerly the home and barn of Peter Gehlen. Peter Gehlen's second wife was Margaret (or Maria) Catharina Freymann, a sister of our Great Grandfather Karl Freymann. The Gehlens were married in Dubuque's cathedral in 1849. Father's dear friend, Joe Gehlen, was Peter and M. Catharina's grandson. Although the Rondell's "Doll Museum" left me cold, Betty and Harold seemed to be sincerely interested in the research I was doing, and offered a number of useful leads and clues. They also allowed me to take several documents --including Peter Gehlen's birth certificate, a copy of his marriage certificate to "Catharina Freymann", and a translation of his obituary from the Luxemburger Gazette-- across the street to be Xeroxed at Kalmes'emporium. It will be well worth our while to check in with these good people again next summer.

After leaving the Fondells' place, Judy and I went up again to the cemetery behind the church and then to the church hall next door. The Historical Society is beginning to organize a museum there, and I was able to take extensive notes from abstracts that have been made from the parish records of baptisms, marriages and deaths.

I should mention that the language of St. Donatus today is almost exclusively English. Although most of the residents who are 60 or above still know a smattering of the old tongues, virtually none of the younger people speak anything but English, with a midwestern twang. Mr. Kalmes and another old farmer at the bar in the general store told me that in the old days nearly everyone in town spoke either Luxembourger or something they referred to as "Pfoldietsch" (this is what it sounded like to me; they couldn't spell the word). Luxembourger was the language of the Roman Catholics in town, and Pfoldietsch was used by the Lutherans. Although some attempt has been made in recent years to offer classes in Luxembourger in the village, there there has been a disappointing response among the younger generation.

Before leaving St. Donatus, I had a truly memorable midday meal at Kalmes' general store --a delicious and bountiful serving of roast pork, mashed potatoes, gravy, home-made applesauce and two local beers for the princely sum of $4.25. I was told, however, that their lunches are a mere trifle as compared with their breakfasts, which are famous for miles around. --This is something else that we will want to remember next summer!

From St. Donatus I drove on to Maquoketa (pronounced Mah-KO-keta), the county seat of Jackson County, and went directly to the Jackson County Historical Museum (also the headquarters of the Jackson County Genealogical Chapter) in the Pearson Memorial Center on the State Fair Grounds. There I was met by Nancy Keil, whom I already knew through previous correspondence. Nancy and her assistant are clearly not very well educated (at one point there was quite a discussion on whether or not the word "needle" was spelled with an "a"), but they certainly seem to know their genealogy; I found them most helpful. Unfortunately, however, both of the Jackson County histories turned out to have been written by natives of Maquoketa who almost totally ignored the Luxembourgers of Tetes des Morts; there was nothing of real interest or pertinence to us in either of the volumes. (I was left with the strong impression that the settlers of Tetes des Morts have always been looked upon as being a rather strange and unfathomable enclave of foreigners who have never been fully accepted by their neighbors and whose history is considered to be quite separate from that of the rest of the county.)

But I was not to leave Maquoketa entirely empty-handed. In the 1850 Federal Census records for Jackson County, I found the following:

FREEMAN Tete-des-mort 279-279

Carroll	33	m	Ger	Farmer
Margaret	28	m	Ger
Barbara	3	f	Ger
Margaret	2	f	Iowa
John	4/12	m	Iowa

(DUNNINGER)

FREEMAN Tete-des-mort 117-117

John	35	m	Ire	Farmer
Mary	21	f	Ire
Mary	5	f	Iowa
James	3	m	Iowa
John	10/12	m	Iowa

The first of these two entries was interesting in that it established conclusively that Karl (Carroll) Freymann and his wife Mary (despite the obvious errors in her name and sex) were in St. Donatus in 1850, and that their children Barbara, Mary (not Margaret) and John were at that time 3, 2, and 3 months old. Karl and Mary Dondelinger (not Dunninger) were, indeed, 33 and 28 years old at that time, and Barbara had been born in Olm on February 28, 1847. I had not known exactly when Mary and John were born, but on the basis of this evidence it was now clear that they were born in the years 1848 and 1849/50, respectively. Inasmuch as Mary was born in Iowa, the entry also proved that the family had arrived in Iowa at least as early as 1848. The second entry was also useful in helping to resolve a question that had long been bothering me about a certain "John Freiman" who is said to have arrived in the St. Donatus area along with Peter Gehlen in 1846; this new evidence strongly suggested that the mysterious Mr. "Freiman" may actually have been an Irishman named Freeman, and in no way related. (I later learned, however, that an "Honara Freiman," daughter of "Joannie Freiman et Maria Dellehanty" was baptised at St. Donatus on August 30, 1863. I'm still not sure whether this John Freiman was our Irishman "Freeman" or someone else.)

Nancy Keil and her assistant strongly urged me to pay a visit to the County Court before my departure. After a good night's sleep at a local motel, I was at the Maquoketa County Court House when the doors opened at 8:30 a.m. There I immediately instituted two searches: first, for land records that might offer some indication of precisely when Karl and Maria Freymann arrived in Iowa, and second, for Karl's naturalization papers. I did not feel that I had sufficient time to look through the probate records for Karl's will (if he had one), but we may wish to take on that task next summer.

But I was not to leave Maquoketa entirely empty-handed. In the 1850 Federal Census records for Jackson County, I found the following:

Although I found no naturalization papers, I was successful in determining (From the Deed Record Lands Volume D for Jackson County, Page 524) that on December 5, 1848, Eliza M. Dixon of Dubuque County sold to Charles Freyman of Jackson County for $500 "the West half of the Northwest quarter and the West half of the Southwest quarter of Section 13 in Township 87 North of Range 3, East of the fifth PM (principal meridien) containing 160 acres together with all and singular the appurtenances thereunto belonging." Another entry in Deed Record Lands Volume G for Jackson County, page 97 shows that on August 13, 1852, William Joshua Barney and Georgiana F. Barney of Dubuque County sold to Charles Freyman of Jackson County for $105 "The West half of the Northwest quarter of Secton 24 in Township 87 North of Range 3, East of the fifth Prin. Mer. in the Dubuque Land District, Iowa." An examination of current plat maps indicates that much of the first property mentioned lay directly on the bank of the Mississippi River, approximately 4 1/2 miles ESE of the Catholic Church of St. Donatus. The remainder of the lands adjoined directly to the South, a short distance inland and to the West of the river. The current owners of these lands are [redacted] J. & B. Schoop, Mark & Tracey Hueneke, Vera Griebel, Rex & Judith Graham, and Herbert Hueneke. I'm planning to ask Judy Nemmers if any old buildings --possibly the original Karl Freymann homestead?-- still stand on any of these properties. It would be interesting to visit the old sites this summer!

Unfortunately, it did not occur to me to check out the land purchases of Nicholas Kellen, who married the widowed Maria Dondelinger Freymann in 1859, just 2 1/2 years after Karl's death. It is altogether possible that the original Freymann homestead may have been sold and that our grandfather, Nicholas Freymann (who was born in February of 1854, only 37 days before his father's death) may never actually have lived on the original acreage bought by Karl Freymann. We may want to check this out --both the sales of lands by Maria and the purchases of land by Nicholas Kellen-- when we are back in the area next summer. The probate records may also give us some useful information on these matters.

From Moqueketa, I drove on to Iowa City and the State Historical Society of Iowa, where I was greeted by Karen Laughlin, a librarian with whom I had been in correspondence since February. An hour later, I broke for lunch with Peter Isacson, whom I had not seen for 28 years. Pete now sports a beard and looks about 70 or 75, but I found him in fine form . Although he resigned as department head some time ago and plans to formally retire within the next couple of years, he is still very much involved in the University of Iowa Medical School's Preventive Medicine program. One thing he mentioned to me seemed to bear directly upon my research: the cancer rates among the Luxembourgers and Germans of Dubuque and Jackson Counties are for some reason markedly different --and lower-- than those of other ethnic groups in that immediate area. It occurs to me that this rather curious fact may be just one more piece of evidence to support the theory suggested six paragraphs above: that the good folk of St. Donatus and environs have always been a breed apart from their immediate neighbors. During my earlier investigations, I noted that the old Township of Tetes des Morts had consistently had the lowest

During my earlier investigations, I noted that the old Township of Tetes des Morts had consistently had the lowest mortgage failure rate in Iowa. My guess is that the entire outlook and life style of the German and Luxembourger settlers --including their choice of diet-- has always been quite different from that of their non-Teutonic neighbors in the northeast corner of the state. Pete expressed a lively interest in discussing this and other such matters with Moye and Jeff. He has, apparently, taken a particular interest in water supplies and the incidence of cancer in riparian communities. We enjoyed a pleasant lunch and a couple of beers together before I returned to the State Historical Society in mid-afternoon.

I spent several hours poring over microfilmed copies of The Luxemburger Gazette a Catholic, German-language newspaper published in Dubuque from 1871 to 1918, but found the old German characters very difficult to read. I did find a number of interesting items, however, and was amused to find reports on Farver's appointment to the U.S. Naval Medical Corps (May 17, 1917), concerning his service aboard the U.S.S. Caldwell (Jan. 10, 1918), and a brief note stating that he and his brother Vincent were both serving in the U.S. Army (June 13, 1918).

Of considerably greater interest were the microfilms of St. Donatus Catholic Church's original, hand-written parish records from 1850 through 1966. Here I found --in the Liber Baptisatorum, the Liber Matrimoniarum, and the Liber Defunctorum-- many dates that I had not previously been able to nail down. A typical entry, concerning our Great Grandfather: "Carolus Freiman A.D. 1854 die 31 Mars. Sepultes est Carolus Freiman rite sacra mortes refectus, 37 anni natus mortuus est." And another, concerning our Great, Great Grandmother: "Barb. Freiman A.D. 1854 die 26 Octob. Sepulta est Barbara Freiman, sacramentes rite munita, uxor defuncti Petri Freiman, in aetate 62 anni."

One unusually interesting set of items that I found in these records reported the deaths on January 3, 1867 of "Maria Freiman, 48 ann." and "Infant Nemmers," the child of "Nicolaus Nemmers and Maria Freiman." Again on January 13, 1867 there was a note on the death of "Nicholas Nemmers, son of Nicolas Nemmers and Maria Freiman." The mother here was Great Grandfather Karl Freymann's sister Maria, who was born in Olm on July 19, 1819 and married Nicholas Nemmers following her arrival in Iowa. By my reading of the entries in the Liber Defunctorum, she appears to have died in childbirth --the first of the twins having been lost at birth and the other ten days later. Karl and Maria Freymann also had twins: our Grandfather Nicholas and his brother Dominic, who died at the age of 6 1/2 months. They do seem to run in the family!

Peter Isacson came back to the Historical Society at mid-afternoon to urge me to cancel my motel reservation and to have dinner and spend that night with him and Ruth. I readily agreed, and it was truly a very enjoyable evening. We had a delicious Chinese dinner at a nearby restaurant, and then repaired to Chez Isacson for great quantities of Australian beer (I had forgotten that they had spent a year there early in their marriage) and good talk. Even their two cats --Big Foot and Brandeis ("he's meted out a lot of justice in his day") proved to be quite congenial, and a good time was had by all. --You may be interested to know that Peter's eldest daughter is married (no children) in Seattle, his second daughter is working with the Seattle Symphony (Ballet?) and his youngest daughter will graduate next year from the University of Iowa Medical School.

I returned to the Historical Society of Iowa on Friday morning and again spent many hours poring over their records. By noon I was getting rather spacey, but one last thought occurred to me. It was clear that when Karl Freymann came to America, there was considerable confusion concerning both the spelling of his name and his nationality: the official records often labled Luxembourgers either as "German" or "Dutch." Purely on speculation, I picked up a volume entitled "Dutch Immigrants on U.S. Ship Passenger Manifests, 1820-1880" (compiled by Robert P. Swierenga, Scholarly Resources, Inc., Wilmington, Delaware, 1983) and found the following on page 309:

FREEMAN, C.	Husband; Farmer	m	Age 30	Destination: USA
FREEMAN, M.	Housewife	f	Age 25	Destination: USA
FREEMAN, B.	Daughter	f	Age 01	Destination: USA
FREEMAN, M.	Sister	f	Age 20	Destination: USA

The place of origin for all of those listed above was "Netherlands, Holland," but with the notation that their "last residence was not stated." They had embarked aboard the Tarquin* at Ha e, France, and arrived at the Port of New York on July 26, 1847.

Although I was confident that I had at long last found the exact date upon which Karl Freymann and his wife Maria, his daughter Barbara, and his sister Maria had arrived in the United States, I still needed some kind of confirmation. Fortunately, I found it on the very same shelf: a book entitled "Dutch Emigrants to the U.S., South Africa and Southeast Asia, 1835-1880" (compiled by Robert P. Swierenga, Scholarly Resources, Inc., Wilmington, Delaware, 1983) lists every citizen of the Netherlands who emigrated from that country between 1835-1880, and no person named "Freeman" is included! I then consulted the naturalization records of Dubuque County, Iowa (Declaration of Interest, Dubuque Co., Iowa, Book 1, 1832-1856) and found (among others) the following entries on page 8:

John Freeman, age (not given), renounced Ire.; signed declaration on August 15, 1843.
Peter Gehlin, age (not given), renounced Ger., signed declaration February 17, 1847.
✓ Charles Freeman, age 30, renounced Hol., signed declaration on August 16, 1847.
Nicholas Nemmers, Age 31, renounced Hol., signed declaration August 16, 1847.

It seems clear that the U.S. immigration and naturalization authorities at that and a good time was had by all. -- You may be interested to know that Peter's eldest daughter is married (no children) in Seattle, his second daughter is working with the Seattle Symphony (Ballet?) and his youngest daughter will graduate next year from the University of Iowa Medical School.

* I have already sent an application to the Reference Services Branch of the National Archives and Records Service in Washington requesting full details from the Tarquin's passenger manifest for this voyage.

It seems clear that the U.S. immigration and naturalization authorities at that time were largely oblivious to the existence of Luxembourg. It seems likely to me that immigrants such as Peter Gehlen, Karl Freymann and Nicholas Nemmers --if they had any voice in the matter at all-- simply found it easier to label themselves as Dutchmen or Germans than to try to explain European geography and history to the functionaries with whom they were dealing. I find it amusing that, because of these circumstances, our forebears never actually renounced their allegiance to Luxembourg, but only to Holland, which they may never even have seen. --I would guess, however, that in leaving Luxembourg they may first have taken a boat up the Mosel River to Koblenz, and from thence up the Rhein to Rotterdam. From there they could have taken a coastal ferry down to Le Havre to board the Tarquin. Having just arrived from Rotterdam, they they might well have been taken for "Hollanders."

--In any case, this final piece of information on Karl Freymann's "declaration of intention" really nailed everything down rather neatly for me, and I prepared to leave. Before I did, however, I went back to the "Dutch Emigrants to the U.S." book and took down the names of all 13 of the Wentinks who emigrated from the Netherlands to the United States between 1835 and 1880. This should give us a good lead, someday, on the ancestry of Nicholas Freymann's second wife --our Grandmother-- Elizabeth Wentink of Port Washington, Wisconsin .

Follow up? — for in F note — Jan 1584

Without further ado, I picked up and left Iowa City and headed for Ithaca, New York. After spending Thursday night in a motel at La Porte Indiana, I arrived in Ithaca at mid-afternoon on Friday and went directly to the home of Cousin Sorrel and Nic Bodman. Although I had occasionally corresponded with her for more than 20 years, this was my first meeting with Cousin Sorrel (her grandmother was the youngest daughter of Great, Great Grandfather Francis Sorrel's eleven children; our Grandfather Richard Henry Douglass Sorrel was his second child and oldest boy). She is a perfectly delightful person, and her husband --a professor emeritus of Chinese Linguistics at Cornell-- is equally congenial. Although I had driven 600 miles that day and was just a bit tired, and despite the fact that Cousin Sorrel had just returned from a cataract operation, we immediately launched into a discussion of Sorrel Family history that didn't end until I left Ithaca following lunch on Saturday afternoon.

I had hoped that Sorrel might have a great store of interesting portraits to copy, but the only ones in her possession are the original photograph of Francis Sorrel, a very tiny painting (large miniature) of Matilda Moxley Sorrel, a small tempera painting of Uncle Frank of Roanoke, and a fine, large painting of Alexander Claxton, U.S.N. (who died when serving as the commanding officer of the U.S.S. Constitution --"Old Ironsides"-- on Pacific station), which Captain Claxton left to his godchild, Alexander Claxton Sorrel. --All of these I now have on film, for posterity.

Although I tried to read through all of Cousin Sorrel's original family letters, the time was simply too short. I was greatly pleased and surprised when she agreed to let me take them with me back to Scituate to copy. They include several original time were largely oblivious to the existence of Luxembourg. Although I tried to read through all of Cousin Sorrel's original family letters, the time was simply too short. I was greatly pleased and surprised when she agreed to let me take them with me back to Schlafe to copy. They include several original letters --in French-- from various Sillans and Pellerins in Louisiana, and I very much hope that these will throw new light on many of the questions that Moye and Gordon and I were wrestling with in Louisiana last June. We shall see.

At 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, I bade Sorrel and Nic a fond farewell and set out for Scituate, which I reached at 7:15 p.m. that evening. My valiant new Honda performed magnificently, and Alice and Jeff were on hand to greet me with an ice cold Budweiser and delicious dinner as I walked in the door. It had all been a wonderful adventure, but I must admit that it was a great relief to be home!

I do apologize for the ridiculous length of this screed, but I did want to set down all of the more important facts while they were still fresh in my mind. In due course, I'll try to reduce all that I've learned into a much more condensed and palatable form.

Cheers,

P.S. --Just a few more items for Moye's attention: your request for copies of the Sister Mary Cleo Tritz dissertation and the little pamphlet entitled "The Luxembourg Language of Historic St. Donatus" arrived at the Historical Society of Iowa in Iowa City while I was there. I told Karen Laughlin, the librarian, that I would be glad to handle the enquiry for her, and that there was no need for her to respond. I already have copies of the Tritz document for you and Jeff, Moye, and the pamphlet on the Luxembourg language --sold to tourists passing through St. Donatus for $1-- is utterly worthless.

I have, by the way, finally been able to secure copies (on inter-library loan) of the re-edition of Nicholas Gonner's 2-volume work "Luxembourgers in the New World" originally published in Dubuque in 1889. It appears to be a useful source, and I plan to buy a set of my own. I'll feed you copies of any excerpts that seem to be particularly pertinent.

While in Iowa City, I scanned the "Jackson County History" compiled and written by the Iowa Writers' Program of the WPA in the State of Iowa and published in 1942. Just as the other Jackson County Histories, it is singularly lacking in material of interest to us. The word "Luxemburgers" doesn't even appear in the index, and the two or three references to St. Donatus and Tetes des Morts are extremely superficial.

Cheers,

P.S. --Just a few more items for Moye's attention: your request for copies of the Sister Mary Cleo Thiltz dissertation and the little pamphlet entitled "The Luxembourg Language of Historic St. Donatus" arrived at the Historical Society of Iowa in Iowa City while I was there. I told Karen Laughlin, the librarian, that I would be glad to handle the enquiry for her, and that there was no need for her to respond. I already have copies of the Thiltz document for you and left Moye, and the pamphlet on the Luxembourg language --sold to tourists passing through St. Donatus for $1-- is utterly worthless.

I have, by the way, finally been able to secure copies (on inter-library loan) of the translation of Nicholas Gonner's 2-volume work "Luxembourgers in the New World" originally published in Dubuque in 1889. It appears to be a useful source, and I plan to buy a set of my own. I'll send you copies of any excerpts that seem to be particularly pertinent.

While in Iowa City, I scanned the "Jackson County History" compiled and written by the Iowa Writers' Program of the WPA in the State of Iowa and published in 1942. Just as the other Jackson County Histories, it is singularly lacking in material of interest to us. The word "Luxembourgers" doesn't even appear in the index, and the two or three references to St. Donatus and Tete des Morts are extremely superficial.

MEMO FOR RECORD

The following notes were made during my trip to St. Donatus, Maquoketa and Iowa City, Iowa from April 10-14, 1989:

Notes taken from a typed transcript of the St. Donatus Roman Catholic Church records located in the Church Rectory in St. Donatus:

Baptisms: Children of Nicholas Nemmers and Maria Freiman:

✓ Caroline	Bapt.	August 28, 1865	(d. Aug 29, 1865)	104
✓ Joannes	Bapt.	Sept. 25, 1862	(d. Dec. 30, 1866)	70
✓ John Peter	Bapt.	Dec. 28, 1857		20
✓ Nicholas	Bapt.	Aug. 13, 1860		46
✓ Susanna	Bapt.	Apr. 18, 1856		13

(Note: Judy Nemmers told me that she had the impression that Nicholas Nemmers "moved out to Le Mars" and "may have had more children there.")

Betty Fondell of St. Donatus told me that at least two great grandchildren of Peter Gehlen are still living in Bellevue, Iowa: Joanne Callaghan Felderman and John (?) Callaghan. John (?) Callagahan lives most of the year in California, but still maintains a residence in Bellevue. "--They would have old pictures, etc."

Betty Fondell also has a photographic portrait of Peter Gehlen and copies of Peter Gehlen's birth and first marriage certificates. --I made Xeroxes of the two certificates.

Judy Nemmers (Box 4, St. Donatus, Iowa 52071) told me that she has had dealings with a very well qualified researcher --connected with the Luxembourg National Archives-- in Luxembourg. She also mentioned that Mrs. Karen Gonner Storm of the Loras College Library, Loras College, 11450 Alta Vista, Dubuque, Iowa 52001 would probably be an excellent source of information concerning early communications between Bishop Mathias Loras and the parishes in Olm and other Luxembourg communities.

--Nowhere in this official Dutch listing of all emigrants from the Netherlands from 1835 through 1880 is there any mention of a "Freeman", "Freiman", or "Freymann".

It occurred to me that it might someday be useful to have a listing of the Wentinks (there were no "Wentings") who left the Netherlands during this period. The following are listed on page 330:

				Municipality	Province
WENTINK, Adrianus	19	Dutch Ref. Ch.	1865	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, B.	33	" " "	1865	Deventer	Overijsel
WENTINK, Cornelis	17	" " "	1866	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, D.	37	" (wife +4 child)	1866	Herwen en Aerdt	Gelderland
WENTINK, F.	39	"	1859	(went to Africa)
WENTINK, Frans	51	" (wife +3 child)	1866	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, Geurtie (F)	38	"	1865	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, Hendrik	26	" (wife +1 child)	1866	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, J.W.	29	R.C.(wife+1child)	1854	Zelhelm	Gelderland
WENTINK, Krijn	23	Dutch Ref. Ch.	1866	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, Paulus	38	" (wife+3 child)	1854	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, Paulus	26	Dutch Ref. Ch.	1864	Oudorp	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, Pieter	52	" (3 children)	1867	Goedereede	Zuid Holland
WENTINK, Teunis	19	"	1865	Oudorp	Zuid Holland

All of the above Wentinks stated that they were leaving the Netherlands for "economic improvement."

Earliest 1854. And only one Catholic.
Period covered by this book 1835–1880.
If no Wentinks from Netherlands before
1854, could this mean Gerhard Wentink
(who we know was. by Sept 1846) came from another nation; e.g. Luxemburg?

Check the Library at Loras Colledge for information concerning Bishop Loras' efforts to encourage migrations from Luxemburg to the United States. Did he have direct correspondence with the Parish of Kehlen? Contact: Karen Gonner Storm, Librarian, Loras Library, Loras College, 11450 Alta Vista, Dubuque, Iowa 52001. (Note also that, according to David G. Freymann of Dyersville and Honolulu, a cousin Don Freymann is the development officer at Loras College; we may want to look him up.)

If we have the time and inclination, we may want to check out the Dubuque phone book. David G. Freymann of Honolulu mentioned a cousin Grace Marie Freymann (never married), now around 80 and retired in Dubuque, who received a PhD in psychology at ISU and spent her career in that field. Her brother Virgil (who died a few years ago) was the father of Don Freymann of Loras College.

Check Dubuque's Roman Catholic Diocese records for the exact date of Peter Gehlen's marriage to Catherina Freiman in 1849; also for dates and places of the death of Peter Gehlen's first wife and two children. (If appropriate, do the same in nearby Galena, Illinois.)

According to Suzanne Dockal Rogers's thesis (page 93), "St. Donatus' Church was a mission church of Holy Trinity in Dubuque." --It might be useful to check and see if Holy Trinity retains any early records concerning Charles Freymann's involvement in the founding of the church in St. Donatus (Rogers says on pgs. 90-91 that Charles Freymann and Theodore Hoxmeier witnessed the original deed to the St. Donatus Church in December of 1851).

At the Dubuque Library or Dubuque Historical Society, check "History of Dubuque County" by C. Childs, Western Historical Co., Chicago, 1880, "History of Dubuque County" by Oldt, Chicago, 1911, and the Rev. M. M. Hoffmann's "Centennial History of the Archdiocese of Dubuque", Columbia College Press, Dubuque, 1938, for references to Peter Gehlen, Charles Freymann, Nicholas Kellen and other early Luxemburger settlers. Also, any Vital Records maintained at Dubuque Town Hall. (If appropriate, do the same in nearby Galena, Illinois.) .

Ask about burial records and local cemeteries in use during the 1845-1849 period. Locate graves of Catherina Freiman Gehlen and her two children?

Check U.S. Census records of Jackson County for 1860, 1870 and 1880, looking for the Nicholas Kellen Family and for John Freymann (listed as 4 months old in 1850 census), Mary Freymann (Mrs. Nicholas Hilbert), Catherine Freymann (Mrs. Nicholas Claussen) and other "loose ends."

When in St. Donatus :

Make reservations at the Harbor Motel (Highway 52 North, Bellevue, Iowa 52031. Telephone (319) 872-4644).

Meet with Judy Nemmers (Box 4, St. Donatus Iowa 52071) and Betty and Harold Fondell (The Doll House). --Maybe take them over to Kalmas's Store for coffee or lunch. Ask them about any old letters, Bibles, etc., that might be of help to us.

Try to determine from local sources where Nicholas Kellen and Maria Dondelinger lived following their marriage in November, 1859. (This information can be obtained in Maquoketa if local sources fail.)

Visit the original Charles Freymann homestead area (now owned by J. & B. Shoop, Vera Griebel, Rex and Judith Graham or Herbert Hueneke) to take photographs of any remaining buildings or cellar holes. If we can determine where Nicholas and Maria Kellen lived in the years following their marriage in 1859, we should also try to visit and photograph that property.

Make another, more thorough search of the gravestones in the cemetery behind St. Donatus Church. Try to find the grave of John Freiman referred to by Farver.

According to Suzanne Dockal Rogers (pgs. 90-91), Charles Freymann and Theodore Hoxmeier witnessed the deed to the St. Donatus Church in December of 1851. Is this record available for us to see in St. Donatus? Are there any other old records in "The Annals" of the St. Donatus church that might be of special interest to us?

When in Springbrook :

Check local Vital Records, church records and the church graveyard for evidences of Mary Freymann (Mrs. Nicholas Hilbert) and Catherine Freymann (Mrs. Nicholas Claussen and their daughter Henrietta). I'd like to have full information on their births, marriages, offspring and deaths.

When in Maquoketa:

Check U.S. Census records of Jackson County for 1860, 1870 and 1880, looking for the household of Nicholas Kellen and for John Freymann (listed as 4 months old in 1850 census), Mary Freymann (Mrs. Nicholas Hilbert), Catherine Freymann (Mrs. Nicholas Claussen) and their offspring.

Check the Jackson County land records to determine when the original Charles Freymann properties along the Mississippi River were sold, and to whom. (Did Maria Dondelinger Freymann retain them during her period of widowhood following Charles' death in March, 1854 and before she remarried in November of 1859?) Check to determine where Nicholas Kellen lived and farmed during the period of the 1860s and 1870s. --This would have been our Grandfather Nicholas Freymann's boyhood home.

Check probate records of Charles Freymann (died Mar. 31, 1854 at St. Donatus) and of Maria Dondelinger Freymann Kellen (died Springbrook June 2, 1894) and of any other family members that might appear. --Also of Nicholas Kellen, Mary Freymann Hilbert (d. Springbrook 1920) and Catherine Freymann Claussen (m. Springbrook 8 Jan 1877).

When in Dyersville :

Check in with Aletha Kramer, Historian at the The Dyersville Area Historical Society.

According to David G. Freymann of Honolulu, his Uncle Pete in Dyersvile has a copy of JMF's March 14th letter and "will try to get more information for you on his uncles and aunts. Dr. Frank was a dentist, and died young of TB. I never knew him or Catherine, Margaret, Peter Jr., or Aloysisus. I knew Joe when I was very young. My grandfather was the most successful one in the family, in terms of worldly success, and he was quite a guy. Hopefully, Pete can give you more information on each."

If we are in the neighborhood, we really should make a pilgrimage out to the "Field of Dreams" cornfield.

When in Le Mars :

Make reservations at the Amber Inn Motel, Hwy 75 South, Le Mars, Iowa, 51031; phone 546 6073.

Meet for long family conversations with Aunt Ottillia, Aunt Armella, Cousin Phyllis Koopman (Vincent's daughter, born 1923) and Cousin Nick (Albert's son, born 1942). Ask if there are any Family Bibles, diaries, deeds, correspondence, photographs, or other old documents (similar to the ones that Nick sent me) that may contain information of interest.

Visit with Father Dale George at St. Joseph's Church (20 6th Ave. N.E.), and consult the baptismal and burial records there to learn more about the children of Nicholas Freymann's first two wives. Some specific questions: Nicholas married Margaret Kleitsch of Linn County, Iowa, on 10 April 1883; WHERE? Margaret reportedly gave birth to John Freymann on 7 August 1884. HOW LONG DID THAT CHILD LIVE? Nicholas' second wife, Elizabeth Wentink, must have joined St. Joseph's Church shortly after her marriage to Nicholas Freymann in Port Washington, Wisconsin, on 27 Sept 1887; WAS A COPY OF HER BAPTISMAL RECORD SENT ON TO ST. JOSEPH'S IN LE MARS BY HER FORMER CHURCH (ST. MARY'S) IN PORT WASHINGTON? IS IT POSSIBLE THAT ELIZABETH WENTINK MAY HAVE BEEN BAPTIZED UNDER SOME OTHER CHRISTIAN NAME THAN ELIZABETH? Elizabeth reportedly gave birth to Joseph Freymann on 8 Aug 1888. HOW LONG DID THAT CHILD LIVE? Elizabeth is also said to have given birth to another Joseph Freymann in September, 1891, who is said to have died on 12 Jan 1892. WHAT DO THE BAPTISTISMAL AND DEATH RECORDS AT ST. JOSEPH'S HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THIS? DID ELIZABETH DIE DURING OR SHORTLY AFTER THIS DELIVERY? WHAT WAS THE EXACT DATE OF ELIZABETH'S DEATH?

We will also want to search the Church records and graveyard in Le Mars for family gravestones --particularly that of Elizabeth Wentink Freymann, to confirm the date and place of her birth. Also buried at St. Joseph's are Nicholas Freymann and Susan, Charles M. Freymann and Clara, Albert N. Freymann and Josephine, and Vincent P. Freymann.

Any information that we may be able to pick up in Le Mars on Peter Gehlen and his wife M. Catharina Freymann and their progeny will also be useful. I assume that Peter and his wife and many of their children must have been buried in Le Mars.

Visit the house where Farver was born, and --if it still exists-- the German St. Joseph's Church Society School which Farver attended and boarded at as a boy (because of the six or seven mile distance from his home in Oyens). Visit the house in which Nicholas Freymann last lived and died in August, 1920: 1504 Fifth Street.

Meet with Betty L. Winterringer of the Northwest Iowa Genealogical Society at the Le Mars Public Library (46 1st Street S.W.) and consult their Marriage, Birth and Death Records of Plymouth County, files of the old Le Mars Sentinel, etc. --In her letter of Feb. 9, 1989, Mrs. Winterringer said "When you come to town, we would be glad to come to the library to show you where things are and also to go to the court house and show you where things are there. It would save you a lot of time. It always seems that it takes the first day to just find where things are." (Note: I am due to renew my $5 membership in the Society; Moye and Jeff should also join.) Mr. Winterringer (who is president of the Society) has expressed a willingness to take us on a personally guided tour of the local museum --the one in which, I believe, Uncle "Shucks" Freymann's World War I Army uniform is still proudly displayed.

The Genealogical Society has old funeral home records and an index of the 1870, 1880, 1900 and 1910 Federal Censuses. --These should be of special interest to us. The Federal Census Index of Plymouth County, Iowa shows an entry in 1880 for Nicholas Freymann, America Twp. page 106A; in 1900 for Nichlas Freymann, Marion Twp. page 169A; and in 1910 for Nick Freyman, Marion Twp. page 173B.

Check probate records at the Court House. According to Betty L. Winterringer, the following probates are listed: #520 M. C. Freyman (M. Catherina Freymann Gehlen?); #1129 Jno. J. Freyman (Farver?); #2283 Jaen Freyman; and #2718 Nicholas Freyman (Grandfather Freymann?). --A careful check should be made to determine whether there are other probate and/or land records that may be of interest to us.

Check the "History of Woodbury & Plymouth Counties, Iowa" for further references to Nicholas Freymann, Peter & M. Catherina Gehlen, etc. Ask Betty Winterringer if a comprehensive genealogy of the Peter Gehlen Family exists.

When in Oyens and Remsen :

Visit all of the major historical sites, including Father Rolfes' St. Catherine's Church and School (completed in 1900 and from which Farver graduated with the gold medal for excellence in 1905), and Nicholas Freymann's Plymouth Milling Company mill. Take particular note of the pipe organ (which Farver pumped) and of the "stained glass windows" (which Farver helped Father Rolfes paint) at St. Catherine's Church. Check the Church records (and graveyard?) for any items of possible genealogical interest.

Check with Ms. Ethel Heidesch at the Remsen Public Library (which has copies of the Remsen Bell (1919-1978) on microfilm). Ms. Heidesch has been researching some of the same family names as we have, and may have some useful information to share with us.

When in Omaha :

Do as the Omahans do: eat, drink, be merry, and generally cut up. Also, make pilgrimages to the old Fenger Hospital (now the Lord Lister), St. Joseph's Hospital, #22 Drake Court, the alley above 3222 Pacific Street, 321 So. 53rd Street, the post-War Mayberry Street house, Field Club School, Dundee School, Central High, George Loomis's old back yard, Hanscom Park, the cave near Turner Boulevard, the Saturday Morning Hiking Club's secret hiding-place-tree, the Blackstone and Commodore Hotels, Evans' Ice Cream and Home Style Establishment and Clanton's Store, the World, Orpheum, Paramount and Muse Theaters, the Prague, Union Station, Herzburg's and Roger's Restaurants, and sundry other eating and watering places of more recent memory. If there's time, I'd also like to look up Johnny Henderson, Billy Latenser, Katherine Kennelly, Joe Farro, Tom Holbrook, Mimi Loomis, Barbara Loucks and Rae Dickinson Kehoe. If you're game, we might even find an opportunity to vandalize Homer Roger's garage and to visit Bob Muffit up at the state pen in Lincoln.

Jmf was Mrs. Hoffmann a Dondelinger Too!

In the same 1860 census: Dwelling #518, Family #489: Charles Hoffmann, 33, male; --wife and three children. Also in the Hoffmanns' household: "Nicholas Dondelinger, 60, male, Luxemburg; Susan Dondelinger, 60, female, Luxemburg; and Philip Dondelinger, 21, farm laborer, Luxemburg. Also, in Prairie Springs Township (but ennumeration made out of the St. Donatus Office), Dwelling #534: "Jacob Dondelinger, 55, male, farmer, real estate $1000, personal estate $350, Luxemburg; (Household:) Mary Dondelinger, 59, female, Prussia; Mary Dondelinger, 9, female, Iowa; Susan Dondelinger, 9, female, Iowa; John Dondelinger, 6, male, Iowa."

~~(Inscription in German) Anna Catharina Weber, b. 21 Feb 1821 in Seinerhols amt Wallmerod, Nassau; d. 29 Sept 1880. At the base of the monument: Katherine Weber, d. 3 Oct. 1907; Philip Weber, d. 19 Dec. 1886 at age of 68 yrs 3 months.~~

(Inscription in German) Katharine Frymman (sic), wife of N. Clasen, b. 28 Mar. 1852, d. 2 Jan. 1896. At bottom of monument: CLASEN; on side: Nikolaus, son of N. & K. Clasen, b. 10 Feb 1883, d. 24 Feb. 1883; Margaretha, daughter of N. & K. Clasen, b. 13 Feb 1890, d. 5 Mar 1891; Nikolaus Clasen, b. 24 Aug 1841, d. 2 Oct 1910.

Directly next to the above Clasen monument: John Clasen, b. 27 Apr 1844, d. 20 May 1927. --Directly next to this: Lucy Clasen, b. 1888, d. 1954.

Next to these Clasen memorials: a headstone saying "Margaretha" and "Nickolaus," and directly next to it: Anna Maria Budde b. 1892, d. 1918 (according to Jeff, this was another Claussen child).

Elsewhere: Lawrence J. Clasen, b. 17 Sept 1916, d. 27 Apr 1989 and his wife, Armella T. Clasen, b. 6 Sept 1914, d. (not yet dead), parents of Janice, Larry, Bonnie, Robert and Cathy.

A child of Nicholas Clasen & Catherine Freymann: Antoinette Sturm, b. 1886 - d. 1955, who married Joseph Sturm, b. 1881 - d. 1949. Also their child, Roman J. Sturm, b. 1921 - d. 1921.

A memorial to Nicholas and Mary Hilbert is flanked by two smaller stones, one inscribed "Father, b. 8 June 1845, d. 16 Dec 1933," and the other inscribed "Mother, b. 9 Sept 1848, d. 21 May 1917." At some distance: N. Hilbert, b. 1817, d. 7 Aug 1886. On the same marker: Catharina Hilbert, d. 25 Aug 1877 at age 50. Next to this monument: Nicholas Hilbert, d. 4 Feb 1889 aged 77 yrs, 7 months, 23 days.

There are a number of Polls buried in the Springbrook Cemetery, as well as Hoffmanns. Among the oldest of the several Dondelinger memorials in the cemetery was one inscribed: Susannah Dondelinger, b. 1 Jan 1800, d. 25 Jul 1873. On the same stone: "Nicholas Dondelinger, b. 1 Jan 1800 (sic), d. 20 Jan 1872. Next to this marker is one to Philip Dondelinger, d. 23 Mar 1905 at age of 65 years 5 months and Katherine Dondelinger, d. 8 Jun 1924, age 78 years. Also nearby: Peter Dondelinger, 1883 - 1968 and Elizabeth, 1896 - 1972.

Found in the St. Donatus Roman Catholic Church Cemetery:

(In German) Here lies Catherine, daughter of Michael and Anna E. Nemmers, d. 15 Aug 1850 ("0"is in doubt), age 8. On same monument: Michael Nemmers, b. at Dondelingen, Luxemburg, 29 Sept 1822, d. 23 Jan 1883. Same monument: Anna Nemmers, nee Ewen, b. at Alttrier, Luxemburg, 14 May 1824, d. 15 Jan 1906.

At very front left corner of graveyard: Nicholas Nemmers, d 1 July 1886, age 1 month; John Peter Nemmers, d. 25 Aug 1901, age 10 years; Rosa Nemmers, d. 28 Mar 1905, age 1 day.

Other notes taken in St. Donatus:

Notes taken from a pamphlet entitled "Golden Jubilee of the Pastor and Parish Gilbertville, Iowa: Historical Sketch Written on the Occasion of The Golden Jubilee of Father John N. Nemmers and of the Immaculate Conception Parish, Gilbertville, Iowa, 1875 - 1925" (Reprinted Sept. 1983): (page 9) "Father Nemmers comes from a family of German-speaking people, whose ancestral home is the famous little Duchy of Luxemburg in Europe. His parents and some relatives came to America and settled near Tetes des Morts, now St. Donatus, in Jackson County, Iowa, in July, 1847, just the year after this State was admitted to the Union. They built a small, temporary cabin of logs, and in this humble little home Father Nemmers was born on the 16th of October, 1847, about three months after the family had settled there. Thus by the small margin of three months Father Nemmers is an American and an Iowan by birth, and is proud of the fact. He furthermore has the distinction of being the oldest native Iowa priest now living in the State. He is the fourth of a family of twelve children, one of whom died in infancy, and the others were brought up in true Christian virtue and civic usefulness by their thoroughly God-loving parents. (page 10) . . . The little temporary cabin was replaced after a year or two by a more substantial log cabin with two rooms, and this served as a dwelling place for the family until Father Nemmers was about seventeen or eighteen years of age. Then the large stone house was built, which stands to this day. This was the home of the family, until, as in all families, the members left one by one to follow the vocation to which God called them, some to rear other families, one to enter the Convent of Notre Dame, and Father Nemmers to take up the duties of the priesthood. The old house still remains, and, though it has passed into other hands, it will always be the "home, sweet home" of the long ago for those who lived and labored there together."

Note: Our friend Judy Nemmers took us to the old house described above, which lies only a short distance to the west and south of St. Donatus. Just to the east of the old Nemmers place is another old house (now owned by Judy Hueneke), which could, conceivably, once have been the home of the Charles Freymann and Nicholas Kellen families (judging solely by the fact that the early censuses listed the Nemmers and Freymann/Kellen families as next door neighbors). It was just a bit further along this road as it heads down toward the village of St. Donatus --and a short distance off the road, to the right-- that Farver's old photograph of St. Donatus (made by him during his childhood?) was taken. The farm where the picture was taken is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thoma.

Notes taken in Cemetery behind St. Joseph's RC Church in Le Mars:

Monument to Peter Gehlen, "1816 - 1880" Catharine Gehlen, "1828 - 1896." (Note: these dates are very clear.) To the side of the last-mentioned monument is a large mausoleum containing the remains of John Herron (Peter Gehlen's partner) and also marked "Gehlen." We were told by Aunts Armella and Ottillia that Peter was to have been buried in this structure, but that his casket proved to be too large to fit through the door of the vault. Directly in front of the Peter and Catharine Gehlen monument is another stone inscribed Sarah, wife of John H. Gehlen, b. 3 Apr 1858, d. 14 May 1885. On the other side of the same marker: Meda, daughter of J. H. and Sarah Gehlen, b. 5 Mar 1885, d. 10 May 1885. Behind the Peter and Catharine Gehlen memorial are two markers for Sarah Gehlen and Meda Gehlen.

Directly behind the monuments just described are the M. P. Nemmers family : Michael P. Nemmers, 1843 - 1925; Catharine Nemmers, 1851 - 1928.

It was just a bit farther along this road as it heads down toward the village of St. Donatus -- and a short distance off the road, to the right -- that Farver's old photograph of St. Donatus (made by him during his childhood) was taken. Notes taken in Cemetery behind St. Joseph's RC Church in Le Mars:

Monument to Peter Gehlen, "1816 - 1867" Catharine Gehlen, "1828 - 1895." (Note: these dates are very clear.) To the side of the last-mentioned monument is a large mausoleum containing the remains of John Herron (Peter Gehlen's partner) and also marked "Gehlen." We were told by Aunts Amelia and Cecilia that Peter was to have been buried in this structure, but that his casket proved to be too large to fit through the door of the vault. Directly in front of the Peter and Catharine Gehlen monument is another stone inscribed Sarah, wife of John H. Gehlen, b. 3 Apr 1858, d. 14 May 1885. Behind the Peter and Catharine Gehlen memorial are two markers for Sarah Gehlen and Meda Gehlen.

Directly behind the monuments just described are the M. P. Nemmers family: Michael P. Nemmers, 1843 - 1925. Catharine Nemmers, 1851 - 1928.

Elsewhere: A Nemmers monument inscribed: Father Peter 1854 - 1934, Mother Margaret 1863 - 1934.

(In Germany) Here lies Johann Feldman, son of Karl and Maria, b. 26 Mar 1850, d. 4

Mar 1882. Just behind this monument: Nicholas Kellen, b. 26 Jun 1824, d. 8 Dec 1895. Directly behind him (also in German): Jakob Dondelinger, 1824 - 1898. Directly next to the Johann Freiman monument (also in German): Nikolaus Nemmers, husband of Anna Kaiser, b 12 Sept. 1845, d. 24 Mar. 1882. Next to this monument are smaller ones, closer to the ground, inscribed Nichols (sic) Nemmers, 1845 - 1882; Mother Anna Nemmers Huss, 1852 - 1920; and Father Anton Huss, 1843 - 1923. Beside the main monument (in German): Anna Nemmers Huss, b. 25 Dec 1852, d. 28 Jan 1920.

A memorial inscribed Jacob Dondelinger, 1824 - 1898 has inscriptions on two sides (in German): Marianna Faber 1885 - 1898 and, on the other side: Charles Dondelinger, 1862 - 1906; Emma M. Dondelinger, 1821 - 1913 and Josephine Dondelinger, 1868 - 1928.

As one looks at the Nicholas Kellen monument from the front, directly to the right is a ground marker that says Father, 7 Oct 1860 - 12 July 1922, and Mother, 2 Mar 1867 - 10 Feb 1940. (This was, of course, Nicholas Kellen, Jr.) On the left of the monument are Angeline, 1 Oct 1904 - 23 Oct 1918 and Martha, 18 Jan 1908 - 21 Jan 1908. Near Nicholas Freymann's grave: John N. Kellen, b. 23 Jan 1898, d. 26 Jan 1928; M. R. Kellen, 1894 - 1948; Peter Kellen, 1890 - 1968; Catharine Kellen, 1891 - 1981.

In front and to the right of Nicholas Freymann's grave are several Hoffmans, including Rose Poull Hoffman, 1872 - 1930; John A. Hoffman, Sr., 1869 - 1963; John A. Hoffman, Jr., 1912 - 1970; and Ruth A. Hoffman, 1916 - 19 - . Next to Rose Poull Hoffman's grave there is another, identical stone inscribed Paula Rose Hansen, 1939. In front of her grave is an even more recent one: Dana Ronald Hoffman, 1986. Behind this group is another, including Nickolas Hoffman, 1859 - 1934 and Mary, 1865 - 1930. Nearby is a large Hoffman monument next to which appears a stone for Father Theodor Hoffman, 1853 - 1924, Mother Anna Hoffman, 1861 - 1936, and in front, Louise Hoffman, 1898 - 1945.

Elsewhere, we found Peter Kemp, b. 10 Feb 1809, d. 4 Oct 1893. --This appears on a Pletschette monument, which also includes these notations: Maria Pletschette, b. 26 Sept 1870, d. 7 Dec. 1879 and Anna M. Pletschette, b. 8 Nov 1878, d. 15 May 1881.

Also found in the cemetery: William Colling, 1873 - 1919, Mary L. Colling, 1877 - 1970.

As indicated in the Record of Deaths and Burials and the burial chart of St. Joseph's Church (of which we have a copy), the Jacob Dondelinger monument mentioned above is listed as grave #3, Charles Dondelinger's grave as # 2, and Emma Dondelinger's grave as #1 in Section B, Lot #41. Following the same sequence and pattern, it is possible to establish the positions of some of the Freymann graves in the cemetery that are now unmarked. We know the following from the Record of Deaths and Burials of St. Joseph's Church, 1871 - 191?:

Section B, Lots 29 & 30			Burial	Age	Date of Burial

* Note indicates that Jacob Dondelinger was the brother of John Dondelinger.
 JGF note indicates some relationship with P. Kraus and J. Dondelinger?

On this basis, as one looks at the Johann Freiman monument (grave #3, Plot #29) from the front, between this monument and the Bushelman monument would be the (unmarked) graves of graves #4, #5, #6 and #7 which, respectively, would be the graves of Peter Freymann, Margaret Freymann, Joseph Nicholas Freymann and the "Infant" (Joseph) Freyman who diedat the age of 1 day in August, 1888. To the right of Johann Freymann's monument (grave #3) would be, in turn, the (unmarked) graves #2 and #1, which, respectively, would be grave #2 (unused?) and grave #1, Elizabeth Wentink Freymann, our grandmother. Thus, Elizabeth Wentink Freymann's grave would lie between the monument to Johann Freymann and the marker (set close to the ground) of "Father, Anton Huss, 1843 - 1923," which, as noted earlier, is closely connected with the Nicholas Nemmers memorial.

The present estate on the site of Nicholas Feymann's farm south of Le Mars --owned by Faye Wells, owner of Wells Dairy in Le Mars-- is called "Crownland Acres." To get there, one drives out 7th Avenue SE (which becomes a blacktopped county road) for two miles south of its intersection with 12th Street SE in Le Mars. The site of the old Freymann farmhouse (now occupied by the posh and modern "Crownland Acres" main house) lies on the left side of the road, just beyondthe intersection with county road K49. This is where John J. Freymann spent the first three or four years of his life. The farm out to the front of the present home on the site was the old Kemp place. As one looks at the Crownland Acres home from the front, the old Colling place is just over its left shoulder.

The present estate on the site of Nicholas Freymann's farm south of Le Mars --owned by Faye Wells, owner of Wells Dairy in Le Mars-- is called "Crowland Acres." To get there, one drives out 7th Avenue SE (which becomes a blacktopped county road) for two miles south of its intersection with 12th Street SE in Le Mars. The site of the old Freymann farmhouse (now occupied by the posh and modern "Crowland Acres" main house) lies on the left side of the road, just beyond the intersection with county road #49. This is where John J. Freymann spent the first three or four years of his life. The farm out to the right of the present house on the site was the old Kemp place. As one looks at the Crowland Acres home from the front, the old Cobbing place is just over its left shoulder.

An old Nemmers farmhouse (Cousin Nick Freymann told us that it was"Bill Fuchs' house originally") lies on land immediately adjoining Grandfather Nicholas Freymann's old property a short distance further down the road to the South. Grandfather Nicholas Freymann liked the design of this house so well that he is said to have had his own house built along exactly the same lines. We visited this house to get a sense of the original design. Moye and Jeff took photos of this old Nemmers House; I did not.

To get to the old Colling place, one reverses course from the entrance to "Crownland Acres," turns right on County Road K49, and proceeds East for 1 mile to the intersection with county road C38. There one turns north and proceeds North for about a quarter of a mile.

Cousin Nick Freymann told us that a year or two following the death of his father, Albert, in 1953, he and his mother moved off the old Grandfather Nicholas Freymann farm and moved into Le Mars. The farm was sold shortly after Grandmother Susan Freymann's death in 1958. The original farmhouse on the property had been moved to its present location in about 1930 - 1935. When Cousin Nick Freymann lived on the farm, he lived in a newer house that had been built on the site in about 1935; that house, in turn, was moved elsewhere when the land was purchased by a Le Mars man who made a fortune selling "Jolly Popcorn" and built his retirement home on the property. The old "Horse Barn," which lay directly east of the original (and second) farmhouse site has long since been demolished. (--This is the old barn John J. Freymann took us to in the 1930s to show us the names of his father and brothers inscribed on one of the timbers.)

About 2 1/4 miles along County Road C38 (?from its junction with K49?), past the old Colling place, on the left side of the road, is the original old Grandfather Nicholas Freymann farmhouse which was moved here early in the 1930s. (Immediately across the road, on the right, are two large, blue silos.) The present owners of the house (and farm) are a young couple named Brewer, who bought it about six years ago (circa 1983). Although the house has been much altered, the Brewers told us that there were originally three much larger, taller windows in front.

Cousin Nick Freymann told us that Aunt Christina ("Tina") Colling was 91 years old when she died in 1974, so she would have been born in 1883. Aunt Kathryn Colling was older; she had "worked in various places --department stores, etc."-- in Sioux City. "She lived with Grandma and Grandpa Freymann at first, when the kids were younger, and I think she helped out a lot with the sisters and their families and had never really entered any profession or anything, but in the later years and worked in various department stores and other places..." Neither Christina nor Kathryn ever married.

St. Catherine's Church in Oyens has been much changed over the years. A picture of the building upon completion in 1902 bears little resemblance to the structure as it stands today. We were disappointed to find that the windows which Farver helped Father Rolfes paint have now been replaced with genuine stained glass. Our guide, an 86-year-old gentleman named Alex Stoffel (who moved to Oyens in 1904 and attended St. Catherine's School from 1912 to 1914) tried very hard to be helpful to us, but did not entirely succeed. The only Freymann child that he could clearly remember was Armella. His recollection was that Nicholas Freymann "owned and ran" the elevator in Oyens; he "thought" that Nicholas had "sold out to the co-op when it was organized about 1912."

Excerpt from a pamphlet entitled "St. Catherine's, Owens Iowa, 1900 - 1975": "In the early years of St. Catherine' School, it was customary to have about two weeks of vacation for the young folks to help with corn-picking --it was all done by hand then-- usually the last of October or the first two weeks of November. In one of Father Rolfes' notes in the November 10, 1907 announcements, it seems that no one was through picking corn yet, and was not sure when school could start again."

While photgraphing the old Freymann House in Oyens, we noticed the sidewalk -- now somewhat the worse for wear and overgrownwith weeds-- which ran up from the house toward the main street of town one block away. Jeff reminded us that this must have been the place of Farver's earliest memory --falling asleeep on the sidewalk, and awaking to find a huge St. Bernard standing above him, guarding him.

September 5, 1989 -- Port Washington, Wisconsin

Saint Mary's Church in Port Washington has a corner stone dating from 1882, indicating that at least some of the Wentink children --including Elizabeth-- must have been baptized in the earlier structure on this site, which was opened in 1847. Unfortunately, none of the records of the church dating from 1847 to late 1853 are known to have survived. The existing church's records begin late in the fall of 1853.

The old cemetery of St. Mary's in Port Washington, Wisconsin, is located at the head of Dodge Street, just a few blocks above and behind the church. Unfortunately, many of the headstones were fashioned out of a soft, white sandstone, and probably 20% or more of the inscriptions can no longer be read. In the front line of stones, just four markers to the left of the front (Dodge Street) gate, is a stone dedicated to the memory of John B. Adam and Margaretha Adam. Although the inscription (in German) has been badly eroded, it appeared to me that the dates of birth and death for John B. Adam were 19 Dec. 1791 and 22 Aug. 187(6?). The dates of birth and death of Margaretha Adam appeared to be 15(?) Dec. 1800(?) and 11 (or 14) May 187(5?). Directly next to this monument is a monument to Matthias Adam, born 11 July 1816, died 15 Oct. 1876 and Elisabeth Adam, born 1 Nov. 1813 and died 11 June 1894.

Many of the names on the headstones in the old St. Mary's cemetery in Port Washington --Thoma, Thill, etc.-- had a familiar ring, being identical to those which we had previously encountered in St. Donatus. For example: John G. Poull, b. 17 Oct. 1857 and d. 28 Sept. 1876. On the same monument also appear the following inscriptions: Jacob Poull, b. (?) d. 11 June 1871 (?); Joseph Poull, b. (?) d. June (July?) 1871; and Mary Poull, b. 1 Dec. 1860, d. 8 Aug (?). Most of the older graves are inscribed in German.

Although I made a fairly comprehensive circuit of all of the monuments in the graveyard, I did not succeed in finding any bearing the name "Wentink" or "Wenting." It is altogether possible, however, that I could have missed an inscription on one of the many heavily eroded stones.

Documents in the Ozaukee County Courthouse, Port Washington, Wisconsin:

The section map of Belgium, Wisconsin, which I copied at the Ozaukee County Court House deeds registry office came from page 3 of "The Map of Washington and Ozaukee Counties, Wisconsin, 1873-1874, 1 1/2 inches = 1 mile, drawn, compiled and published by G. V. Nash and M. G. Tucker, Milwaukee, Wisconsin." Note that in the SW part of Section 28 the owner is shown as "J. Freiman." --References to a John Freiman were seen elsewhere in documents at the Court House. Note also that the property of G. Wentink in the eastern half of Section 35 is bounded by or close to lands owned by D. Dondelinger, J. Dondelinger, and (presumably another) J. Dondelinger.

Notes on my visit to the town of Belgium, Wisconsin:

What was once the town of Belgium, Wisconsin now consists of the town of Belgium and the unincorporated village of Lake Church, which lies immediately to the east of Bel;gium on the shore of Lake Michigan. Both communities are only 6 or seven miles north of Port Washington. After making inquiries in Belgium, I drove to the graveyard of the old church in Lake Church, which appears (on the accompanying 1873/74 map) in the NW corner of Section 24. I then drove exactly 4 miles west and 2 miles South, to the graveyard of the church at Holy Cross (which appears on the map at the SW corner of Section 29). I then I drove 3 miles due East, 1 mile South, and again 1/2 mile East to reach the site of Gerhard Wentink's farm in the SE quarter of Section 35. Some of my observations on these sites follow:

Many of the names on the headstones in the old St. Mary's cemetery in Port Washington – Thoma, Thill, etc.– had a familiar ring, being identical to those which we had previously encountered in St. Donatus. For example: John C. Poull, b 17 Oct 1807 and d 28 Sept 1876. On the same monument also appear the following inscriptions: Jacob Poull, b. (?) d. 11 June 1872 (?), Joseph Poull, b. (?) d. June (July?) 1871, and Mary Poull, b. 1 Dec 1861, d. 8 Aug (?). Most of the older graves are inscribed in German.

Although I made a fairly comprehensive circuit of all of the monuments in the graveyard, I did not succeed in finding any bearing the name "Wantink" or "Wenting". It is altogether possible, however, that I could have missed an inscription on one of the many heavily eroded stones.

The old church in Lake Church is St. Mary's Catholic Church, presided over by The Rev. Donald Musinski. The graveyard immediately behind the church is reminiscent of the one in Port Washington: full of familiar Luxemburger names and, lamentably, crowded with soft sandstone markers (many inscribed in German) that are no longer legible, as well as tall (about 3 1/2 feet from the ground) cast iron markers that now bear no visible inscriptions at all. Although I found no Wentinks, I did encounter the following: Nicholaus Dondelinger, b. 1809, d. 1890; (next to him:) Johannes Dondelinger, b. 1875, d. 1884; (next to him:) Catharina Dondelinger, b. 1869, d. 20 April 1900. Elsewhere in the cemetery: Joseph Dondelinger, b. 1841, d. 1916 and his wife Maria, b. 1844, d. 1889. Still elsewhere: Margaretha Dondelinger, b. 1815, d. 16 April 1897, and directly next to her: Dominik Dondelinger, b. 1812, d. 20 Feb. 1892. There were also a number of Pouli graves. This church and graveyard was located exactly 3 miles due north and .375 miles east of Gerhard Wentink's farmhouse in Section 35 of the town of Belgium, Ousakee County, Wisconsin.

The original Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church (which was located 3.625 miles west and 1 mile north of Gerhard Wentink's farmhouse) has recently been replaced by a modern church building. The cemetery in the rear is again very much like the ones in Port Washington and Lake Church --full of familiar Luxemburger names and many barely legible inscriptions in German. The largest monument in the graveyard is dedicated to "Freimann" and is flanked by two smaller stones reading "Father Peter, March 14, 1850 - August 11, 1922" and "Mother Margaret, December 3, 1854 - July 17, 1926." Directly in front of this monument: "Daughter Emily Evert, 21 Jul 1894 - 4 Feb 1989." Directly to the side, a very old, illegible monument to someone born in Luxemburg. Also next to the large Freimann monument: "Johann Freimann, b. 1813, d. 17 Jan 1896" and "Maria Freimann, b. 1811, 7 Jun 1900." This last-mentioned stone is flanked by two others enscribed: "Mutter" and "Vater." (Note: the J. Freiman farm was located just one mile due east of the cemetery.) In another section of the cemetery, I encountered "Nicholaus Freimann, b 1812 - d. ?" and next to him, "Anna Freiman, b 10 Dec 1868, d. 20 Sept 1869, age 9 months." Right next to her, a rather imposing monument (in German) to "Heinrich Freiman, b. 19 Apr 1835, d. 12 Dec 1898", "the Rev. N. L. Freiman, b. 23 Nov 1867, d. ?13 Aug 1925", and Catharina Freiman, b. 24 Nov 1834, d. 18 Aug 1909." A "Dondelinger" monument was dedicated to "Jacob, 1881-1882", "Charles, Feb. 12, 1851 - Sept. 22, 1917", "Mary, nee George, Aug. 5, 1856 - Feb 4, 1945", and "Peter, 1879 - 1882." --There were also many other names which we had seen in St. Donatus, leading me to suspect that all of these families in northeastern Iowa, eastern Wisconsin and Le Mars may have maintained regular contact for at least one or two generations during the latter half of the nineteenth century.

The fact that I failed to find any Wentink graves in these two cemeteries leads me to suspect that Gerhard may, after all, have been buried in one of the two St. Mary's graveyards in Port Washington. There are no other RC parishes between the Wentink property and Port Washington. I failed to search the "new" St. Mary's cemetery in Port Washington; perhaps Gerhard was reinterred there when his wife, Kate, died in 1903?

The old church in Lake Church is St. Mary's Catholic Church presided over by The Rev. Donald Mistele. The graveyard immediately behind the church is reminiscent of the one in Port Washington: full of familiar Luxemburger names and, invariably, crowded with soft sandstone markers (many inscribed in German) that are no longer legible, as well as tall (about 3 1/2 feet from the ground) cast iron markers that now bear no visible inscriptions at all. Although I found no Wenlinks, I did encounter the following: Nicholaus Dondelinger, b. 1809, d. 1890 (next to him) Johannes Dondelinger, b. 1875, d. 1884; (next to him) Catharina Dondelinger, b. 1869, d. 20 April 1902. Elsewhere in the cemetery: Joseph Dondelinger, b. 1841, d. 1916 and his wife Maria, b. 1844, d. 1889. Still elsewhere: Margaretha Dondelinger, b. 1815, d. 16 April 1897 and directly next to her: Dominik Dondelinger, b. 1812, d. 20 Feb. 1892. There were also a number of Poull graves. This church and graveyard was located exactly 3 miles due north and .375 miles east of Gerhard Wenlink's farmhouse in Section 33 of the town of Belgium, Ozaukee County, Wisconsin.

The original Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church (which was located 3.625 miles west and 1 mile north of Gerhard Wenlink's farmhouse) has recently been replaced by a modern church building. The cemetery in the rear is again very much like the ones in Port Washington and Lake Church - full of familiar Luxemburger names and many barely legible inscriptions in German. The largest monument in the graveyard is dedicated to "Freimann" and is flanked by two smaller stones reading "Father Peter, March 18, 1851 - August 11, 1922" and "Mother Margaret, December 3, 1854 - July 17, 1926." In another section of the cemetery, I encountered "Nicholaus Freimann, b 1812 - d. ?" and next to him, "Anna Freiman, b 10 Dec 1886, d. 20 Sept 1887, age 9 months." Right next to her, a rather imposing monument (in German) to "Heinrich Freiman, b. 19 Apr 1808, d. 12 Dec 1895," "the Rev. H. L. Freiman, b. 23 Nov 1867, d. 13 Aug 1935", and Catharina Freiman, b 24 Nov 1836, d. 18 Aug 1903." A "Dondelinger" monument was dedicated to "Jacob, 1851-1925", "Charles, Feb. 12, 1861 - Sept. 21, 1917", "Mary, nee George, Aug. 5, 1850 - Feb. 4, 1943", and "Peter, 1879 - 1882". There were also many other names which we had seen in St. Donatus, leading me to suspect that all of these families in northeastern Iowa, eastern Wisconsin and Le Mars may have maintained regular contact for at least one or two generations during the latter half of the nineteenth century.

The fact that I failed to find any Wenlink graves in these two cemeteries leads me to suspect that Gerhard may, after all, have been buried in one of the two St. Mary's graveyards in Port Washington. There are no other RC parishes between the Wenlink property and Port Washington. I failed to search the "new" St. Mary's cemetery in Port Washington; perhaps Gerhard was also buried there when his wife, Kate, died in 1903?

Just to the west of what was once the western boundary of Gerhard Wentink's property in Section 35 is now a busy north-south throughway (Route 43), which is crossed on the county road by an overpass. (I took a series of three photos here, from straight ahead (due east) to the throughway, which lies a bit west of the actual property line). I then proceeded on to the SE corner of what was once the Wentink property and again took a series of pictures beginning with one to the due north (the eastern boundary) and then proceeding to due west. Finally, I took several other pictures of the house and barn, which lie next to the road along the center of the southern edge of the property. Note: the 1873/74 map of Belgium clearly shows that among the other owners having farms close to Gerhard Wentink in Section 35 were "J. Dondelinger" and "D. Dondelinger."

At the farmhouse on the former Wentink property, I introduced myself to the present (and 3rd generation) owner, Jim Karrels. Jim's father's name is Milton (still living) and his grandfather's name was Philip. Milton's first cousin is a Gene Freimann, who lives in Milwaukee; he is currently "quite ill, suffering from cancer." According to Jim, the barn on the farm was "original." The present house was built only about 75 years ago, but an older house had long ago occupied the site, extending a small distance to the east of the present foundation. Jim knew of no private graveyard on the land. He confirmed that the only nearby RC parishes were those in Lake Church, Holy Cross and Port Washington. Karrels suggested that I might want to raise some questions with his grandmother, Anna Karrels, who has been at the Heritage Nursing Home in Port Washington for the past 20 years or so. She is 96 years old, but still "remembers things quite clearly." I might also want to drop a brief thank-you note to Jim Karrels addressed only to "Farm located on southern edge of Section 35, Belgium, Ozaukee County, Wisconsin."

Note for future reference: the shortest way from Port Washington to the old Gerhard Wentink property is to proceed out North Wisconsin Street to where it crosses Seven Hills Road (there is a Burger King on the near right-hand corner here. Turn right here on Seven Hills Road, which is also known as County Road "LL", and proceed 3.6 miles and turn right again on another County Road. Proceed another half mile on that road, going over an overpass (Rte. 43). The first farm house and red barn on the left after the overpass are on the old Gerhard Wentink place.

ACTION: It might be useful to write to the Recorder's Office in the Washington County Court House in West Bend, Wisconsin, and ask for a copy of the marriage record of "Gradus Wentink" and Catharina Adam on July 16, 1849. According to information supplied in the Ozaukee County Court House in Port Washington, the record appears on page 43, Volume 2 of the Washington County records. I would be particularly interested in knowing whether this document lists the dates and places of birth of the bride and groom.

Notes

HUSBAND - Michael FREYMANN-5932

Mamer is a major town in Capellen Canton. Village of Olm is abt 4 km NW. Several prolific Freymann families flourished in Mamer in 18th century, & it is still a Freymann stronghold. When JGF visited Olm in 1972, he was told there were no Freymanns there, "but there are a lot of Freymanns in Mamer."

All info on this family from Mamer Parish Records, Vol 3, Baptisms 1718-1940 [LDS microfilm 0425062]. This vol contains over 600 pp of 2-pg tables, printed in German, w/ blanks for names of children, dates of birth (NOT bpt), godparents, dates of death, who married, & comments. All families are grouped alphabetically; i.e., all Freymann families are listed on pp 130-143. Each family group begins w/ names of parents and their parents w/ exception of 3 of 4 earliest: this Michael, Nicolai Christopher (MRIN 1717) & Heinrich Sr. (MRIN 1821). (Johan Wilhelm (MRIN 1822) is 4th.) All entries are handwritten in Latin. Names of godparents are almost always given, who married only occasionly, dates of death & comments seldom. Names of all parish priests 1583 to 1950 are written inside cover. Apparently the priest who started in 1950 (or his predecessor) filled in this invaluable information.

FAMILY NAME ALMOST ALWAYS SPELLED FREYMANN, OCC. FREYMAN, RARELY FREIMAN. I HAVE USED "FREYMANN" EXCEPT WHERE KNOWN TO BE CONSISTENTLY SPELLED DIFFERENTLY.

I HAVE CHANGED ALL GIVEN NAMES FROM LATIN TO GERMAN, WHICH IS PROB WAY MOST OF THESE PEOPLE WERE CALLED.

All info on parents & children of this family on pp 130-33 of above.

B and m dates est from probability Michael was abt 26 when 1st child b. in 1731. D. date b/n b. of last child (July 1744) & his widow's 2nd m. in Jan 1745.

Husband Michael FREYMANN-5932

Wife Catherine HEMMERS-5933

Notes

WIFE - Catherine HEMMERS-5933

Name repeatedly copied in handwritten records begins w/ H, so sure her name was really Hemmers. I had originally thought it might have been Nemmers, a family closely assoc. w/ Freymann family in later generations, but that family was from Dondelingen. Catharina must have been from another town b/c there are no Hemmers families listed in comprehensive record of Mamer bpt cited in husb's note.

She m. 2) Peter Peckes, son of Nicolai & Maria ____, widower of Magdalena Goelen, on 21 Jan 1745. No issue from this marriage listed. [Source in husb's note #5932, pp 402-3] Note this was less than 7 mo aft b. of her last child by 1st husb -- undoubtedly motivated by need of a widow w/ 6 children ages 7 mo to 14 yrs for another husb.

CHILD 1 - Phillip FREYMANN-5921

All info on his family from Mamer Bpt, Vol 3, pp 134-5 [cf Michael F. 5932 for citation].

CHILD 2 - Jacob FREYMANN-5934

Godparents: Jac. Meyers, Anna Freymann (abbrev in source). Cannot identify Anna; likely she was father Michael's sis. This indicates there was large Freymann clan in Mamer b/4 extant parish records.

CHILD 3 - Johan Baptiste FREYMANN-5875

Mamer Bpt, Vol 3 [cf Michael Freymann, 5932 for citation] lists as 3rd child of Michael Freymann & Catharina Hemmmers "Joannes Baptista." His godparents were Joh.B.Berchem & Joh/a Hemmers (abbrev in source). In blank for "Married" is "Marg. Timmers of Olm (no date)." This clinches Johan Baptiste's ancestry.

Identified as "Freyman, Joannes, of Mamer" in vol 4, p 12, Fichier des Marriages, 1724-180, Parish of Schoenberg (now Kehlen), card index from original, LDS microfilm 1980889. Bride Margaretha Timmesch of Olm. Parents not named. He apparently dropped "Baptiste" aft moving to Olm b/c only the Latin "Joannes" appears in bpt records of his children.

"Petrus Freyman of Mamer" was godfather of Johan's son Peter. Number of Peters in Mamer precludes identification. 3 could have been at bpt in Olm in 1769: Peter (5923), son of Phillip Freymann & Mary Schmitz, b 12 June 1754; Peter (5895), son of Peter Freymann & Mary Weber, b 25 Feb 1748; & latter Peter's father (5900), son of Nicolai Christopher Freymann & Elisabeth Juvollen, b 30 July 1723.

First of above Peters may be best candidate. He was Johan Baptiste's nephew, son of JB's older bro Philip (5921), & was 25 in 1769. When this Peter's next bro Johan (5924) was bpt in 1756, the godparents were Joh. Freym. & Mar. Freym. (abbrev in source). JB was 21 then, so that may well have been him. However, that was 9 yrs b/4 he married, so "Mar." was not his wife. The last Peter above is another possiblity. He had 6 children b/n 1748-62: Susanna, Peter, Michael, Mary & 2 Catherines. Johan had 8 children b/n 1768-85, & 5 had same names (only Michael missing). However, all these were common Luxembourger names. [Does fact that JB did NOT name a son aft his father indicate there was a rift b/n father & son?]

Cf. note on Johan Baptiste's bro. Phillip (5921) for explanation how his great grandson John Freimann of Belgium, WI, was probable source of news to his 3rd cousin, Johan Baptiste's great grandson Nicolaus Freymann of St. Donatus, IA, that "Lizzie" Wentink was available for marriage.

Notes

CHILD 4 - Jacob FREYMANN-5936

This was 2nd Jacob in this family. Luxembourgers often gave 2 living children same name.

His godparents were Jac. Hertes & Cath. Liesch (abbrev in source)

CHILD 5 - Catharina FREYMANN-5937

Her godparents were Nic Freymann & Cath. Evert. Nic might have been Nicolai Christopher (5909), who was 33 in 1740, or his father Nicolai Christopher (5907).

CHILD 6 - Nicolaus FREYMANN-5938

His godparents were Nic Schroeder & A.M. Bournon (sp?)

Notes

HUSBAND - Nicolai Christopher FREYMANN-5907

Cf. Michael Freymann (5932) for complete description & citation of Mamer Baptisms, 1718-1940, Vol 3, which is source of most information on this & descendant families. This family listed on pp 130-1.

He is listed as head of family in above source only as Christopher. Later listings giving his name as father of groom: Nicolai Christopher.

B. & m. dates est. from supposed b. date of 1st child (abt 1707), but latter highly suspect [cf note #5909].

WIFE - Elisabeth ZWOLLEN-5908

IGI spells her name Juvollen. In handwritten parish register it Zwollen, which is correct spelling.

CHILD 1 - Nicolaus Christopher FREYMANN-5909

He is listed in Mamer Bpt, Vol 3 [cf Michael Freymann #5932 for citation] only as Nicolaus, 4th child in this family. No b. date or godparents listed (they are for all 5 other children)--only m. date & name of bride. Can be no doubt of parents; they are confirmed both in bpt & marriage records. Cannot explain gap b/n his est b. date based on m. date (1707) & b. of next known sibling (1718), or why he was listed as 4th, not 1st child.

Bpt. record of his own family & m. record give his name as Nicolaus or Nicolai Christopher. Info on this family from above source, pp 133-4.

He m. Susanna Hoffmann of Nospelt in Kehlen 31 Jan 1732. Parents named in m. record [Kehlen Parish Register, marriages 1724-1802, LDS microfilm 1980889].

Husband Nicolai Christopher FREYMANN-5907

Wife Elisabeth ZWOLLEN-5908

Notes

CHILD 2 - Elisabeth FREYMANN-5910

Her godparents were Joh. Anen & El. Wagener. She m. Christopher Christophy, son of Johan & Mar. Melchior, 2 Jan 1746.

CHILD 3 - Johan Heinrich FREYMANN-5911

His godparents were Hen. Freymann & Marg. Schmitz.

CHILD 4 - Peter FREYMANN-5900

His godparents were Pet. Kupper & Cath. Freymann of Clemes (town I cannot locate on modern map).

Most info on his family from Mamer Bpt, Vol 3, pp 133-4 [cf Michael Freymann #5932 for citation]. This also gives m. date, name of bride & her parents.

Same source gives date of 2nd m., name of bride & her parents, & their children.

D. date (6 Vendemiaire, Yr 11) from Mamer Civil Records, Deaths 1796-1890, LDS #1791778.

This might have been the "Petrus Freymann of Mamer" who was Peter Freymann's godfather in 1779. He was older than Peter's father Johan , & there is striking similarity b/n the names of his children & those of Johan [cf MRIN 1715]. However, relation to Johan, if any, not known.

CHILD 5 - Margaretha FREYMANN-5912

CHILD 6 - Catharina FREYMANN-6335

Her name is written in Bpt Record w/o number (all other children but 1st numbered in sequence) as last child of this family. However, it specifies her parents were Christopher & Cath. Latter name underscored, suggesting this may have been a 2nd wife & this was her only child. Six yr gap since 5th child may indicate this too.

Her godparents were Theod. Hoffmann & Cath. Schauler (sp?).

HUSBAND - Heinrich FREYMANN Sr.-6362

Source Mamer Baptistms, Vol 3, pp 130-1 [cf Michael Freymann #5932 for citation].

"(majerus)" written aft his name leads me to believe this means "senior." In 18th century that could mean either father of person w/ same name OR older than another person in community w/ same name. In this record, which is quite detailed, no further family listed. This is 1 of 4 families on 1st pg of record, only 1 of which gives parents of the father & mother.

WIFE - Catharina -6363

As noted on husb, unusual in this source not give her parents names, to say nothing of her family name.

HUSBAND - Johan Wilhelm FREYMANN-6365

Source of all info on his family: Mamer Baptisms, Vol 3, pp 130-1 [cf Michael Freymann #5932 for citation]. Above is detailed record where all Freymann bpt in Mamer are collected in 1 section. This family is only 1 of 1st 4 listed that gives names of parents of father & mother. The marriages & children of succeeding generations of progeny of this 1st generation are recorded for just 2 of these 1st families. None of the 8 children in the following FGR appear again. Godparents of all were listed, but I copied only those who were other Freymanns.

Johan Wilhelm was son of Nicolai Freymann & Margaretha _____. This was prob NOT Nicolai Christopher (#5907), whose family is listed directly above this 1 in original source. That man's wife was Elisabeth, & no "Joannes Guilelm." (Latin) was listed among his children.

HUSBAND - Johan Baptiste FREYMANN-5875

Mamer Bpt, Vol 3 [cf Michael Freymann, 5932 for citation] lists as 3rd child of Michael Freymann & Catharina Hemmmers "Joannes Baptista." His godparents were Joh.B.Berchem & Joh/a Hemmers (abbrev in source). In blank for "Married" is "Marg. Timmers of Olm (no date)." This clinches Johan Baptiste's ancestry.

Identified as "Freyman, Joannes, of Mamer" in vol 4, p 12, Fichier des Marriages, 1724-180, Parish of Schoenberg (now Kehlen), card index from original, LDS microfilm 1980889. Bride Margaretha Timmesch of Olm. Parents not named. He apparently dropped "Baptiste" aft moving to Olm b/c only the Latin "Joannes" appears in bpt records of his children.

WIFE - Margaretha TIMMESCH-5876

Timmesch family was well established in Olm, & aft Margaretha m. Johan Baptiste Freymann they remained very close. 4 Timmesches, all from Olm, were godparents of their 1st 5 children. Cf Peter Freymann note (424) for others who were godparents in next generation.

Family name seldom spelled same way: Thimmesch, Timisch, Timersch, Timmers, Thymes, Thimes. Have used 1st merely b/c that was spelling on her m. document.

CHILD 4 - Johan FREYMANN-5880

Kehlen Parish Register, p 62: Joannes, son of Joannes Freyman & Margaretha Thymes. Godparents: Joannes Birrel & Susanna Thymes Aram (?) of Olm.

He m. Elisabeth Majerus Ehleringer 10 Jan 1801 in Commune of Fischback. She was b. 3 Apr 1765 in Mersch. M. date & place: Marriages Commune of Fischback 1807 (FHL 1739814). His sis. Maria Catherina (5882) m. Peter Ehleringer same day. Presume this was a bros.-sisters wedding.

This may have been the "John Freymann of Angelsberg" (village abt 12 km NNE of Kehlen) who sponsored bpt of Peter Freymann's dau Maria 20 July 1819.

D. date & place from Deaths, Commune of Fischback 1841 (Record 5, FHL 1739815)

CHILD 5 - Dominic FREYMANN-5881

Kehlen Parish Register, p 82: Dominicus, son of Joannes Freyman & Margaretha Tempels of Olm. Godparents: Dominico Tempels "ex eodem Olm" & Joanna ____ Huberty of Mamer.

CHILD 6 - Peter FREYMANN-424

Register (in Latin), Catholic Parish of Schoenberg (now Kehlen), 1639-1807 [LDS microfilm 0425111], Baptisms 1706-96, p 104: 26 July 1779, "Petrus, son of Joannis (sic) Freyman & Margaretha Thimes (sic) living in Olm..." Godparents Petrus Freyman of Mamer & Catherina Wiewes of Olm. [Photostat in Freymann file.] [Cf father's note (5875) for possible identity of Peter Freymann of Mamer.]

D date from son Charles' marriage certificate.

Extract from Civil Register, Community of Kehlen, Grand-Dukedom of Luxembourg (trans. from German): "In the year 1817, on the 28th of February, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, there appeared before us, Nicolas Reiser, Mayor and Civil Service official [of above], Peter Freymann from Olm, 37 years old, day laborer, living in this community, who presented to us a child of male gender, born in Olm, today on the last of February at 5:00 o'clock in the morning to him the presenter and his wife Barbara Kirbach from Bartringen, whom he declared to intend to give the first name Carolus.....Which declaration & presentation were made in the presence of Carolus Thimesch from Olm, 36 years old, farmer, and Heinrich Bernardy from Kehlen, 49 years old, farmer....."

One of Peter's sisters named Catherina Freymann (he had 2) & Carl (Carolus) Thimesch sponsored baptism of above son of Peter. (Note that Peter also named 2 of his daughters Catherina.) Peter also had a bro John. This may have been "John Freymann of Angelsberg" (village abt 12 km NE of Kehlen) who sponsored the baptism of Peter's daughter Maria 20 July 1819. Since Peter's mother was a Thimesch, that family was very close. Peter Themisch of Kapp sponsored M. Catherina Freymann's bpt. 22 Jan 1828. [Note this family's name was seldom spelled the same way; " Freyman[n]" was much more consistent.]

Kehlen Parish Register lists marriages in 1797 & 1803-7, & Civil Record of Kehlen, 1796-1902 [LDS film 1791549] lists marriages 1796-1890. Both are indexed & m. of Peter & Barbara Kirbach is in neither. They prob m. aft 1810 (note 1st child b 1817) in Barbara's home parish.

Information on baptisms of all 4 of Peter & Barbara's children is from "Extract from the Register of the Administration of Baptism of the Parish of Ko(e?)hlen" (in Latin) written 4 May 1847 which Charles Freymann carried with him when he led his family to the new world. Referred to hereafter as "Kehlen Extract."

CHILD 7 - Maria Catharina FREYMANN-5882

Kehlen Parish Register, p 130: Catharina, dau of Joannes Freyman & Margaretha Timers of Olm. Godparents: Joanne [s] Kirpes of Fentingen & Catharina Krier of Capellen.

M. date: Marriages, Commune of Fischbach, 1807 (Record 2, FHL 1739814)

Either she or older sis Catharina sponsored bpt of Charles Freymann (417) 28 Feb 1817.

D. date: Death records, Commune of Fischbach, 1848 (Record 3, FHL 1739815)

Her son Nicolaus was the start of a line down to Darin Schneider of Des Moines, the source of much new information on the Freymanns (cf note on John Baptiste Freymann #5875 for ref). Maria Catherina & Peter Elheringer were Darin's 5xgreat grandparents.

CHILD 8 - Nicolaus FREYMANN-5883

Kehlen Parish Register, p 196: Nicolaus, son of Joannes Freimann (sic) & Margaretha Timmesch of Olm. Godparents: Nicolaus Kellen of Olm & Catherina Loth of Olm.

Other son of Michael Freymann

HUSBAND - Phillip FREYMANN-5921

All info on his family from Mamer Bpt, Vol 3, pp 134-5 [cf Michael F. 5932 for citation].

His godparents: Th. Bour (sp?), Marg. Hemmer (abbrev in source)

WIFE - Maria SCHMITZ-5922

She was dau of Peter & Cath. Schneidermeyer of Strassen (town abt 4 km SE of Mamer). Maria's home said to have been Clemes, which I cannot locate on modern map.

CHILD 1 - Peter FREYMANN-5923

His godparents were Pet. Peckes & Cath. Schneidermeyer of Strassen (abbrev in source).

Peter's son Nicolaus was b. 19 Feb 1780 in Mamer. He m. Maria Josepha Bernard 1 Oct 1803 in Mamer, and they were the parents of John Freimann (2238) of Belgium, WI, who was b. 12 Feb 1816 in Mamer. Thus Peter was 1st cousin of Charles Freymann's father Peter; son Nicolaus was Charles' 2nd cousin, and John Freimann and Charles' son Nicolaus were 3rd cousins (altho John was a whole generation older). John Freimann might well have been source of the news that an eligible bride for Nicolaus, Lizzie Wentink, lived nearby in Belgium.

This MIGHT have been the "Petrus Freymann of Mamer" who was Peter Freymann's godfather. He would have been 25 in 1779. However, there are at least 2 more likely Peters [cf Peter Freymann #424].

CHILD 2 - Johan FREYMANN-5924

His godparents were Joh. Freymann & Mar. Freymann (abbrev in source). "Joh." may have been Johan Baptiste (5875) , younger bro of this Johan's father.

CHILD 3 - Nicolaus FREYMANN-5925

His godparents were Nic Mertes (sp?) & Magd. Schmitz.

CHILD 4 - Catharina FREYMANN-5926

Her godparents were Hen. Evert & Cath. Freymann (abbrev in source). There were so many Catharina F's it's impossible to identify this one.

She m. Michael Kaufman of Holzem, son of Joes. & Marg. Birell, in Mamer 24 June 1781 [Mamer Marriages, 1779-1804, LDS #1981577, Item 4]

D. date: Mamer Parish Records, Vol 1, 1779-93, LDS #0425062.

Wife Maria SCHMITZ-5922

Notes

CHILD 5 - Elisabeth FREYMANN-5927
Her godparents were Hen. Wagener & El. Haas (abbrev in source).

CHILD 6 - Heinrich FREYMANN-3236
Info on his family from Mamer Bpt, Vol 3, pp 136-7 [cf Michael Freymann 5932 for citation]. M. date & parents' names confirmed in Mamer Marriages, 1779-1804, LDS #1981577. D. date & place: Mamer Civil Records, Deaths 1796- 1890, LDS #1791778. He was a farm laborer.

Johan Baptiste Freymann (5875), who moved to Olm & was grandfather of the Freymanns who emigrated to St. Donatus, IA, was Heinrich's uncle. Two of Heinrich's many sons had names & b. dates similar to 2 Freymanns who settled in Ozaukee Co, WI. Since JB's great-grandson Nicholas (#16) went from St. Donatus to Ozaukee Co to wed his 2nd wife, the 2 Freymann clans must have been related in some way. However, in following FGR all Heinrich's sons can be accounted for. Can be sure none of them emigrated to Wisconsin.

CHILD 7 - Margaretha FREYMANN-5928
Her godparents were Nic Arend & Marg. Freymann.

His godparents were J.B.Eyscher & Mar. Schroeder.

CHILD 9 - Maria FREYMANN-5930
Her godparents were Joh. Kettenmeyer & Mar. Schneider.

CHILD 10 - Maria FREYMANN-5931
Her godparents were Joh. Huberty & Cath. Freymann.

HUSBAND Friederic DONDELINGER-5860 Yr of Birth 1747
WIFE Marie MEDINGER-5861 Yr of Birth 1750

HUSBAND - Friederic DONDELINGER-5860

D date: death certificate (xerox in file) from Civil Records, Commune of Betzdorf, Decennial Summaries of Deaths, LDS microfilm #1739677. Age at death 67. First name spelled Freideric & Frideric in other documents. Son Bernard's (429) 2nd marriage certificate states he was son of "late Friederic, died at Mensdorf 24 March last & late Marie Mendiger, died at Mensdorf 18 March last." (These dates do not conform exactly w/ death certs. & were apparently reversed: Friederic, 16 March; Marie, 25 March.)

Friederic, his wife (5861)& his son Bernard's 1st wife (5862) all died w/in 16 days of each other. Their death certs. are on 3 successive pages. Suggests there might have been an epidemic in Luxembourg that March.

Two other deaths in Decennial Tables, Commune of Betzdorf, 1796-1892 (LDS film #1739676) might have been Friederic's siblings (ages not given): Bernard Dondelinger, d 8 Nov 1810, & Francois Dondelinger, d 24 Jan 1811. However, they could also have been children of one of Friederic' sons.

WIFE - Marie MEDINGER-5861

D date: death certificate (xerox in file) from LDS microfilm #1739677. Gives birth place & age at death (64).

Cf husb's note #5860 for proof she was his wife.

CHILD 1 - Bernard DONDELINGER-429

Mensdorf is village abt 14 mi E of Olm. Note it is called "Menster" in abstract of bpt from Parish of Kehlen. According to Bob Dondelinger (cf note #4625 for address), it was called Manster until abt time French occupied Luxembourg in 1797 or time Germans (Prussians?--there was no Germany) took over in 1803. Mensdorf since then.

Bernard had at least 2 siblings (names not given by Bob Dondelinger). Know one was Theodor. Another quite likely was the Jean Dondelinger who m. Margaretha Birnbaum at Mensdorf 11 Feb 1808 [LDS film #1739677].

Bernard m 1) Elizabeth Kirbach in Mensdorf in 1800 & she bore 8 children b/4 she died in 1814. Bob Dondelinger says 2 of these chidren (names not given) emigrated to US.* Decennial Tables, Commune of Betzdorf, 1796-1892 [LDS film # 1739676] shows only 2 births who might have been of Bernard's 1st marriage. One was Nicolas, b 9 Vendemiaire Year 9 (2 Oct 1800). Two Jeans (Johns) were b 11 Mar & 27 Oct 1813. One of these was son listed below. Two deaths might have been other children: Bernard, d 8 Nov 1810, & Francois, d 24 Jan 1811. However, w/o ages given they could have been older relatives.

during part of their marriage.

WAS ELIZABETH KIRBACH RELATED TO PETER FREYMANN'S WIFE BARBARA KIRBACH? Same last names & close relationship of Dondelinger & Freymann families makes this quite likely.

He m 2) Anna Maria Hentz in Mensdorf just 3 1/2 mo aft 1st wife died. She bore 7 children.

Bernard, a farmer, was sponsor (with Barbara Kirbach Freymann) at the baptism of their 1st grandchild, Charles & Maria Freymann's d. Barbara, in Olm in 1847.

*Researched possibility these 2 might have been the bros Nicolaus & Dominik Dondlinger (sic) who emigrated to Belgium, WI. Their est b yrs (1806/9 & 1812) were consistent w/ Bernard's 1st marriage. However, Ozaukee Co death record of Nicolaus gives his PARENTS AS JOHN & MARY. Furthermore, altho there were were several Nicolas Dondelingers born in Betzdorf Commune at right time, there was no Dominik born there b/n 1803 & 1855. Therefore assume they came from elsewhere, altho they could still have been relatives of the Mensdorf Dondelingers.

SEARCH OF COMPUTERIZED 1994 IGI VERSION 3.05 & ANCESTRAL FILE AT FAMILY HISTORY LIB IN SALT LAKE DID NOT SHOW FREI(IE)DERIC OR BERNARD DONDELINGER OR ANNA MARIA HENS(T)Z.

Other marriages:

CHILD 2 - Theodor DONDELINGER-6254

Marriage certficate in LDS microfilm #1739677 shows he m. Eva Schilt 1 Jan 1812 in Mensdorf. This doc gives his b place & date & names of parents. D date from Decennial Tables (cf father's note 5860 for citation).

Not sure of spelling. This is best guess from archaic French script.

Marriage certificate (xerox in file) from LDS microfilm 1739677 shows Anna Marie & Bernard were married in Mensdorf Mayor's office at 10 AM on 29 June 1814. He was 39, she was 29 & apparently not previously married (referred to as "Demoiselle"). Cert gives her b place & parents' names, noting both had died at Munsbach (dates not given).

D date & place: death certificate (xerox in file) from same source. Was 45 when she died.

Her name also spelled in various documents as Hensz & Heinz.

Other info on children of this mother & other Dondelingers from Robert J Dondelinger, 716 40th Ave NE, Columbia Heights, MN 55421-2901 [letters in Dondelinger folder, Freymann file]. His data on following 7 children confirmed in Decennial Tables, Commune of Betzdorf, 1792-1892 [LDS film 1739676] w/ few minor corrections as indicated. However, these tables do not give parents, & photocopies of actual birth registers largely illegible. Apparently Robert had better access to latter because I don't know how he could otherwise distinguish these children from 7 others, many w/ same names, born in same yrs. There were at least 2 other Dondelinger families in Betzforf at same time: Bernard's bro Theodor's (married 1812) & that of Jean Dondelinger & Margaretha Birnbaum, who m at Mensdorf 11 Feb 1808 (another bro of Bernard?). A 3rd family appeared aft Nicolas Dondelinger (perhaps son by 1st wife b in 1800? Cf Bernard's note 429) married Susanna Dehecks (sp?) 1 May 1827, & a 4th aft Jean (6255) married in 1839. Cf list of ALL Dondelinger births in Betzdorf 1800-1852 in Freymann notes which illustrate this confusion.

HUSBAND - Peter FREYMANN-424

Register (in Latin), Catholic Parish of Schoenberg (now Kehlen), 1639-1807 [LDS microfilm 0425111], Baptisms 1706-96, p 104: 26 July 1779, "Petrus, son of Joannis (sic) Freyman & Margaretha Thimes (sic) living in Olm..." Godparents Petrus Freyman of Mamer & Catherina Wiewes of Olm. [Photostat in Freymann file.] [Cf father's note (5875) for possible identity of Peter Freymann of Mamer.]

D date from son Charles' marriage certificate.

Extract from Civil Register, Community of Kehlen, Grand-Dukedom of Luxembourg (trans. from German): "In the year 1817, on the 28th of February, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, there appeared before us, Nicolas Reiser, Mayor and Civil Service official [of above], Peter Freymann from Olm, 37 years old, day laborer, living in this community, who presented to us a child of male gender, born in Olm, today on the last of February at 5:00 o'clock in the morning to him the presenter and his wife Barbara Kirbach from Bartringen, whom he declared to intend to give the first name Carolus.....Which declaration & presentation were made in the presence of Carolus Thimesch from Olm, 36 years old, farmer, and Heinrich Bernardy from Kehlen, 49 years old, farmer....."

One of Peter's sisters named Catherina Freymann (he had 2) & Carl (Carolus) Thimesch sponsored baptism of above son of Peter. (Note that Peter also named 2 of his daughters Catherina.) Peter also had a bro John. This may have been "John Freymann of Angelsberg" (village abt 12 km NE of Kehlen) who sponsored the baptism of Peter's daughter Maria 20 July 1819. Since Peter's mother was a Thimesch, that family was very close. Peter Themisch of Kapp sponsored M. Catherina Freymann's bpt. 22 Jan 1828. [Note this family's name was seldom spelled the same way; " Freyman[n]" was much more consistent.]

Kehlen Parish Register lists marriages in 1797 & 1803-7, & Civil Record of Kehlen, 1796-1902 [LDS film 1791549] lists marriages 1796-1890. Both are indexed & m. of Peter & Barbara Kirbach is in neither. They prob m. aft 1810 (note 1st child b 1817) in Barbara's home parish.

Information on baptisms of all 4 of Peter & Barbara's children is from "Extract from the Register of the Administration of Baptism of the Parish of Ko(e?)hlen" (in Latin) written 4 May 1847 which Charles Freymann carried with him when he led his family to the new world. Referred to hereafter as "Kehlen Extract."

WIFE - Barbara KIRBACH-425

Bartringen is village abt 3 km SE of Mamer; i.e., abt 7 km from Olm. Only documents from here found so far are registers from parish of Bartrange (French version of Bartringen) for 1808 & 1810 [LDS #1351271, Item 4]. These are too late from Barbara's birth & too early for her marriage, written in cramped Latin & not indexed. Difficult to decipher, but only 6 marriages in 1808 & 7 in 1810, so I'm sure none were Kirbachs.

Cf Bernard Dondelinger (#429) note for possibility she was related to his 1st wife Elisabeth Kirbach (#5862), also known as Lucia Kirpach. Only family w/ similar name in 1994 IGI, Version 3.05, is that of Peter Kirpach & Catherine Berens of Kayl, town at 12 km S of Bartingen. They had 4 children b/n 1768 & 1777, none named Barbara or Elisabeth. These children would have been their contemporaries. [IGI printout in Freymann Gen 1-3 file]

Death: from "Liber Defunctorum" of St. Donatus Church: "Barb. Freiman A.D. 1854 die 26 Octob sepulta est Barbara Freiman, sacramentas rite munita, uxor defuncti Petri Freiman, in aetate 62 anni. " Her gravestone, inscribed w/ same information in German, is in the church graveyard.

CHILD 1 - Charles FREYMANN-417

Birth: see father Peter's notes (424).

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 28th day of February in the year 1817, at about the fourth morning hour, was born & on the same day baptized, Carolus Freymann, legitimate son of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses, living in Olm. Sponsors were Charles Thimesch & Catherine Freymann, all of Olm."

Marriage (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 13th day of November of the year 1845....I, the undersigned, in the chapel of Olm, during the celebration of Mass, received for the nuptial blessing the respectable young persons Carolus Freymann, legitimate son of the deceased Petri Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses of Olm, and Maria Dondelinger, legitimate daughter of Bernard Dondelinger and the deceased Maria Hensz, spouses of Menster, in the presence of the required witnesses who all, together with me, appended their names, with the exception of the bride who with her hand made the sign (X). Charles (sic) Freymann, Arendts Frantz, Peter Runsch, Contor Petrus, Rector." Civil Register of this marriage (in German, copy in files) identifies Charles, his father & Maria's father as farmers & gives dates of his father's & Maria's mother's deaths.

Passenger manifest of ship "Tarquin" which left Havre, France, & arr. NYC 26 July 1847: C.Freimann, farmer, 30; wife M.Freimann, 25; daugh. B.Freimann, age 1/4; B.Kirback, 50 (Charles' mother); J.Danlinger, m, 18 (prob. Maria's b. Johann); & M.Freimann, f, 20 (prob. Charles' s. M. Catherina). All listed place of origin "Netherlands, Holland," which goes to show how casual Luxemburgers seem to have been about their nationality. [When Charles was b. in 1817, the Grand-Duchy was part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. In 1847 it was independent, but the King of the Netherlands was also the Grand Duke of Luxembourg -- while the capital city was garrisoned by Prussian troops.] Also aboard were Charles' sis Maria Nemmers, her husb & children [cf Nicholas Nemmers, #431].

"Tarquin" was wooden 515 ton, 3-masted, 2 deck ship built in Boston in 1833. It was 143 ft long, 28 ft broad, & drew 17 ft. It had square stern, no galleries & a figurehead. [Info obtained by Jean Kellen in her folder in Freymann File; also contains picture of this ship.]

Naturalization: Nat Records, Dubuque Co. Iowa, Book 1, pg 8: Charles Freeman, 30, renounced Hol., signed declaration 16 Aug 1847. Note this is just 21 days after he landed in NYC! Nicholas Nemmers, husband of Charles' s. Maria, was naturalized the same day, indicating 2 families traveled together from NYC.

Land: Vol D, pg 524, Deed Record Lands Jackson Co (courthouse, Maquoketa IA): 5 Dec 1848 Charles bought 160 acres for $500. Vol G, pg 97 shows he bought adjoining 80 acres 13 Aug 1852 for $105. Map of Tetes des Morts & part of Prairie Springs Twsps following this note show land was in W quarters of sections 13 & 24 in latter Twp, abt 1 1/2 mi SW of Catholic church. Photos of house & of land in Sect 13 taken in June, 1999, in Freymann photos file. This is original house, but it has been covered w/ clapboard. This cannot disguise characteristic configuration of windows & doors in typical Luxem- bourger farm houses, nor the old stone foundation and brick chimney.

Adjoining farm in E 1/2 Sect 14 owned by John Thoma in 1989. Using photo of village of St Donatus taken by John J Freymann (in 1903?) now owned by JMF, JGF, MWF & JMF determined it was taken from hill in SE part of Thoma farm. Nicholas Freymann may have brought his 13 1/2 yr old son there to show where he (Nicholas) was born when on their way to John's grandmother's funeral in Port Washington.

Germany); John, 4; Charles 10/12 (both b. Iowa); John Nemers, 65, and Catherine, 58, both b. Germany. "Mary Nemers" was Charles Freymann's sis Maria. [Freymann farm was W 1/2 of W 1/2 of Section 13; Nemmers farm was E 1/2 of W 1/2; i.e., the adjoining farm.]
Death: Liber Defunctorum, St.Donatus Church, 1850-1966, pg 2: "Carolus Freiman A.D.1854 die 31 Mars. sepulta est Carolus Freiman rite sacra mortes refectus, 37 anni natus mortuus est." The monument to Maria Dondelinger Freymann Kellen in the churchyard is also inscribed (in German) "In Memory of Karl Freiman of Olm, Luxemburg, Husband of Maria Dondelinger...."

FOR MORE DETAILS SEE "THE FREYMANNS: HISTORY OF A FAMILY," BY JGF & JMF, TYPESCRIPT, 87 PAGES, WRITTEN IN 1999.

CHILD 2 - Maria FREYMANN-426

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 19th day of...July in...1819, at about the sixth evening hour, was born & on the following day baptized, Mary Freymann, legitimate d. of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses living in Olm. Sponsors were John Freymann of Angelsberg & Mary Goergen of Bartringen."

Maria m. Nicholas Nemmers in Luxembourg bef 1842 (their eldest child was 8 in 1850 Census & 3 oldest children " born Germany"). She d. same day she gave birth to twins at age 48. 1 baby d. at birth; other lived 10 days. This was her THIRTEENTH term pregnancy in 25 yrs! (Liber Defunctorum, St. Donatus)

CHILD 3 - Catherina FREYMANN-427

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 19th day...of July, in...1822, at about the 11th evening hour, was born & on the next day baptized, Catherine Freymann, legitimate d. of Peter Freymann & Barbara Kirbach, spouses, working people of Olm. Sponsors Dominic Moes of Olm & Catherine Kalbach (Kalmach?) of Bartingen."

Marriage (JMF copy): "...in the year 1846, on the 23rd of Feb, at 5 o'clock in the evening...Peter Gehlen, farmer, 28 yrs old, born in Olm on the 2nd day of Nov 1817...son of full age of Johann Gehlen, laborer...& Maria Hanson m. Catharina Freymann...23 yrs old, born in...Olm, d. of full age of Peter Freymann...& Barbara Kirbach."

She was not listed as "deceased" at time of her 1st child's bpt in Dec 1846.
Cf his note (6643) for possibility of twins. (All 3 of her sibs had twins; one, M. Catharina, had 2 sets!) According to family lore, she had 2 children, both of whom died. She could have gotten pregnant again in 1847, & might have d. in childbirth w/ that child. No record of her or another child's death in Dubuque Cathedral archives, & St Michael's Cem on Kelley's Bluff, where she (& other child?) were buried, has no burial records. In Nov 1848, Peter m. her younger sis Margaret Catherina (#428). Catherina therefore prob d. in late 1847 or early 1848. Her husb had bought land in Mosalem Twp, where village of St. Catherine later grew. She might have been buried there, altho St Catherine Parish was not established until Xmas 1852. We can only be sure she d. in Dubuque Co.

CHILD 4 - Margaret Catherina FREYMANN-428

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 22nd...of Jan in the yr...1828, at about the 1st morning hour, was born & on the same day baptized, Catherine Freymann, legitimate d. of Peter Freymann & Barbara Kirbach, spouses of Olm. Sponsores Peter Thimesch of Kapp & Catherine Moes of Olm." Note this child's name was exactly the same as her living older sister! Her name also appears variously as Maria Catharina, M. Catharina, Katharina, Margaretha, Margaretha Catharina & Margaret Catherine. Her grandson, Dr. Joseph N. Gehlen, remembered her as "Mary Katherine."

Apparently usually known as "M. Catherina," she m. Peter Gehlen after d. of his 1st wife, her older sis Catherina. She d. in LeMars at age 69 of "heart disease." Long obit, mostly about her husb & early LeMars, in files.

1880 Census, LeMars, America Twp, Plymouth Co, IA; vol 26, ED 174, sheet 29, line 1: Gehlen, Mary C, 52, b Luxemburg; Lizzie, 25; John, 23; Michael, 21; Joseph, 19; Nicholas, 17; Emma, 15; Jennie, 8; Webber, Mary, 29 (daugh); Eddie, 7; Oscar, 6 (both grandsons); all b Iowa; Freyman, Nicholas, 26, servant; also 2 other servants, b Luxemburg.

Births of 10 children documented in typed transcript of church records in St. Donatus Church Rectory (including 2 sets of twins!). Of these, at least 4 are known to have pre-deceased her. 9 surviving children listed in her obit: sons Johann, Michael B, Joseph J & Nikolaus (sic) & daughs Maria Weber, Suzanna Herron, Lizzie Rolling, Emma Linden & Jennie. Jennie, who was 24 & unmarried in 1896, was b. in LeMars abt 1872. Thus M. Catherina bore 13 children. Only 7 of these 9 were listed as heirs in her will (copy follows). Cf their notes below.

Extract from the Register for the Administration of Baptism of the parish of Kehlen.

On the 28th day of February in the year 1817, at about the fourth morning hour, was born and on the same day baptized, Charles Freymann, legitimate son of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses, living in Olm. Sponsors were Charles Thimesch and Catherine Freymann, all of Olm. C. Carmes, Rector.

On the 19th day of the month of July in the year of the Lord 1819, at about the sixth evening hour, was born and on the following day baptized, Mary Freymann, legitimate daughter of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses living in Olm. The sponsors were John Freymann of Angelsberg and Mary Goergen of Bartringen.
C. Carmes, Rector.

On the 19th day of the month of July, in the year of the Lord 1822, at about the eleventh evening hour, was born and on the next day baptized, Catherine Freymann, legitimate daughter of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses, working people of Olm. The sponsors were Dominic Moes of Olm and Catherine Kalbach of Bartringen.
C. Carmes, Pastor.

On the 22nd day of January in the year of the Lord 1828, at about the first morning hour, was born and on the same day baptized, Catherine Freymann, legitimate daughter of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses of Olm. The sponsors were Peter Thimesch of Kapp and Catherine Moes of Olm. C. Carmes, Pastor.

On the 13th day of November of the year 1845, after the three customary proclamations, after the observance of all things required, and after having blessed their marriage promises immediately before the marriage, I, the undersigned, in the chapel of Olm, during the celebration of Mass, received for the nuptial blessing the respectable young persons Charles Freymann, legitimate son of the deceased Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses of Olm, and Mary Dondelinger, legitimate daughter of Bernard Dondelinger and the deceased Mary Henss, spouses of Menster, in the presence of the required witnesses who all, together with me, appended their names, with the exception of the bride who with her hand made the sign (X).
* Charles Freymann, Arendts Frantz, Peter Runsch, Contor Peter, Rector.

On the 28th day of February of the year 1847, at about the fourth hour in the afternoon, was born and on the next day baptized, Barbara Freymann, legitimate daughter of Charles Freymann and Mary Dondelinger, spouses, farmers of Olm. The sponsors were Bernard Dondelinger of
* Menster and Barbara Kirbach of Olm. Contor Peter, Rector.

Exact copy delivered by the undersigned officiating priest of the parish of Kohlen, at Kohlen, on the 4th day of May, 1847.
* Contor Peter, Officiating Priest.

 Note the inversion of names: Arendts Frantz for Frantz Arendts, and Contor Peter for Peter Contor - a common custom in Europe.

DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND Heinrich FREYMANN-3236 Yr of Birth 1765
WIFE Catharina PESCHON-3237 Yr of Birth 1774

HUSBAND - Heinrich FREYMANN-3236

Info on his family from Mamer Bpt, Vol 3, pp 136-7 [cf Michael Freymann 5932 for citation]. M. date & parents' names confirmed in Mamer Marriages, 1779-1804, LDS #1981577. D. date & place: Mamer Civil Records, Deaths 1796-1890, LDS #1791778. He was a farm laborer.

Johan Baptiste Freymann (5875), who moved to Olm & was grandfather of the Freymanns who emigrated to St. Donatus, IA, was Heinrich's uncle. Two of Heinrich's many sons had names & b. dates similar to 2 Freymanns who settled in Ozaukee Co, WI. Since JB's great-grandson Nicholas (#16) went from St. Donatus to Ozaukee Co to wed his 2nd wife, the 2 Freymann clans must have been related in some way. However, in following FGR all Heinrich's sons can be accounted for. Can be sure none of them emigrated to Wisconsin.

WIFE - Catharina PESCHON-3237

She was dau of John Peschon & Magdelena Reding. This & d. date & place from same sources as husb (3236).

Family name spelled Peschong in some records.

CHILD 1 - Johan FREYMANN-3238

His godparents were Joh. Peshon & Mar. Ehner.

D. date: Mamer Parish Records, Vol 1, 1779-93, LDS #0425062.

CHILD 2 - Mathew FREYMANN-3239

CHILD 3 - Anna FREYMANN-3240

Her godparents were Jos. Berens (sp?) & A. Peschon.

She m. 1) Henry Haas in Mamer 17 Feb 1819. She m. 2) Theodore Kirpach of Bettembourg (son of Theodore of Bettembourg) in Mamer 2 June 1830. He d. 7 Sept 1832, age 52. They had a dau Catherine who d. 11 June 1835 in Mamer. [Mamer Civil Records, Marriages 1796-1890, LDS #1791777; ibid, Deaths 1796-1890, LDS #1791778]

CHILD 4 - Heinrich FREYMANN-5884

His godparents were Hen. Kahner (sp?) & Marg. Huberty.

He m. Catharina Hoffmann, dau of Ludwig & Catharina Kirsch, in Mamer 15 (17?) Dec 1829. Mamer Bpt, Vol 3 [cf Michael Freymann 5932 for citation] lists this marriage but no issue. He reported deaths of father in 1829 & of mother in 1845. M. date & place from Mamer Civil Records, Marriages 1796-1890, LDS #1791777.

CHILD 5 - Catharina FREYMANN-5885

Her godparents were Nic. Freymann & Cath. Reding.

D. date & place (age 8 yrs) from Mamer Civil Records, Deaths 1796-1890, LDS #1791778.

HUSBAND Heinrich FREYMANN-3236 Yr of Birth 1765
WIFE Catharina PESCHON-3237 Yr of Birth 1774

CHILD 6 - Nicolaus FREYMANN-5935

His godparents were Nic. Bornong (sp?) & Cath. Evert.

D. date from Mamer Civil Records, Deaths 1796-1890, LDS #1791778.

CHILD 7 - Catharina Maria FREYMANN-5886

Her godparents were Fr. Peschon & Mar. C. Freymann (abbrev in source).

A Maria Catharina Freymann m. Michel Flammang in Mamer 4 May 1823. Names of her parents illegible. Michel Flammang reported d. of a Marie Freiman (sic) in Mamer 20 Apr 1842. Name of her husb. illegible. Therefore cannot be certain she was this Catharina. [Mamer Civil Records, Marriages 1796-1890, LDS #1791777; ibid, Deaths, LDS #1791778]

CHILD 8 - Agnes FREYMANN-3241

Her godparents were Joh. Graff & Agnes Metzler.

D. date & place same source as sis Catharina (5886).

CHILD 9 - Maria FREYMANN-3242

No godparents listed. D. date & place (age 9 mo) same source as sis Catharina (5886).

CHILD 10 - Maria FREYMANN-3243

Her godparents were Nic. Schmitz & A. Mar. Kaufm. (abbrev. in source).

Mamer Bpt, Vol 3 [cf Michael Freymann 5932 for citation] says she m. Joh. Kirpach (no date). Mamer Civil Records, Marriages 1796-1890 [LDS #1791777] says she m. Franz Kirpach (b. in Mamer, son of Theodore of Bettembourg) in Mamer 9 June 1830.

Franz' father Theodore may be the Theodore Kirpach who m. Marie Founelle (Furnell?) in Mamer 24 Feb 1808. Their dau (age illegible) d. in Mamer 24 Jan 1833. If Franz was also issue of this marriage (his mother's name is illegible), that could explain why he was b. in Mamer while Theodore's son Theodore, who m. Anna Freymann (3240) was b. in Bettembourg. Latter could have been father's 1st marriage; former the 2nd.

Can be sure these Kirpachs were not related to Barbara Kirbach Freymann(425). She was from Bertrange, which is some distance from Bettembourg.

CHILD 11 - Peter FREYMANN Father-5887

His godparents were Pet. Freymann & Mar. Fournell. Former could have been 1 of several Peters; latter must have been wife of Theodore Kirpach [cf note Maria Freymann, #3243].

He took Holy Orders in 1841. Served as vicar in Bofferdange, Grevenmacher & Nieder(illeg).

CHILD 12 - Johan Baptiste FREYMANN-6329

His godparents were Joh.B.Kuyl (sp?) & Mar. Bernard. D. date & place from

HUSBAND Bernard DONDELINGER-429 Yr of Birth 1775
WIFE Elizabeth KIERBACH-5862 Yr of Birth 1774

HUSBAND - Bernard DONDELINGER-429

Mensdorf is village abt 14 mi E of Olm. Note it is called "Menster" in abstract of bpt from Parish of Kehlen. According to Bob Dondelinger (cf note #4625 for address), it was called Manster until abt time French occupied Luxembourg in 1797 or time Germans (Prussians?--there was no Germany) took over in 1803. Mensdorf since then.

Bernard had at least 2 siblings (names not given by Bob Dondelinger). Know one was Theodor. Another quite likely was the Jean Dondelinger who m. Margaretha Birnbaum at Mensdorf 11 Feb 1808 [LDS film #1739677].

Bernard m 1) Elizabeth Kirbach in Mensdorf in 1800 & she bore 8 children b/4 she died in 1814. Bob Dondelinger says 2 of these chidren (names not given) emigrated to US.* Decennial Tables, Commune of Betzdorf, 1796-1892 [LDS film # 1739676] shows only 2 births who might have been of Bernard's 1st marriage. One was Nicolas, b 9 Vendemiaire Year 9 (2 Oct 1800). Two Jeans (Johns) were b 11 Mar & 27 Oct 1813. One of these was son listed below. Two deaths might have been other children: Bernard, d 8 Nov 1810, & Francois, d 24 Jan 1811. However, w/o ages given they could have been older relatives.

Birth records in above source 1797-1801 are spotty, 1802 missing, but aft 1803 excellent. Since every one of children of Bernard's 2nd marriage documented in these, suspect Bernard & 1st wife lived somewhere outside of Betzdorf Commune during part of their marriage.

WAS ELIZABETH KIRBACH RELATED TO PETER FREYMANN'S WIFE BARBARA KIRBACH? Same last names & close relationship of Dondelinger & Freymann families makes this quite likely.

He m 2) Anna Maria Hentz in Mensdorf just 3 1/2 mo aft 1st wife died. She bore 7 children.

Bernard, a farmer, was sponsor (with Barbara Kirbach Freymann) at the baptism of their 1st grandchild, Charles & Maria Freymann's d. Barbara, in Olm in 1847.

*Researched possibility these 2 might have been the bros Nicolaus & Dominik Dondlinger (sic) who emigrated to Belgium, WI. Their est b yrs (1806/9 & 1812) were consistent w/ Bernard's 1st marriage. However, Ozaukee Co death record of Nicolaus gives his PARENTS AS JOHN & MARY. Furthermore, altho there were were several Nicolas Dondelingers born in Betzdorf Commune at right time, there was no Dominik born there b/n 1803 & 1855. Therefore assume they came from elsewhere, altho they could still have been relatives of the Mensdorf Dondelingers.

SEARCH OF COMPUTERIZED 1994 IGI VERSION 3.05 & ANCESTRAL FILE AT FAMILY HISTORY LIB IN SALT LAKE DID NOT SHOW FREI(IE)DERIC OR BERNARD DONDELINGER OR ANNA MARIA HENS(T)Z.

HUSBAND	Bernard DONDELINGER-429	Yr of Birth 1775
WIFE	Elizabeth KIERBACH-5862	Yr of Birth 1774

WIFE - Elizabeth KIERBACH-5862

Altho Bob Dondelinger says Bernard Dondelinger's 1st wife was "Lucia Kirpach," this is undoubtedly that wife. Her name is confirmed by son Jean's (6255) marriage certificate, which gives her & Bernard as parents. Other evidence supporting this: 1) altho address in Mensdorf not given on her death certificate [Civil Records, Commune of Mensdorf, Decennial Summaries of Deaths, LDS #1739677, copy in file] & her marital status is not mentioned either, she & both of Bernard's parents died w/in 16 days of each other; 2) she & Bernard were abt same age (40 & 39 respectively); 3) Bernard was apparently living in Mensdorf at time she died; 4) Bernard married 2nd time just 3 1/2 mos after Elizabeth died.

Birth date: Death certificate gives her age at death, 40.

CHILD 1 - Jean (John) DONDELINGER-6255

Marriage certificate from LDS microfilm #1739677: Johan Dondelinger m. Magdelina Wegdich (sp?) 14 May 1839. Most in illegible German script but names of parents clear: Bernard Dondelinger & Elizabeth Kierbach.

This was undoubtedly one of the 2 Jeans b in 1813 (cf father's note 429 re: children of his 1st marriage).

DEATH CERTIFICATE OF ELISABETH KIERBACH

In the year eighteen hundred fourteen, on the 10th of March, at eight o'clock in the morning, before us, Burgomeister, civil official of the municipality of Betzdorf, Canton of Betzdorf, Department of Forests, there appeared Mathias Schampagne, age 30 years, and Mathias Weidert, age forty years, who live in this community.

They have declared to us that Elisabeth Kierbach, age 40 ~~(?)~~, born at (blank) in Forests Department, died in Mensdorf yesterday at ____ o'clock in the evening, in house number (blank) street, and, the declarers having had the foregoing read to them, signed with us below.

(signed) Mathias Schampagne Mathias Weydert

#43 more likely because she died 7 days b/4 Friederich Dondelinger (who I think was #45) + Marie Medinger (#47). The 3 certificates were on successive pages, but I did not record the order. I think it was this way.

HUSBAND Bernard DONDELINGER-429 Yr of Birth 1775
WIFE Anne Maria HENTZ-430 Yr of Birth 1785

HUSBAND - Bernard DONDELINGER-429

Mensdorf is village abt 14 mi E of Olm. Note it is called "Menster" in abstract of bpt from Parish of Kehlen. According to Bob Dondelinger (cf note #4625 for address), it was called Manster until abt time French occupied Luxembourg in 1797 or time Germans (Prussians?--there was no Germany) took over in 1803. Mensdorf since then.

Bernard had at least 2 siblings (names not given by Bob Dondelinger). Know one was Theodor. Another quite likely was the Jean Dondelinger who m. Margaretha Birnbaum at Mensdorf 11 Feb 1808 [LDS film #1739677].

Bernard m 1) Elizabeth Kierbach in Mensdorf in 1800 & she bore 8 children b/4 she died in 1814. Bob Dondelinger says 2 of these chidren (names not given) emigrated to US.* Decennial Tables, Commune of Betzdorf, 1796-1892 [LDS film # 1739676] shows only 2 births who might have been of Bernard's 1st marriage. One was Nicolas, b 9 Vendemiaire Year 9 (2 Oct 1800). Two Jeans (Johns) were b 11 Mar & 27 Oct 1813. One of these was son listed below. Two deaths might have been other children: Bernard, d 8 Nov 1810, & Francois, d 24 Jan 1811. However, w/o ages given they could have been older relatives.

Birth records in above source 1797-1801 are spotty, 1802 missing, but aft 1803 excellent. Since every one of children of Bernard's 2nd marriage documented in these, suspect Bernard & 1st wife lived somewhere outside of Betzdorf Commune during part of their marriage.

WAS ELIZABETH KIRBACH RELATED TO PETER FREYMANN'S WIFE BARBARA KIRBACH? Same last names & close relationship of Dondelinger & Freymann families makes this quite likely.

He m 2) Anna Maria Hentz in Mensdorf just 3 1/2 mo aft 1st wife died. She bore 7 children.

Bernard, a farmer, was sponsor (with Barbara Kirbach Freymann) at the baptism of their 1st grandchild, Charles & Maria Freymann's d. Barbara, in Olm in 1847.

*Researched possibility these 2 might have been the bros Nicolaus & Dominik Dondlinger (sic) who emigrated to Belgium, WI. Their est b yrs (1806/9 & 1812) were consistent w/ Bernard's 1st marriage. However, Ozaukee Co death record of Nicolaus gives his PARENTS AS JOHN & MARY. Furthermore, altho there were were several Nicolas Dondelingers born in Betzdorf Commune at right time, there was no Dominik born there b/n 1803 & 1855. Therefore assume they came from elsewhere, altho they could still have been relatives of the Mensdorf Dondelingers.

SEARCH OF COMPUTERIZED 1994 IGI VERSION 3.05 & ANCESTRAL FILE AT FAMILY HISTORY LIB IN SALT LAKE DID NOT SHOW FREI(IE)DERIC OR BERNARD DONDELINGER OR ANNA MARIA HENS(T)Z.

WIFE - Anne Maria HENTZ-430

Marriage certificate (xerox in file) from LDS microfilm 1739677 shows Anna Marie & Bernard were married in Mensdorf Mayor's office at 10 AM on 29 June 1814. He was 39, she was 29 & apparently not previously married (referred to as "Demoiselle"). Cert gives her b place & parents' names, noting both had died at Munsbach (dates not given).

D date & place: death certificate (xerox in file) from same source. Was 45 when she died.

Her name also spelled in various documents as Hensz & Heinz.

Other info on children of this mother & other Dondelingers from Robert J Dondelinger, 716 40th Ave NE, Columbia Heights, MN 55421-2901 [letters in Dondelinger folder, Freymann file]. His data on following 7 children confirmed in Decennial Tables, Commune of Betzdorf, 1792-1892 [LDS film 1739676] w/ few minor corrections as indicated. However, these tables do not give parents, & photocopies of actual birth registers largely illegible. Apparently Robert had better access to latter because I don't know how he could otherwise distinguish these children from 7 others, many w/ same names, born in same yrs. There were at least 2 other Dondelinger families in Betzforf at same time: Bernard's bro Theodor's (married 1812) & that of Jean Dondelinger & Margaretha Birnbaum, who m at Mensdorf 11 Feb 1808 (another bro of Bernard?). A 3rd family appeared aft Nicolas Dondelinger (perhaps son by 1st wife b in 1800? Cf Bernard's note 429) married Susanna Dehecks (sp?) 1 May 1827, & a 4th aft Jean (6255) married in 1839. Cf list of ALL Dondelinger births in Betzdorf 1800-1852 in Freymann notes which illustrate this confusion.

CHILD 2 - Nicolas DONDELINGER-4624

Robt Dondelinger gave b date 2 Feb.

CHILD 3 - Susanna DONDELINGER-4623

Robert says she did not emigrate. He gave d date 30 Jan 1850, but this was another Susanna, the dau of Jean Dondelinger & Marguerite Birnbaum [LDS film 1739677].

CHILD 4 - Maria DONDELINGER-418

Maria's 1st husband, Charles Freymann, died in 1854, as did 1 of her new twins & her mother-in-law. Her eldest daugh. had d. 2 yrs before at age 5.

8 mo aft husb d (27 Nov 1854; Book J, p 329) she bought back from Nicholas Ames 60 acres of her farm in Sect 24 which Charles had sold to him 13 Mar 1853. So she kept farm intact & managed somehow to run it by herself for 5 yrs.

Liber Matrimoniarum, St.Donatus Ch, pg 183: N.Kellen - M.Freiman 24 Nov 1859. A son by this marriage, Nicholas D Kellen, married Anna Colling. Anna Colling's younger sister, Susan, became Nicholas Freymann's 3rd wife.

1860 Census Prairie Spring Twp., Jackson Co, Dwelling 572, Family 539: Nicholas Kellin (sic), 35, farmer, real estate $2400, b. Luxemburg; Mary, 38,

Luxemburg; Mary Freiman, 11; John Freiman, 10; Catherina Freiman, 8; Nicholas Freiman, 6. All children b. Iowa; all but Nicholas in school during year. Next dwelling & family (573 & 540) Nicholas Nemmers, 49; Mary, 41; Catherine, 18; Michael, 16; Nicholas, 14 (all 5 b. Luxemburg); John, 12; Charles 10 (or 11?); Mary, 8; Peter, 6; Susan, 4; Jean P., male, 2 (all 6 b. Iowa; all children older than Peter in school). Both Mary (Maria Dondelinger) Kellin & Mary (Maria Freymann) Nemmers were "above 20 & unable to write."

1870 Census Prairie Springs Twp, Dwelling 114, Family 114: Nickolas Kellen, 46, farmer, real estate $5000, b. Holland; Maria, 50, keeps house, b. Holland; Maria, 22, at home; John, 20, works farm; Catherine, 18, at home; Nicholas, 10; Nicholas, 16; Maria, 8; Elizabeth, 5 (last 4 all attended school within year). Altho family name of all children not given, the 1st 3 & "Nicholas, 16" must have been Freymanns and the younger Nicholas, Maria & Elizabeth Kellens. Three doors away on one side (Dwelling 111, Family 111) was the Nicholas Nemmers family. House was kept by Mary, now 19. (Maria Freymann Nemmers d. in 1867.) Catherine, Michael & John (now 28, 26, & 22) were no longer with the family. All others listed in 1860 were. Two doors away on the other side (Dwelling 116, Family 117): Jacob Dulnlinger (sic), 47, farmer, b. Holland; Maria, 49, keeps house, b. Holland; Maria, 19, at home; John, 19; Eliza, 10; Charles, 8 (all children b. Iowa, all but Maria attended school within year). This must be Jacob Dondelinger, 1824-98, Maria's brother.

1880 Census Prairie Springs Twp, pg 13, Dwelling 107, Family 111: Nicholas Kellen, 54, farmer; Mary, 58, keeping house; Nicholas, 18, son, farm laborer; Mary, 16; Elizabeth, 14; John Fryman, 29, stepson, farm laborer. Next door (Dwelling 106, Family 110): Chas. Nemmers, 29, farmer; Margaret, 21, wife; Nicholas, 1; Nicholas, 63, father. Thus we know that Maria & her sister-in-law's family lived next to each other for at least 30 yrs, presumaby on the same properties.

Maria & her husband moved west after 1880 (1890 Census records do not exist). They sold St Donatus farm 6 April 1891 (per Jean Kellen) & witnessed bpt of Nicholas Freymann's son Joseph 20 Oct 1891, so prob moved in 1891. They lived 1st w. their daughter Elizabeth Kellen Hoffman ("Tante Liz") in Hospers (near LeMars) & finally with Nicholas Freymann in Oyens. Nicholas thought the Hoffmans did not care for them properly: "she wouldn't even give our mother a decent pillow to sleep on". (Source: oral history by Armella Reisch, Ottillia & Nick Freymann, 1989.)

Death: Maria d. in Springbrook (near St.Donatus) 2 June 1894, age 72. She was probably visiting her 2 daughters who lived there, Catherine Clasen & Mary Hibert. However, 5 June 1894 Bellvue Herald reported "Mrs Nicholas Kalen (sic) died at her home near Springbrook..," & Jean Kellen says "similar item appeared in LeMars paper." She was buried in the St.Donatus churchyard & her d. recorded in the Liber Defunctorum. Her gravestone also marks the graves of her 1st husband, Charles Freymann, & her 1st daughter, Barbara, who d. at 5 yrs, 3 mos. Curiously, Nick Kellen, who d. in 1895, is buried in LeMars. Could they have been separated so late in their lives?

CHILD 5 - Jacob (Jacques) DONDELINGER-1193

Bob Dondelinger [cf note #4625 for address] says Jacob m in wife's home town & emigrated "right afterward." They sailed from LeHavre in Aug 1850, arr NY 30 Sept 1850. They settled in St Donatus in Nov 1850.

1860 Census, Parairie Springs Twp: Dwelling 534: Jacob Dondelinger, 55, farmer, real estate $1000, Luxemburg; Mary, 59, Prussia; Mary, 9; Susan, 9; John, 6; all children b. Iowa. Cf. notes on his sis. Maria (418) for location & composition of family in 1870 Census. [Note: ages of Jacob & w. in 1860 must be errors. In 1870 ages 47 & 49, yet children listed in 1860 match except for Susan, who is missing. JMF thinks 5s were actually 3s; i.e., Jacob was 35; Mary 39, which would be abt right.] In 1870 Jacob & w. both "b. Holland." Altho she was b in Prussia (cf her note), she was prob Luxembourger.

Jacob was the great-uncle and godfather of John Joseph Freymann. His grave in LeMars is separated from the plot where Elizabeth Freymann is buried (which was marked only by the gravestone of John [Johan] Freymann when we found it) by that of Nicholas Kellen, Maria Dondelinger Freymann's 2nd husband. Date of burial from St. Joseph's Record of Deaths & Burials.

CHILD 6 - Madelaine DONDELINGER-5863

Robert gave name Magdelina. Death cert [LDS 1739677] confirms name & that she was dau of Bernard.

CHILD 7 - John DONDELINGER-1194

John was probably the "J. Danlinger, male, 18" listed in the passenger manifest of the Tarquin along with Charles Freymann's family in 1847; i.e., he came w/ his sis. Maria. His b date [per LDS film #1739676] checks out exactly.

Burial records in St.Joseph's Church, LeMars, state that Jacob Dondelinger was "the bro. of John," who was presumably still alive at Jacob's burial in 1898. However, Bob says John d. in St Donatus in July 1854. [Source of info?] His bro Jacob had son John born in St Donatus in 1854 (#2990) who lived until 1921. Could church record have confused Jacob's son w/ his bro; i.e, Jacob was "the father of John?"

HUSBAND - Johannes Nicolaus NEMMERS-472

Tuntange is 7 km due N of Olm. B. place & m. date from Suzanne Bunkers' Nemmers genealogy. This is a hand-written chart Jean-Claude Muller sent her "years ago." (Bunkers' e mail 3/13/01 in file of her correspondence in Freymann file.) Chart lists 1st 8 children w/o proof of birth order but not Carolina (#6682). All but Catherine said to have been b. in Dondelingen; Catherine alone in Bissen.

His father was Peter Nemmers. Peter m. 2) Anna Maria Nesen 4 Feb 1782 in Tuntange. He d. there 1 Feb 1783, just 1 yr later. Johannes was his only son by this marriage. (From Bunkers)

B & d dates from "A Short History of the Nemmers, Haxmeier, Kass Family," Sis. Mary Marcellinda, OSF, 1961. (e mail in Freymann file)

These elderly parents may have emigrated w/ s. Nicholas & his w. Maria Freymann when they came to St. Donatus in 1847, but I did not find them or any other Nemmers in a careful search of the manifest of ship Tarquin. They probably emigrated at later date. They were living w/ son's family at time of 1850 Census.

WIFE - Catharina WEBER-473

B. date & parents from Bunkers (cf husb's note 472 for ref)

CHILD 3 - Nicholas NEMMERS-431

Nicholas Nemmers married Charles Freymann's sister Maria. Dondelingen (now Dondelange) is only 2 1/2 mi NE of Olm. According to Bunkers (cf Johannes Nemmers #472 for ref) he was living in Dondelingen when he married. Do not know if the couple lived there or in Olm until they emigrated. They had 14 children.

Nicolaus' sister Catherine was the mother of Margaret Kleitsch, the 1st wife of Nicholas Freymann. Thus Nicholas & Maria Nemmers were uncle & aunt to both Nicholas and Margaret Freymann.

Nicholas, Maria & their 3 children came to America on same ship w/ Charles & Maria Freymann. Passenger manifest of "Tarquin" out of Harvre, Geo Moody, master, lists Nicholas Nemmers, 36, farmer, Holland; Maria ", 28; Catherine, 5; Michael, 3; Nicholas, 2. [NY Passenger Listings, 25 June-31 Aug 1847, Reel 68]

Nemmers & Freymann families must have journeyed to St Donatus together too. Both men applied for citizenship in Dubuque on same day, 16 Aug 1847. Nicholas gave his age as 31!

1860 Census gives his age 49; 1880, 63; hence uncertainty of year b. Depending on which of above correct, was b/n 1811 & 1817.

Cf Maria Dondelinger (#418) for structure of his family in 1860-80 Censuses.

CHILD 8 - Catherine NEMMERS-433

B. place, b & m dates from Bunkers (cf Johannes Nemmers #472 for ref). Note her place in birth order not known.

CHILD 9 - Carolina NEMMERS-6682

She m. Heinrich P. Haxmeier (1814-1871) of Hannover, Germany. One of their children, Heinrich Jr, was ancestor of Sis. Mary Marcellinda, author of the Nemmers family history cited in note #472.

NOTE: She was NOT listed among Johannes' children in Bunkers' genealogy (cf father's note #472 for ref).

HUSBAND - Theodore Wentink-1199

See notes on Gerhard Wentink (434) for reasons to think Theodore is his father.

"...the name Wentink occurs more than 200 times in the province of Gelderland [in the Netherlands; it is on the east border of the center of the country, north of the Rhine where the river passes Arnhem, about 150 mi. north of Luxembourg]....The people here are mostly of Saxon origin...Names ending in -ing or -ink are common." (p 69) Wentink is a Dutch patronymic derived from the Germanic name Vend(s). (p 46) Wends is linked to Wendel & to Vandel, "a Germanic tribe." (p 35) ["Names from the Netherlands," Lemmen, L; privately printed, 1st ed. 1986, Lib. of Congress] Several members of the family in the US anglicized the name to "Wenting."

The Wentinks were prob Dutch, but this is by no means certain. The name is surely Dutch. The 3 sons consistently gave Holland as their b place, even when census takers recorded wives b places as Luxembourg. Yet Luxembougers often gave b places as Holland, Germany or even Prussia. Sons Gerhard & Albert both m Luxembourgers (Johan Wilhelm's wife was from Hesse). Nicholas Freymann's 2nd wife was Gerhard's daugh Elizabeth. His 1st & 3rd wives were Luxembourgers, & his daugh Armella told me they spoke Luxembourgois in their home. His son John J Freymann spoke Luxembourgois fluently (so much so that, on his 1st visit to Luxembourg when he was past 60, people there asked him when he had emigrated!). Thus it's highly likely Elizabeth spoke Luxembourgois too, but she could have learned it from her mother. However, one wonders: did 2 of the 3 Dutch sons of Theodore live in a sea of Luxembourg language & culture -- or were the Wentinks perhaps Luxembourgers themselves?

Nevertheless, search of 1994 IGI, Version 3.05 showed every Wintink listed was b "Netherlands." None of the Wentinks in this family in list.

In 2006, searching "Geneanet" for Wentinks, I found 2 linked to janbeekman@hotmail.com. In e-mail exchange w/ him I got not specific info but he sent 2 maps (1 from 1947 Census, 1 from "recent" phone book) showing concentrations of Wentink names in the Netherlands. They show no place names, but greatest (& almost exclusive) concentratiion must be in Gelderland Prov (cf above) . Greatest concentration (42-54 names) appears in region east of Arnhem which, by guess from my atlas, may be around towns of Wehl & Doetinchem. (E-mails & maps in Wentink file.)

CHILD 1 - Gerhard Wentink-434

Designation of Theodore & Gertude Wentink as Gerhard Wentink's parents is circumstantial. They are named as parents of Albert when he m. in 1855 & 1902 (cf. Albert Wentink note). Gerhard & Johan Wilhelm witnessed his 1st marriage. Gerhard named his 1st son Theodore. The 3 were undoubtedly brothers & these were almost certainly their parents.

Cf father's note #1199 for speculation Wentinks might have been Luxembourgers, altho Dutch origin prob more likely. Whatever his origin, Ozaukee Co was settled principally by foreign-born immigrants, most of them Germanic. In 1840 there were only 343 people in Washington Co, most of them in the E part that would become Ozaukee Co. In 1850 the population of the 7 towns in that area had reached 8236, of whom 5405 were foreign-born, & 3955 of these were Germans (including Luxembourgers). In 1860 there were 2204 FAMILIES whose heads were born somewhere in Germany--including 431 Luxembourger families. Latter clustered in Belgium & contiguous areas of Port Washington & Fredonia, "a virtual colony." [SE Wisconsin: A History of Old Milwaukee Co; Gregory, JG, Ed, vol II, pp 1199-1204, xerox in file]

Gerhard's name is variously shown as Gerhard, Gerard, Grudus, Gerhardus & Gerhardt. On the birth record of Maria (Mary) Wentink in 1859, his occupation is "woodenshoemaker." Elsewhere he was "mason" & "farmer."

Naturalization record in Ozaukee Co. Courthouse: "Gerhardus Wentink, b.
Holland 1818, arr. New York Sept. 1846, declared 24 Mar 1847. No.3092, Vol 6, Pg 256, District Court, & No.3093, Vol 6, p 259, Circuit Court. Witnesses M. Adam & M. Yung. [By time of naturalization, which could not have occurred until 1852 or later (date not copied), Mathias Adam was his bro-in-law.]

Ozaukee Co. marriage records (Vol 2, pg 43) state "Gradus" Wentink & Catherina Adam were m 16 Feb 1849 in Washington Co. by Fr. Geo. Saufhuber of New Luxemburg, Washington Co. Original records obtained by JMF from Wis. Dept. Health & Social Services, Div. of Health confirm this. No other info on latter form, incl. blank for place "marriage was contracted." No witnesses named. [New Luxemburg apparently no longer exists. Not to be confused with Luxemburg, abt 75 mi N in Kewaunee Co. Ozaukee Co split off from Washington Co in 1853.]

Gerhard Wentink & Elizabeth Frey were sponsors at bpt. of Elisabeth Wentink, d. of his bro Johann Wilhelm Wentink & Anna Maria Wassman, 12 June 1858 (Baptismal Records of St.Mary's Ch. Port Washington).

CHILD 1 - Gerhard Wentink-434 (Continued)

1860 Census 1st Dist. Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, pg 725, line 28: Gerardus Wentink, 42, mason, real estate $1000, personal $400, born Holland; Catharina, 34, born Luxemburg; Margaretha, 10; Theodore, 9; Elizabeth, 6; Albert, 4; Anna Maria, 2; Marie, 8 mo. All children b. Wis & all but last 2 attended school within year. This was dwelling #193, family #160. [JMF's notes show these data on were on p 23, line 34.]

3 July 1865 he purchased 80 acre farm in Belgium Twp (W 1/2 of SE 1/4 of Sect 35) for $2000, subject to $600 mortgage. [Deed Vol 16, p 337] This was major turning point in his life, which prob explains why he wrote will 4 d later.

1870 Census, Belgium, Ozaukee Co, enum 9 June, p 255, dwelling 165, family 165: Wenting (sic), Gratus (sic), 52, farmer, real estate $4000, pers prop $600, b Holland; Catherine, 44, b Luxemburg; Margaret, 20; Theodore, 19; Elizabeth, 16; Albert,14; Anna, 12; Joseph, 8; Henry, 7; Charles, 5; Mary, 3; Susan, 8/12 (?), b "Sept" (1869); all children b WI. NB: Families 178-180 were D Dondelinger, 26; John Dondelinger, 25; & Dominik Dondelinger, 57.

He d at 55, leaving 5 minor children. Death in Aug suggests may have been farm accident.

In will dated 7 July 1865 Gerhard ("of the town of Belgium") bequeathed everything to his wife. Witnesses A.Heidkamp, J.B. Klopp, John Gengler.
He owned E 1/2 of Lot 3 in Block 31, original plat of Port Washington & 80 acres 5-7 mi. north in Belgium: W 1/2 of SE Quarter of Sect 35, 12 Range 22 E in Ozaukee Co. Document dated 9 Sept 1873 listed heirs as w. Catherine; Theodore of Appleton, WI; Margaret Schmitt of Sandusky, WI; Elisabeth; Albert, 17; Anna, 15; Joseph, 12; Heinrich, 11; Carl, 9. A "Certificate of Descent" filed by Ozaukee Co. Judge J.E.Uselding 24 July 1914 confirms above date of d. and lists same heirs except Elisabeth (dead) & Heinrich now Henry. Note Elisabeth had reached majority; i.e., was 21 as of 9 Sept 1873. [Will Ozaukee Co. Probate A 563, file W); 2nd doc. A 567, File W.]

JMF investigated records of St.Mary's Ch., Port Washington, 4 Dec 1957. He found bpt. dates as shown in Family Group Record for all children from Albert (#4, b. 1856) on except Joseph (#7). The church opened in 1847, but extant records date from autumn, 1853, so the 3 eldest children (Margaretha, Theodore & Elizabeth could have been bpt. in this church. Their ages & birth order can be accurately determined by the 1860 Census record. The fact that Marie (b. 1859) & the 3 youngest (Mary, Frank & Susan, b. 1866-69) are not mentioned as heirs in 1873 suggests that all 4 d. before 1873.

The sexton of Old St. Mary's Cem. found record of burial of "G. Wentink" next to graves of Mathias & John B. Adam. Just behind & to left of Mathias Adam's grave is an eroded, broken tombstone. Only inscription legible (& just barely so) is just below broken edge: "7 August 1873." Since this date Gerhard died, this must be his tombstone. To rt. are 3 small, eroded tombstones ornamented w/ lambs inscribed "Maria Franz," "Maria (illeg)," & "(illeg) Susannah." These correspond w/ names of 3 of 4 children mentioned above thought to have d. bef 1873. To rear of these is less eroded tombstone, also w/ lamb, inscribed "Catherine Margaretha Maria." Sexton found no record of burial of Catherine Adam Wentink, but this would be logical place for her grave -- near her children, husband, parents & bro.

In June, 1990, JGF & RKF visited Gerhard's farm outside Belgium, WI, following JMF's directions from Port Washington: go N on N Wisconsin St; go R on 7 Hills Rd (Co Road LL) 3.6 mi; go R on another Co Road abt 1/2 mi, crossing I 43 on overpass; 1st farmhouse & huge red barn on L is Gerhard's farm. He built barn; house was built abt 75 yrs ago on site of older house. Country is lush, gently rolling, w/in sight of Lake Michigan. We talked briefly w/ then-owner, Jim Kerrels. He had told JMF in 1989 his father Milton's 1st cousin was Gene Freimann, living in Milwaukee, who was then "quite ill w/ cancer."

CHILD 2 - Johann Wilhelm Wentink-1202

Marriage: Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 201. Witnesses Albert & Gerard Wentink.
Cf note on son Gerardus (#2165) indicating that Johann was prob m (or at least sired a son) in Holland b/r emigrating.

1860 Census 1st Dist. Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, pg 2, line 14 lists in Dwelling 13, Family 12: Johann William Wentink, 31, mason, born Holland; w. Anna Maria (Wassman, cf. below), 28, born Hesse, Darmstadt; Gerardus, 9, born Holland; Elisabeth, 2; Albert, 8 mo. Latter 2 born Wis. In Dwelling 14, Family 53 was Albert Wentink (cf. his notes).

Gerhard Wentink was a sponsor at bpt. of Elisabeth. This plus Gerhard & Albert witnessing Johann's wedding, plus the names Johann gave his 1st 2 boys, plus the proximity of the above 2 families (Gerhard was not far away in dwelling 193, Family 160) makes it almost certain that these 3 were brothers & therefore sons of Theodore & Gertrude Wentink.

HUSBAND	John Baptiste ADAM-470	Yr of Birth 1791
WIFE	Margaretha KLEIN-471	Yr of Birth 1790

HUSBAND - John Baptiste ADAM-470

"Adam" is an Old Testament surname. These were frequently used by Huguenot refugees who fled from France to Holland aft revocation of Edict of Nantes in 1685 [ref in T. Wentink #1199 notes, p 58]. Yet John Adam & all his family were Catholic when they reached US 150 yrs later.

As of May, 1996, neither John Baptiste or his son Mathias were in 1994 IGI, version 3.05, or in computerized Ancestral File at FHL in Salt Lake City.

John Adam emigrated from Bissen, Luxembourg in 1837 with six children, according to notes JJF made from a chart sent to him by Louise Poull. Only 5 named: #2, 3, 4, 5 & 7 below, & #3 was listed as "Jeanne."

Bissen is in central Luxembourg, abt 15 mi NNW of Luxembourg City. People here predominantly Catholic & most prob spoke German & Luxembourgois, not French, at that time. Yet even if Adam family became Catholic, & French was no longer their native tongue, his name & child named Jeanne (who might have been Jean, a son) suggest they may have had French roots.

B & d dates from tombstone. Last digit of eroded d yr could be 6 or 8. He & wife, son Mathias & wife, daugh Catherina & her husb Gerhard Wentink & 3 of their children all buried in adjacent plots in front rank of Old St Mary's Cem.

2 Declarations of Intent to become US citizens in Milwaukee Historical Soc archives may show when & where Adam family arr in WI. Both on Milwaukee Co forms:

#2415: John Adams (sic), b Prussia abt 1824, arr NY Aug 1840, renounced allegiance to King of Prussia 31 Mar 1846. (signed, as copied by clerk) Johan Adams.

#2419: John Adams (sic), b Prussia abt 1790, arr NY Aug 1840, renounced allegiance to King of Prussia 6 Apr 184_. (Final digit left blank, but date of Register 1846.) (signed, as copied by clerk) John Adams, his mark.

Ages of declarants & declarations only 1 wk & 4 serial nos. apart suggest they were father & son. Therefore these may have been John Baptiste Adam & his son John; i.e, "Jeanne" in Poull list was, in fact "Jean," French for John. However there were no DIs in Milwaukee Hist Soc archives or in archives of Milwaukee, Washington or Ozaukee Cos (cf F/W/A Notes, p 19 for account of this search) for John Baptiste's 2 KNOWN sons, Bernard & Joseph. They were 25 & 19 in 1846 & would have been expected to file intents to become citizens too. Thus it may be more likely that these Johns, father & son, were not ours; that they were another Adam family (cf below).

No John Adam(s) in 1836, 38, 42, 55 Wis censuses or in 1840 US Census. 1850 Census, Port Washington, Washington Co (Ozaukee Co not created until 1853), p 1, dwelling 10, family 10: Adams (sic), John B, 60, joiner, real estate value $200; Margaret, 61; Bernard, 29, farmer; Joseph, 23, farmer; Charlott, 20 [script difficult but pretty sure of this name]; Barbary (sic), 18; all b Germany. Son Mathias was in dwelling 4 [cf his note #1195]. (Eldest daugh Catherina had been m. in 1849.)

Thus we might postulate John brought his wife & 6 younger children to America in Aug 1840. Their ages ranged from 19 yr old Bernard to 8 yr old Barbara. Eldest son Mathias followed them to US in Sept 1847 & went directly to WI. John took his family to WI sometime b/4 he & his son made their Declarations in Mar-Apr 1846, but how long b/4? Immigrants often moved W in stages, so they could have been anywhere b/n NY & midwest b/n Aug 1840 & 1846. We have clue (cf below) they might have been in Erie Co, OH. Of course, they may have gone directly from NY to WI in 1840. (Port Washington was 1st settled in 1835 as "Wisconsin City;" Milwaukee was incorp as village in 1839.) Unfortunately, no census b/n 1842-50, so no way to tell exactly when this large family arr in WI.

All this is confounded by listing in 1848-49 Milwaukee City Directory of "John Adams, laborer" living on 2nd St. He was still at same address in 1854-55 Directory, so he could not be John Baptiste Adam, who we know was living in Port Washington in 1850 & 1860. He was prob man listed in 1850 Census of Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co, p 21, dwelling 149: John Adam, 59, laborer; Marie Adam, 67; John Adam, 24, laborer; all b Prussia. THESE MAY HAVE BEEN THE 2 JOHN ADAMS WHO FILED THE DIs MENTIONED ABOVE!

If JBA had son John, he was conspicuously absent from Port Washington family in 1850 Census. Could he have been the 24 yr old John Adam in Milwaukee, living there w/ relatives? Or were the Milwaukee Adams father & son? Were they the pair who made the Declarations of Intent in 1846? If so, did a son "Jean" really exist, or was there really a daugh "Jeanne," as Louise Poull believed?

If there was no son John & KNOWN sons Bernard & Joseph never filed for citizenship, where are John Baptiste Adam's naturalization documents? No other Declarations of Intent in Milwaukee, Washington or Ozaukee Co archives match known facts about him; namely, his age & his arrival in WI no later than 1849, when daugh Catherina was m to Gerhard Wentink. A Certificate of Naturalization for "John Adam" in Ozaukee Co dated only 185_ & witnessed by Mathias Adam may be John Baptiste's, but (if he was ever naturalized at all) he must have made his Declaration somewhere outside of these WI counties.

2 more John Adam(s) arr in Port Washington aft 1850 who may or may not have been related to JBA. They were the only other John Adams in Ozaukee Co in 1860. 1) 1860 Census Port Washington, enum 5 June, p 12, dwelling 100, family 85: JOHN ADAM, 36, master carpenter, real estate $1000, pers property $300, b Luxemburg; Maria Elisa, 36, b Prussia; Rosa, 6, b OHIO; Wilhemina, 2, b WI + 3 roomers, all b Luxemburg. [This is undoubtedly the John Adams (sic) who arrived in US in 1851 & made the Declaration of Intent in ERIE CO, OHIO, THAT IS FILED IN OZAUKEE CO COURTHOUSE! He must have left Ohio aft 1854 (when his 1st daugh was born there), gone to Port Washington & had Declaration forwarded there so he could be naturalized. He was right age to be JBA's son (b 1824) but, if so, he did not leave Luxembourg or arr in WI w/ JBA's family. Cf F/W/A notes for 1840 Census of Erie Co, OH, which shows a John Adams family was there, altho unlikely it was this John's.] 2) ibid, enum 22 June, p 77, dwelling 577, family 496: John Schmidt, 30, & wife Marie, 28, both b Luxemburg & 4 children, 5 to 3/12, all b WI; JOHN ADAM, 23, carpenter, pers property $50, b Luxemburg. [This might have been the Johan Adam whose marriage later in 1860 is recorded in Johan (Jean)'s note #1197. However, if he was JBA's son his age (b 1837) would have made him youngest child in 1850 Census, when he was only 13. One therefore would have expected to find him in JBA's household.]

Cf Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes pp 15-18 for further discussion of all this confusing information.

1860 Census 1st Dist Port Washington, pg 22, line 22, Dwelling 182, Family 149: John Baptist Adam, 69, day laborer, b Luxemburg; Margaretha Adam, 70, b Luxemburg. Next dwelling & family that of Mathias Adam (cf. his notes).

1870 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, enum 6 Aug, p 560, dwelling 291, family 282: Adam, JB, 82, carpenter, pers property $300; Margaret, 87, both b Luxemburg. Son Mathias' family was next door (cf his note#11950.

WIFE - Margaretha KLEIN-471

B & d dates from eroded tombstone. 15? Dec 1800? 1790 date based on 1860 Census. D: 11 (11?) May 1872 or 5. B place from 1860 Census.

CHILD 1 - Mathias ADAM-1195

B & d dates from tombstone.

Declaration of Intent #3665 in Milwaukee Historical Soc archives states Mathias Adam, b Holland 1816, arr NY Sept 1847, renounced allegiance to William, King of Holland 9 Oct 1847. (on Milwaukee Co form) Naturalization certs #2964, vol 6, p 83, Ozaukee Co District Court, & #3443, vol 8, p 181, Circuit Court (dates not copied) contain same info. Thus we can be pretty sure Mathias stayed behind in Luxembourg when rest of family emigrated, m & had 2 children b/4 he followed his father. He went directly from NY to Milwaukee & then on to Port Washington. Only 14 mo after his arrival in US he was prosperous enough to buy lot there. This was followed by number of other land purchases & sales (cf pp 6-7, Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes). In Dec 1852 he sold lot to "Derahard" Adam, prob his younger bro Bernard.

1850 Census, Port Washington, Washington Co, p 1, dwelling 4, family 4: Adams (sic), Mathias, 33, joiner, value real estate $400; Elizabeth, 35; Margaret, 6; Henry, 4; all b. Germany. Mathias & Margaret checked in column "Attended school within year." [Father John B Adam lived in dwelling 10.]

1860 Census 1st Dist Port Washington, p 22, Dwelling 183, Family 150 (next door to John B. Adam): Matthias Adam, 43, carpenter, b. Luxemburg; Elisabeth, 45, b. Luxemburg; Margaretha, 16; Heinrich, 13; John Baptiste, 7; (2 older children b. Luxemburg, John b. Wis).

1870 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, enum 6 Aug, p 560, dwelling 290, family 281: Adam, Mathias, 54, saloon keeper, real estate $7000, pers prop $1000; Elizabeth, 57; both b Luxemburg; John B, 16, b WI, in school.

In 1870 nominated for coroner of Ozaukee Co (Milw Sentinal, 1 Nov 1870, p 2, col 3). In 1876 elected assessor of County (ibid, 6 Apr 1876, p 5, col 2), but he d just 6 mo later..

HUSBAND John Baptiste ADAM-470 Yr of Birth 1791
WIFE Margaretha KLEIN-471 Yr of Birth 1790

Will (Ozaukee Co A 693, file A-B) dated 3 Dec 1854 bequeathed everything to wife Elisabeth. Witnesses Adolph Heidkamp, Frederick Knapple, Jahn J Cedinger. Proved 13 Nov 1876, signed by Elisabeth Adam, her mark.

CHILD 2 - Bernard ADAM-1196

B date est from 1850 Census. In this he was living w/ family in Port Washington; occupation farmer.

He was prob the "Derahard" Adam who bought lot from Mathias Adam 10 Dec 1852 (Ozaukee Co Deed Book I, p 43). Ozaukee Co birth rec. vol 1 p 585 lists birth of Margareta, d. of Bernard Adam & Susannah Teimet, 22 Sept 1855 in Port Washington.

He did not appear in 1860, 70, 80 Censuses of Ozaukee Co

CHILD 3 - Johan (Jean) ADAM-1197

Cf father's note (#470) for what may have been Johan's Declaration of Intent.

Johan Adam m. Marie Graf 2 Oct 1860. Witnesses Gerhard Wentink, J.B.Adam. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 238] Such witnesses suggest this was John Baptiste Adam's son. However, there were 2 other Luxembourgers named John Adam in Ozaukee Co at same time who may have been relatives (cf JBA note #470 for details). The one who was a 23 yr old bachelor in June 1860 might have been this groom. [Cf Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes p 15-18 for further discussion.]

CHILD 4 - Catharina Margaretha Maria ADAM-435

The name was also frequently written as Catherine & Katherine. She was known to friends as Kate.

3 yrs aft husb's death, his 3 oldest children, who had reached majority, Theodor, Margaretha & Elisabeth, divested themselves of their shares in his real estate in indentures filed b/n 31 Mar & 1 May 1876, each receiving $500 from their mother. On 5 Aug Catharina, as admistratrix, auctioned off property at Ozaukee Co Courthouse. High bidder ($3800) was her bro-in-law Nicholaus Poull. On 14 Aug, he & wife Barbara sold it all back to Catharina for $4000. Over next 14 yrs remaining children divested themselves of their rights to the property, each doing this within 5 yrs of reaching majority. Ages of each child at time of actions given on each indenture. Elisabeth's shows she was 23 as of 1 May 1876. [Text & citation of documents on pp 7-8, Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes.]

1880 Census of Belgium Ozaukee Co. lists household: Catherine Wentink, 54; Elizabeth, 25; Joseph, 18; Henry, 17; Charles, 15. (Father Gerhard had d. in 1873.)

Death: Records of St.Mary's Rectory state Catherine d. 18 March 1903, age 77. Ozaukee Co. d. rec. vol 3, p 1049 state that Katherine (Adam) Wentink, d. of John B. Adam & Margaret Adam, d. 16 March 1903 of bronchitis. Buried in Port Washington, but cemetery not named. JGF & RKF discovered grave after locating Gerhard Wentink's grave next to those of John Baptiste & Mathias Adam in front rank of Old St. Mary Cem. Single, small gravestone to rear of Gerhard's & 3 of their children who d young inscribed "Catherine Margaretha Maria." No dates. Sexton has no record of her grave but said burials still being made here in 1903.

John Joseph Freymann accompanied his father, Nicholas, to attend his grandmother's funeral. He was 13 1/2. He recalled meeting his mother's surviving siblings (Margaret, Theodore, Carl, Albert, Henry & Joseph) and that Carl, a bachelor, m. a lady he met at the funeral. (From letters held by JMF.) Cf. note on Carl (#439).

Documents filed in connection w. her estate in 1904 listed survivors: Theodore of Appleton, WI (w. Maggie); Albert of St.Paul (w. Emma M.); Maggie Schmitt of Sandusky, WI (h. Edward); Joe of Chicago; Henry of Chicago; Carl of Appleton; John J. Freymann, minor, son of Lizzie (deceased); and Rosie Hughes adult, Anastacia & Joe Hughes, minors, children of Annie (deceased).

CHILD 5 - Joseph ADAM-1198

B date est from 1850 Census. He was living w/ family in Port Washington; occupation farmer. Nothing further known about him. He did not appear in 1860, 70, 80 Censuses of Ozaukee Co.

CHILD 6 - Charlott (Mary Laura?) ADAM-2195

Mary Laura Adam m. Francis Wurz in Belgium, Ozaukee Co, 17 Feb 1851. Priest, Fr. Saufhuber, was same one who m. Gerhard Wentink & Catherine Adam in 1849. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 2 p 295]

This m. date conforms with those of John B. Adam's other daughs (Catherina, 1849, & Barbara, 1851) & could be that of other daugh listed in 1850 Census b/n Joseph & Barbara whose name appeared to be Charlott. She could 6th of the 6 children John B Adam is said to have taken w/ him from Bissen, only 5 of whom were named by Louise Poull (cf her note #1203). Further evidence is that, according to Louise, putative daugh "Jeanne" m. man named "Wertz." This was most likely Mary Laura's Francis Wurz. However, have no explanation of how Charlott could be same person as Mary Laura. Or is it possible there really was a daugh Jeanne, that she, Mary Laura & Charlott were all the same person, & that putative son "Jean" never existed? [Cf father's note #470 & Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes pp 15-18 for details & discussion.]

No Francis Wur[t]z in 1860, 70 Censuses of Ozaukee Co.

NB: This Mary Laura was too old to have been daugh of Mathias, the eldest son. He was 35 in 1851, & his eldest daugh was only 7.

CHILD 7 - Barbara ADAM-469

B date est from ages given in 1850 & 1860 Censuses.

HUSBAND - Charles FREYMANN-417

Birth: see father Peter's notes (424).

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 28th day of February in the year 1817, at about the fourth morning hour, was born & on the same day baptized, Carolus Freymann, legitimate son of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses, living in Olm. Sponsors were Charles Thimesch & Catherine Freymann, all of Olm."

Marriage (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 13th day of November of the year 1845....I, the undersigned, in the chapel of Olm, during the celebration of Mass, received for the nuptial blessing the respectable young persons Carolus Freymann, legitimate son of the deceased Petri Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses of Olm, and Maria Dondelinger, legitimate daughter of Bernard Dondelinger and the deceased Maria Hensz, spouses of Menster, in the presence of the required witnesses who all, together with me, appended their names, with the exception of the bride who with her hand made the sign (X). Charles (sic) Freymann, Arendts Frantz, Peter Runsch, Contor Petrus, Rector." Civil Register of this marriage (in German, copy in files) identifies Charles, his father & Maria's father as farmers & gives dates of his father's & Maria's mother's deaths.

Passenger manifest of ship "Tarquin" which left Havre, France, & arr. NYC 26 July 1847: C.Freimann, farmer, 30; wife M.Freimann, 25; daugh. B.Freimann, age 1/4; B.Kirback, 50 (Charles' mother); J.Danlinger, m, 18 (prob. Maria's

b. Johann); & M.Freimann, f, 20 (prob. Charles' s. M. Catherina). All listed place of origin "Netherlands, Holland," which goes to show how casual Luxemburgers seem to have been about their nationality. [When Charles was b. in 1817, the Grand-Duchy was part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. In 1847 it was independent, but the King of the Netherlands was also the Grand Duke of Luxembourg -- while the capital city was garrisoned by Prussian troops.] Also aboard were Charles' sis Maria Nemmers, her husb & children [cf Nicholas Nemmers, #431].

"Tarquin" was wooden 515 ton, 3-masted, 2 deck ship built in Boston in 1833. It was 143 ft long, 28 ft broad, & drew 17 ft. It had square stern, no galleries & a figurehead. [Info obtained by Jean Kellen in her folder in Freymann File; also contains picture of this ship.]

Naturalization: Nat Records, Dubuque Co. Iowa, Book 1, pg 8: Charles Freeman, 30, renounced Hol., signed declaration 16 Aug 1847. Note this is just 21 days after he landed in NYC! Nicholas Nemmers, husband of Charles' s. Maria, was naturalized the same day, indicating 2 families traveled together from NYC.

Land: Vol D, pg 524, Deed Record Lands Jackson Co (courthouse, Maquoketa IA): 5 Dec 1848 Charles bought 160 acres for $500. Vol G, pg 97 shows he bought adjoining 80 acres 13 Aug 1852 for $105. Map of Tetes des Morts & part of Prairie Springs Twsps following this note show land was in W quarters of sections 13 & 24 in latter Twp, abt 1 1/2 mi SW of Catholic church. Photos of house & of land in Sect 13 taken in June, 1999, in Freymann photos file. This is original house, but it has been covered w/ clapboard. This cannot disguise characteristic configuration of windows & doors in typical Luxem- bourger farm houses, nor the old stone foundation and brick chimney.

Adjoining farm in E 1/2 Sect 14 owned by John Thoma in 1989. Using photo of village of St Donatus taken by John J Freymann (in 1903?) now owned by JMF, JGF, MWF & JMF determined it was taken from hill in SE part of Thoma farm. Nicholas Freymann may have brought his 13 1/2 yr old son there to show where he (Nicholas) was born when on their way to John's grandmother's funeral in Port Washington.

When the Catholic Church was dedicated 4 July 1851, Charles was 1 of 2 witnesses of the deed.

1850 Census, Tete des Morts Twp., Jackson Co, pg 301 (mixed in with Bellevue Twp. listings) Dwelling 279, Family 279: Carrol Freeman, 33, farmer, value real estate $1050, b. Germany; Margaret, 28, b. Germany; Barbara, 3, b. Germany; Margaret, 2, Iowa; John 4/12, Iowa; John Dunninger, 24, laborer, Germany. Next door (Dwelling 280, Family 280): Nicholas Nemers, 35, farmer, $550, Germany; Mary, 28, Germany; Susannah, 18, Germany; Catherine, 8; Michael, 7; Nicholas, 6 (all 3 b. Germany); John, 4; Charles 10/12 (both b. Iowa); John Nemers, 65, and Catherine, 58, both b. Germany. "Mary Nemers" was Charles Freymann's sis Maria. [Freymann farm was W 1/2 of W 1/2 of Section 13; Nemmers farm was E 1/2 of W 1/2; i.e., the adjoining farm.]
Death: Liber Defunctorum, St.Donatus Church, 1850-1966, pg 2: "Carolus Freiman A.D.1854 die 31 Mars. sepulta est Carolus Freiman rite sacra mortes refectus, 37 anni natus mortuus est." The monument to Maria Dondelinger Freymann Kellen in the churchyard is also inscribed (in German) "In Memory of Karl Freiman of Olm, Luxemburg, Husband of Maria Dondelinger...."

Notes

WIFE - Maria DONDELINGER-418

Maria's 1st husband, Charles Freymann, died in 1854, as did 1 of her new twins & her mother-in-law. Her eldest daugh. had d. 2 yrs before at age 5.

8 mo aft husb d (27 Nov 1854; Book J, p 329) she bought back from Nicholas Ames 60 acres of her farm in Sect 24 which Charles had sold to him 13 Mar 1853. So she kept farm intact & managed somehow to run it by herself for 5 yrs.

Liber Matrimoniarum, St.Donatus Ch, pg 183: N.Kellen - M.Freiman 24 Nov 1859.
A son by this marriage, Nicholas D Kellen, married Anna Colling. Anna Colling's younger sister, Susan, became Nicholas Freymann's 3rd wife.

1860 Census Prairie Spring Twp., Jackson Co, Dwelling 572, Family 539: Nicholas Kellin (sic), 35, farmer, real estate $2400, b. Luxemburg; Mary, 38, Luxemburg; Mary Freiman, 11; John Freiman, 10; Catherina Freiman, 8; Nicholas Freiman, 6. All children b. Iowa; all but Nicholas in school during year. Next dwelling & family (573 & 540) Nicholas Nemmers, 49; Mary, 41; Catherine, 18; Michael, 16; Nicholas, 14 (all 5 b. Luxemburg); John, 12; Charles 10 (or 11?); Mary, 8; Peter, 6; Susan, 4; Jean P., male, 2 (all 6 b. Iowa; all children older than Peter in school). Both Mary (Maria Dondelinger) Kellin & Mary (Maria Freymann) Nemmers were "above 20 & unable to write."

1870 Census Prairie Springs Twp, Dwelling 114, Family 114: Nickolas Kellen, 46, farmer, real estate $5000, b. Holland; Maria, 50, keeps house, b. Holland; Maria, 22, at home; John, 20, works farm; Catherine, 18, at home; Nicholas, 10; Nicholas, 16; Maria, 8; Elizabeth, 5 (last 4 all attended school within year). Altho family name of all children not given, the 1st 3 & "Nicholas, 16" must have been Freymanns and the younger Nicholas, Maria & Elizabeth Kellens. Three doors away on one side (Dwelling 111, Family 111) was the Nicholas Nemmers family. House was kept by Mary, now 19. (Maria Freymann Nemmers d. in 1867.) Catherine, Michael & John (now 28, 26, & 22) were no longer with the family. All others listed in 1860 were. Two doors away on the other side (Dwelling 116, Family 117): Jacob Dulnlinger (sic), 47, farmer, b. Holland; Maria, 49, keeps house, b. Holland; Maria, 19, at home; John, 19; Eliza, 10; Charles, 8 (all children b. Iowa, all but Maria attended school within year). This must be Jacob Dondelinger, 1824-98, Maria's brother.

1880 Census Prairie Springs Twp, pg 13, Dwelling 107, Family 111: Nicholas Kellen, 54, farmer; Mary, 58, keeping house; Nicholas, 18, son, farm laborer; Mary, 16; Elizabeth, 14; John Fryman, 29, stepson, farm laborer. Next door (Dwelling 106, Family 110): Chas. Nemmers, 29, farmer; Margaret, 21, wife; Nicholas, 1; Nicholas, 63, father. Thus we know that Maria & her sister-in-law's family lived next to each other for at least 30 yrs, presumaby on the same properties.

Maria & her husband moved west after 1880 (1890 Census records do not exist). They sold St Donatus farm 6 April 1891 (per Jean Kellen) & witnessed bpt of Nicholas Freymann's son Joseph 20 Oct 1891, so prob moved in 1891. They lived 1st w. their daughter Elizabeth Kellen Hoffman ("Tante Liz") in Hospers (near LeMars) & finally with Nicholas Freymann in Oyens. Nicholas thought the Hoffmans did not care for them properly: "she wouldn't even give our mother a decent pillow to sleep on". (Source: oral history by Armella Reisch, Ottillia & Nick Freymann, 1989.)

Death: Maria d. in Springbrook (near St.Donatus) 2 June 1894, age 72. She was probably visiting her 2 daughters who lived there, Catherine Clasen & Mary Hibert. However, 5 June 1894 Bellvue Herald reported "Mrs Nicholas Kalen (sic) died at her home near Springbrook..," & Jean Kellen says "similar item appeared in LeMars paper." She was buried in the St.Donatus churchyard & her d. recorded in the Liber Defunctorum. Her gravestone also marks the graves of her 1st husband, Charles Freymann, & her 1st daughter, Barbara, who d. at 5 yrs, 3 mos. Curiously, Nick Kellen, who d. in 1895, is buried in LeMars. Could they have been separated so late in their lives?

Several photos of Maria & Nick Kellen in Jean Kellen folder, Freymann file.

Notes

CHILD 1 - Barbara FREYMANN-419

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 28th...of February of...1847, at about the 4th hour in the afternoon, was born & on the next day baptized, Barbara Freymann, legitimate daugh. of Charles Freymann & Mary Dondelinger, spouses, farmers of Olm. Sponsors Bernard Dondelinger of Menster & Barbara Kirbach of Olm."

CHILD 2 - Mary FREYMANN-420

Nicholas & Mary Hilbert had six children. Aunt Armella Reisch recalled in 1989 that her father, Nicholas Freymann, took her by train from LeMars to Springbrook when she was a little girl to visit his sister & the Hilbert family.

CHILD 3 - John FREYMANN-422

Nicholas' older brother never married. He was listed as a farm laborer on his step-father Nick Kellen's farm in the 1880 Census, when he was 30. Sometime after that he moved to LeMars, where he d. at age 32.

Oddly, Johan's gravestone (it's inscribed in German) was the only one on Lots 29 & 30, which also contain the graves of Nicholas' 1st 2 wives & the 3 children they lost. [Freymann bros investigated burial records in 1989.]

CHILD 4 - Catherine FREYMANN-421

Catherine & Nikolaus Clasen had a number of children, many of whom, along with THEIR children, are buried near them in the Springbrook Cemetery.

CHILD 5 - Nicholas FREYMANN-16

Nicholas never knew his f., who d. when N. was 5 wks old. His mother m. Nick Kellen when N. was 5. We know by the 1860 & 1870 Censuses that he lived w. his family until he was at least 16; furthermore that his schooling continued until he was at least 16 (undoubtedly at a Catholic school in St.Donatus). According to "History of Woodbury & Plymouth Counties" pg. 965, he stayed on that farm until 22, then worked as a day laborer in St.Paul for a year. In 1877 he went to LeMars to work in his uncle Peter Gehlen's mill and became a member of that household. (In 1880 Census Plymouth Co, pg 106, Dwelling 198, Family 198 is that of the widowed "Mary C. Gehlen." Nicholas Freyman, 26, is listed as "servant.") In 1880 he bought a 220 acre farm in America Twp & moved there in 1883. [Farm is on S side of County K49 at intersection w/ 7th Ave SE, 2 mi S of LeMars. Site of house now posh estate, "Crownland Acres." Orig. house moved 2 1/4 mi E on left side of K49 opp. 2 blue silos, owned (1990) by Brewer. Identical house on next farm S of Nick's was built by Nemmers (which one?) & served as model for Nick's.]

Marriage #1: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Margaretha Kleitsch of St. Donatus, daughter of Joannes Kleitsch & Catherina Nemmers, 10 April 1883. (There was a close family connection. Nicholas' aunt Mary was m. to Catherina's brother Nicholas.) Witnesses Nicholaus Gehlen & Margaretha Hoffmann. Their 1st child, Charles, b. 30 Nov 1883. 2nd child (bpt. John but listed in burial records of same church as Peter) was b. 9 Aug 1884 & lived 1 day. Peter Nemmers & Maria Cath. Schmits were sponsors. Margaretha d. 15 Dec 1884, age 21, of " lung fever." (According to Plymouth Co. records she was "paralyzed" for 10 mos. before death.)

Marriage #2: Marriage register St. Mary's Church, Port Washington, & Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 6 p 792 show Nicholas Freimann, farmer, m. Lizzie Wentink 27 Sept 1887. Witnesses Charles Wentink & Melchior Kemp. She was about 35 & had never been married, having still been "at home" in the 1880 Census. She probably met Nicholas thru his relatives living near her home. A section map of Belgium, WI (date?) shows farms of Dominik Dondelinger (2268) & John Dondelinger (2265), son of Dominik's bro Nicolaus (2263), adjoining Gerhard Wentink's. Houses prob abt 3/4 mi apart. Abt 3 1/2 mi away was farm of John B. Freymann (2238) & his son John (3232). [Cf Ozaukee Co Freymann/ Dondelinger file. Relation b/n these people & Nicholas' parents not estalished, but they must have been kin. Quite likely Luxembourger families around St. Donatus, Port Washington & LeMars maintained regular contact for at least 1 or 2 generations.]

Their 1st child, Joseph, d. at birth 8 Aug 1888. John Joseph was b. 13 Dec 1889. 3rd child, Joseph Nicholas b. 19 Oct 1891. Lizzie d. that day of post-partum hemorrhage. The baby d. 4 months later.

Marriage #3: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Susannah Colling, d. of Peter Colling & Catherina Delahamet 13 June 1893.

The Colling farm was within sight of Nicholas', & Susan had helped care for his 3 small sons after Lizzie died. She was also kin, since her s. Anna was m. to Nicholas D. Kellen, Nicholas' half bro. Susan bore him 3 more children, Albert, Vincent & Armella. He left the farm in 1893 & moved to a house across the tracks from the grain elevator in Oyens, Iowa, which he managed until he retired in 1915. He & Susan then moved to farm near Iona, MN, for brief time b/4 moving back to LeMars early in 1916. He d. there in 1920 of "cancer of the liver."

CHILD 6 - Dominic FREYMANN-423

Dominic, Nicholas' twin brother, died of smallpox when he was 6 months old.

The incidence of twins in Charles Freymann's family is remarkable. 3 of his 4 children are known to have had twins, & M. Catharina (Gehlen) had 2 sets.

Other child, Catharina (Gehlen) may also have had twins (cf her note #427).

Marriage

In the year of onethousand eighthundred fortyfive, on the thirteenth of the month of November, at nine o'clock in the evening, there appeared before us, Jean Baptiste Poeckes, Mayor, Civil Service official of the community of Kehlen, Canton Capellen in the Grand-Dukedom of Luxemburg,

Karl Freymann, farmer, twentyeight years old, born in Olm, section of this community, on the twentyeighth of February onethouwand eighthundred seventeen, living in said Olm, son of full age of Peter Freymann who died on the seventeenth of April onethousand eighthundred thirty in Olm, and the still living Barbara Kirpach, farmwoman, living in Olm, the latter present and consenting. The bridegroom's birth certificate and his father's death certificate were shown to us in the Civil Register, and Maria Dondelinger, maid, twentyfour years old, born in Mensdorff, community of Betzdorff, on the second of August, onethousand eighthundred twentyone, living in Hesperingen, daughter of full age of Bernard Dondelinger, farmer, living in Mensdorff, and Anna Maria Hentz who died on the twentieth of December, onethousand eighthundred thirty in Mensdorff, the former present and consenting.

MENSDORF IS 13.8 miles due EAST of Olm.

Who asked us to perform the marriage to which they had agreed, the announcement of which was made on Sundays the second and ninth of this month around noon without eliciting objections. As no objection to the planned marriage was made known to us, we grant their request and, after reading to them all above-mentioned documents and the 6th Chapter of the Civil Code entitled "About Marriage", we asked the bridegroom and the bride whether they wanted to take each other as husband and wife; as both answered, individualle and affirmatively, we pronounce in the name of the Law that Karl Freymann and Maria Dondelinger are united in marriage.

Of all this we prepared this act, in the presence of

Mr. Heinrich Gillen, Pastor, fortyfour years old, living in Kopstal, unrelated,
Peter Jaans, Schoolteacher, thirtyfive years old, living in Kopstal, unrelated, Nicolas Pauly, Day laborer, fortyfour years old, living in Kehlen, unrealted, and Peter Welter, Schoolteacher, fortyfour years old, living in Kehlen, unrelated.

Who, after the act was read to them, signed it with us. The bride and the bridegroom's mother stated that they did not know how to write.

At the Maquoketa County Court House, "Deed Record Lands Volume D for Jackson County", page 524 shows that on Dec. 5, 1848, Eliza M. Dixon of Dubuque County sold to Charles Freyman (sic) of Jackson County for $500 "the West half of the Northwest quarter and the West half of the Southwest quarter of Section 13 in Township 87 North of Range 3, East of the fifth PM (principal meridien) containing 160 acres together with all and singular the appurtenance's thereunto belonging." Another entry in "Deed Record Lands Volume G for Jackson County", page 97 shows that on August 13, 1852, William Joshua Barney and Georiana F. Barney of Dubuque County sold to Charles Freyman of Jackson County for $105 "The West half of the Northwest quarter of Section 24 in Township 87 North of Range 3, East of the fifth Prin. Mer. in the Dubuque Land District, Iowa." ~~An examination of current plat maps (1989) indicates that much of the first property mentioned lay directly on the bank of the Mississippi River, approximately 4 1/2 miles ESE of the Catholic Church of St. Donatus. The remainder of the lands adjoined directly to the South, a short distance inland and to the West of the river. The current (1989) owners of these lands are J. & B. Schoop, Mark & Tracey Hueneke, Vera Griebel, Rex & Judith Graham, and Herbert Hueneke.~~

80 Acres bought by Charles Freymann from Joshua & Georgiana Barney for $105 on August 13, 1852.

DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND Nicholas KELLEN-449 Yr of Birth 1825
WIFE Maria DONDELINGER-418 Yr of Birth 1821

HUSBAND - Nicholas KELLEN-449

B date variously reported; this one based on age at d: 70 yrs, 1 mo, 16 d.

Arr NYC aboard ship "Charter Oak" 16 June 1857. Prob went directly to St. Donatus, but 1st documentation his m there in Nov 1859. At that time Nicholas Freymann was 5 1/2 yrs old, & Nick Kellen was only father he ever knew.

Cf wife's note #418 for census data.

Wife apparently gave undivided interest in 60 acres she bought back in 1854 to her 4 children by 1st husb. Each of them sold their 1/4 interests to Nick for $800 b/n 1871 & 1880 (copies of deeds in Jean Kellen folder). Nick & wife sold all of original Freymann farm to their dau Elizabeth & her husb Mathias Hoffman 6 April 1891. They prob moved W to LeMars area shortly thereafter (cf note #418).

4 days b/4 his death (his wife had already d & he was living w/ step-son Nicholas Freymann in Oyens) he wrote will that suggests he had little regard for his dau Elizabeth Hoffman. He bequeathed $450 to son Nicholas D & dau Anna Maria Rolling; bequeathed $100 to step-daughs Catherine Classen & Maria Hilbert "to be paid from pension due me from Mathias Hoffmann;" bequeathed $5.00 to dau Elizabeth Hoffman; left everything else to Nicholas Freymann & made him executor. [JMF has will.] Ref to "pension due me" suggests Mathias was under some financial obligation to provide retirement home or income to Nick & Maria.

WIFE - Maria DONDELINGER-418

Maria's 1st husband, Charles Freymann, died in 1854, as did 1 of her new twins & her mother-in-law. Her eldest daugh. had d. 2 yrs before at age 5.

8 mo aft husb d (27 Nov 1854; Book J, p 329) she bought back from Nicholas Ames 60 acres of her farm in Sect 24 which Charles had sold to him 13 Mar 1853. So she kept farm intact & managed somehow to run it by herself for 5 yrs.

Liber Matrimoniarum, St.Donatus Ch, pg 183: N.Kellen - M.Freiman 24 Nov 1859. A son by this marriage, Nicholas D Kellen, married Anna Colling. Anna Colling's younger sister, Susan, became Nicholas Freymann's 3rd wife.

1860 Census Prairie Spring Twp., Jackson Co, Dwelling 572, Family 539: Nicholas Kellin (sic), 35, farmer, real estate $2400, b. Luxemburg; Mary, 38, Luxemburg; Mary Freiman, 11; John Freiman, 10; Catherina Freiman, 8; Nicholas Freiman, 6. All children b. Iowa; all but Nicholas in school during year. Next dwelling & family (573 & 540) Nicholas Nemmers, 49; Mary, 41; Catherine, 18; Michael, 16; Nicholas, 14 (all 5 b. Luxemburg); John, 12; Charles 10 (or 11?); Mary, 8; Peter, 6; Susan, 4; Jean P., male, 2 (all 6 b. Iowa; all children older than Peter in school). Both Mary (Maria Dondelinger) Kellin & Mary (Maria Freymann) Nemmers were "above 20 & unable to write."

1870 Census Prairie Springs Twp, Dwelling 114, Family 114: Nickolas Kellen, 46, farmer, real estate $5000, b. Holland; Maria, 50, keeps house, b. Holland;

HUSBAND Nicholas KELLEN-449 Yr of Birth 1825
WIFE Maria DONDELINGER-418 Yr of Birth 1821

Maria, 22, at home; John, 20, works farm; Catherine, 18, at home; Nicholas, 10; Nicholas, 16; Maria, 8; Elizabeth, 5 (last 4 all attended school within year). Altho family name of all children not given, the 1st 3 & "Nicholas, 16" must have been Freymanns and the younger Nicholas, Maria & Elizabeth Kellens. Three doors away on one side (Dwelling 111, Family 111) was the Nicholas Nemmers family. House was kept by Mary, now 19. (Maria Freymann Nemmers d. in 1867.) Catherine, Michael & John (now 28, 26, & 22) were no longer with the family. All others listed in 1860 were. Two doors away on the other side (Dwelling 116, Family 117): Jacob Dulnlinger (sic), 47, farmer, b. Holland; Maria, 49, keeps house, b. Holland; Maria, 19, at home; John, 19; Eliza, 10; Charles, 8 (all children b. Iowa, all but Maria attended school within year). This must be Jacob Dondelinger, 1824-98, Maria's brother.

1880 Census Prairie Springs Twp, pg 13, Dwelling 107, Family 111: Nicholas Kellen, 54, farmer; Mary, 58, keeping house; Nicholas, 18, son, farm laborer; Mary, 16; Elizabeth, 14; John Fryman, 29, stepson, farm laborer. Next door (Dwelling 106, Family 110): Chas. Nemmers, 29, farmer; Margaret, 21, wife; Nicholas, 1; Nicholas, 63, father. Thus we know that Maria & her sister-in-law's family lived next to each other for at least 30 yrs, presumaby on the same properties.

Maria & her husband moved west after 1880 (1890 Census records do not exist). They sold St Donatus farm 6 April 1891 (per Jean Kellen) & witnessed bpt of Nicholas Freymann's son Joseph 20 Oct 1891, so prob moved in 1891. They lived 1st w. their daughter Elizabeth Kellen Hoffman ("Tante Liz") in Hospers (near LeMars) & finally with Nicholas Freymann in Oyens. Nicholas thought the Hoffmans did not care for them properly: "she wouldn't even give our mother a decent pillow to sleep on". (Source: oral history by Armella Reisch, Ottillia & Nick Freymann, 1989.)

Death: Maria d. in Springbrook (near St.Donatus) 2 June 1894, age 72. She was probably visiting her 2 daughters who lived there, Catherine Clasen & Mary Hibert. However, 5 June 1894 Bellvue Herald reported "Mrs Nicholas Kalen (sic) died at her home near Springbrook..," & Jean Kellen says "similar item appeared in LeMars paper." She was buried in the St.Donatus churchyard & her d. recorded in the Liber Defunctorum. Her gravestone also marks the graves of her 1st husband, Charles Freymann, & her 1st daughter, Barbara, who d. at 5 yrs, 3 mos. Curiously, Nick Kellen, who d. in 1895, is buried in LeMars. Could they have been separated so late in their lives?

Several photos of Maria & Nick Kellen in Jean Kellen folder, Freymann file.

Elizabeth m. Matthew Hoffmann & lived in Hospers, near LeMars. To younger members of the clan she was "Tante Liz." Nick & Maria Kellen lived a while w/ her in their old age.

B. date from JMF.

Kellen genealogy (cf Peter Kellen #2971, son of Nicholas D. Kellen, for citation) is so sparse on this family; i.e., no dates or places, will only list children of Tante Liz & Matt as given: Mary, Mike, Nick, John Clara, Emma, Rose, Alois.

Notes

HUSBAND - Nicholas NEMMERS-431

Nicholas Nemmers married Charles Freymann's sister Maria. Dondelingen (now Dondelange) is only 2 1/2 mi NE of Olm. According to Bunkers (cf Johannes Nemmers #472 for ref) he was living in Dondelingen when he married. Do not know if the couple lived there or in Olm until they emigrated. They had 14 children.

Nicolaus' sister Catherine was the mother of Margaret Kleitsch, the 1st wife of Nicholas Freymann. Thus Nicholas &

Notes

Maria Nemmers were uncle & aunt to both Nicholas and Margaret Freymann.

Nicholas, Maria & their 3 children came to America on same ship w/ Charles & Maria Freymann. Passenger manifest of "Tarquin" out of Harvre, Geo Moody, master, lists Nicholas Nemmers, 36, farmer, Holland; Maria ", 28; Catherine, 5; Michael, 3; Nicholas, 2. [NY Passenger Listings, 25 June-31 Aug 1847, Reel 68]

Nemmers & Freymann families must have journeyed to St Donatus together too. Both men applied for citizenship in Dubuque on same day, 16 Aug 1847. Nicholas gave his age as 31!

1860 Census gives his age 49; 1880, 63; hence uncertainty of year b. Depending on which of above correct, was b/n 1811 & 1817.

Cf Maria Dondelinger (#418) for structure of his family in 1860-80 Censuses.

[Date of d. from copy of St. Donatus Catholic Church Records "typed by Nancy J. Keil, Spring 1985" found by JMF in Maquoketa, Iowa (Historical Soc?)]

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 19th day of...July in...1819, at about the sixth evening hour, was born & on the following day baptized, Mary Freymann, legitimate d. of Peter Freymann and Barbara Kirbach, spouses living in Olm. Sponsors were John Freymann of Angelsberg & Mary Goergen of Bartringen."

Maria m. Nicholas Nemmers in Luxembourg bef 1842 (their eldest child was 8 in 1850 Census & 3 oldest children " born Germany"). She d. same day she gave birth to twins at age 48. 1 baby d. at birth; other lived 10 days. This was her THIRTEENTH term pregnancy in 25 yrs! (Liber Defunctorum, St. Donatus)

CHILD 1 - Catherine NEMMERS-2950

B. date & place est from passenger manifest (age 5 in Aug 1847) & from 1860 Census (cf. notes on father #431 & Maria Dondelinger #418).

CHILD 2 - Michael P. NEMMERS-2951

Passenger manifest gave age 3 in Aug 1847 (cf father's note #431). B. & d. dates from gravestone.

CHILD 3 - Nicholas NEMMERS-2952

Passenger manifest gave age 2 in July 1847 [cf father's note #431]. B. date from tombstone; this checks w/ ages in 1860 & 1870 Censuses. Record of Births & Deaths of St. Joseph's Church say he was buried 21 Mar 1882, age 35 yrs/ 1 mo/16 d. That would have been 5 Feb 1847. Discrepancy not explained. That may have been date he d. He was prob buried on 24 March. B. & d. places from Bunkers (cf Johannes Nemmers #472 for ref).

This was 1st of 3 children of Nicholas & Maria named Nicholas (Nikolaus). Cf note on John Nemmers (2960) on repetitive naming custom among Luxemburgers.

On 2 May 1870, Nicolaus & 16 other men set off from St. Donatus in 18 ox-drawn covered wagons for NW Iowa. They arrived on 19 May. Nicolaus bought farm 1 1/2 mi NE of Alton. He returned to St. Donatus to m. Anna Kaiser on 24 Feb 1873 (date from Bunkers, not certain). She was b. 25 Dec 1852 in Olm. They had 6 children: Peter, Hubert, Josephine, Abigail, Catherine & 1 who d. in infancy. [St.Mary's Parish Centennial 1883-1983, abstracted by Lois Kellen; e mail in file].

Daugh Josephine m. Henry Kokenge. They were great-grandparents of Suzanne Bunkers.

Tombstone states Nicholas was husb. of Anna Kaiser. Smaller tombstones nearby to "Mother Anna Nemmers Huss, 1852-1920," & to "Father Anton Huss, 1843-1923." Nicolaus' widow remarried after his d. at age 42 & she d. in LeMars 28 Jan 1920.

These tombs are next to that of Johann Freymann; i.e., the original Freymann family plot where Nicholas Freymann's 1st 2 wives and 3 children are buried.

CHILD 4 - John N. NEMMERS Father-2953

B. in Iowa from 1860-70 Censuses. Bio sketch cited below says he was b. this date about 3 mo after parents arr. in St. Donatus in July, 1847. Family lived 1st in temporary log cabin, which was replaced by "a more substantial log cabin w/ 2 rooms" until John was 17 or 18 (i.e., abt 1865). Then a large stone house was built. Judy Nemmers took the Freymann bros. to it in 1989, a short distance SW of St. Donatus. It stands well behind a new house, has been abondoned for years, & is in an advanced state of decay.

John was a protege of Fr. Flammang, who founded the parish in St. Donatus, & was ordained 20 Dec. 1875. [Source: Dissertation by Sr. Mary Tritz, in files.] He was pastor at Gilbertville, Iowa for 50 yrs & was oldest native Iowa priest living in the state in 1925. [Cf. pamphlet "Golden Jubilee of the Pastor & Parish, Gilbertville, Iowa: Historical Sketch Written on Occasion of Golden Jubilee of Father John N. Nammers & Immaculate Conception Parish, 1875-1925." Reprinted Sept 1983. JMF files.]

CHILD 5 - Charles (Carl) NEMMERS-2954

B. date est. from 1860-70-80 Censuses. In 1880 he was listed as age 29, farmer, w/ w. Margaret Even, 21, & Nicholas, 1. His father Nicholas, age 63, lived w/ them.

Their son John W. & Margaret Ley were the ancestors of James A. Adams, who opened a Nemmers website (http://205.213168.3/nemmers.html)

CHILD 6 - Mary Gedeona N.D. NEMMERS Sister-2955

B. date est. from 1860-70 Censuses. At 19, she was keeping house for her widowed father (1870 Census). JMF has info she became a nun.

CHILD 7 - Peter NEMMERS-2956

Bpt. date from JMF. This checks with ages in 1860-70 Censuses.

Tombstone: "Father Peter, 1854-1934; Mother Margaret, 1863-1934." Known that John Peter Nemmers' w. was Margaret Mangrich, he was b. 1857. Therefore assume that this Peter's w. was also Margaret.

CHILD 8 - Susanna NEMMERS-2957

This is earliest bpt. of a Nemmers child in typed transcript of records in St. Donatus Church Rectory (p 13). Age checks with 1860-70 Censuses.

She m. Jacob Mangrich (per JMF).

Husband Nicholas NEMMERS-431

Wife Maria FREYMANN-426

Notes

CHILD 9 - John Peter NEMMERS-2958

Bpt. from Rectory transcript (p 20). Age checks with 1860-70 Censuses (listed as "Jean P., male" in 1860.) Both John, 12, & Peter, 6, listed in 1860 Census too.

He m. Margaret Mangrich (per JMF). S. of Susanna Nemmers' h. Jacob?

CHILD 10 - Nicholas NEMMERS-2959

Bpt. date from Rectory typescript (p 46).

CHILD 11 - Joannes NEMMERS-2960

Bpt. date from Rectory transcript (p 70). D. date from JMF.

Sex of this child not specified in bpt. record. This might be Latin for "John," but there were already 2 living children named John & John Peter. As we know from Peter Freymann's family w/ 2 daugh. bpt. "Catherine," Luxemburgers seemed to have no compunction about using identical names more than once for living children. However, "Joannes" just might have been a girl.

CHILD 12 - Caroline NEMMERS-2961

Bpt. date from Rectory transcript (p 104). D. date from JMF.

CHILD 13 - (infant) NEMMERS-2962

CHILD 14 - Nicholas NEMMERS-2963

This was the other twin, apparently 3rd child named Nicholas. D date from Liber Defunctorum, St Donatus.

Cf note on Dominic Freymann (#423) for the exceptional incidence of twins in this family.

HUSBAND - Peter Gehlen-464

Altho his obit states he was born 1 Jan 1819, birth certificate (transcript follows) states 2 Nov 1817. His father was Johann Gehlen, day laborer, age 23, of Olm. His mother was Maria Hantsen, also of Olm. Peter worked at Rheims, Champagne, from age 12 to 26. Then he returned to Olm & m. Catherina Freymann (Charles' 2nd sister) 23 Feb 1846.

Soon after they left for America, arriving at New Orleans on ship Chateaubriand out of Le Havre on July 28, 1846. They were accompaned by Charles Hoffmann, his wife & 4 children, also from Olm. [Ship's manifest in file.] They went up the Mississippi by steamboat to Dubuque, Iowa. They found Luxembourger J.B.Noel family lunching on a point above the river near their farm. (The 1st Lusembourgers in region, they had settled there in 1838.) Peter claimed 80 acres in Section 36, Mosalem Twp, Dubuque Co. (1850 Census shows he was only 2 farms removed from Noel's.) This was abt 8 mi S of town of Dubuque & abt 2 mi N of where village of St. Donatus would later grow. He built a house & eventually owned 240 acres here b/4 moving to St. Donatus. [Cf plat map of Mosalem Twp.] Cf. Catherina's note #427 for her death & deaths of Peter's 1st 2 children.

Peter m. Margaret Catherina ("M. Catherina") Freymann, Charles' 3rd sister in the Cathedral at Dubuque 13 Nov 1848. 1850 Census Dist. 7, Dubuque Co, dwelling 180, family 182: Peter Galen, 31, farmer, value real estate $500; Catherine, 21, both b. Luxembourg; Mary, 1, b. Iowa. Abt 1854 he opened a store in St. Donatus. Later he bought a mill. (The mill is in ruins but, in 1999, the store & adjoining huge stone barn are in good condition, being used as a B&B. Photo & article about barn in file.)

1860 Census Tete des Morts Twp, Jackson Co, Dwelling 425, Family 402: Peter Gehlen, 41, merchant, value real estate $1500; Catherine, 32 (both b. Luxemburg); Mary 11; Susan 9; Elizabeth 7; John 4; Michael 1(all b. Iowa); Peter Ropp, 24, laborer, b. Luxemburg.

He prospered & by 1869 was ready to move farther west in search of greater opportunity. He found it in the newly platted town of LeMars, where he bought 4 quarter sections of land where Willow Creek flows into the Floyd River on which to build a mill. He returned to St. Donatus for his family & brought them to LeMars via the Northwestern RR thru Sioux City, arr. 25 Mar 1870. 1870 Census LeMars, Plymouth Co, taken June 29: Peter Gehlen, 51, miller, value real estate $2000; Catherine, 42, keeping house (both born "Germany"); Susan, 18; John, 13; "Margaret, 11, F" (this must have been Michael, who was 11); Joseph, 9; Nick, 7; Emma, 5 (all born Iowa).

When he d. 9 yrs later of consumption, LeMars was a thriving town & he was among its most prominent citizens. There was a grand funeral w/ orations in both German & English. He is buried next to the large mausoleum built for him because his coffin was to big to fit thru the door!

WIFE - Catherina Freymann-427

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 19th day...of July, in...1822, at about the 11th evening hour, was born & on the next day baptized, Catherine Freymann, legitimate d. of Peter Freymann & Barbara Kirbach, spouses, working people of Olm. Sponsors Dominic Moes of Olm & Catherine Kalbach (Kalmach?) of Bartingen."

Marriage (JMF copy): "...in the year 1846, on the 23rd of Feb, at 5 o'clock in the evening...Peter Gehlen, farmer, 28 yrs old, born in Olm on the 2nd day of Nov 1817...son of full age of Johann Gehlen, laborer...& Maria Hanson m. Catharina Freymann...23 yrs old, born in...Olm, d. of full age of Peter Freymann...& Barbara Kirbach."

She was not listed as "deceased" at time of her 1st child's bpt in Dec 1846. Cf his note (6643) for possibility of twins. (All 3 of her sibs had twins; one, M. Catharina, had 2 sets!) According to family lore, she had 2 children, both of whom died. She could have gotten pregnant again in 1847, & might have d. in childbirth w/ that child. No record of her or another child's death in Dubuque Cathedral archives, & St Michael's Cem on Kelley's Bluff, where she (& other child?) were buried, has no burial records. In Nov 1848, Peter m. her younger sis Margaret Catherina (#428). Catherina therefore prob d. in late 1847 or early 1848. Her husb had bought land in Mosalem Twp, where village of St. Catherine later grew. She might have been buried there, altho St Catherine Parish was not established until Xmas 1852. We can only be sure she d. in Dubuque Co.

CHILD 1 - Peter Gehlen Jr.-6643

CHILD 2 - (child) Gehlen-6644

According to family lore, Peter & Catherine had 2 children, both of whom died. No record of this 2nd child in Cathedral archives. It is possible 2nd child was stillborn twin of Peter (#6643). However, it's entirely possible Catherine got pregnant again in 1847 & might have died in childbirth with him/her late in 1847 or early 1848. Cf mother's note #427 for info on her death.

Notes

HUSBAND - Peter Gehlen-464

Altho his obit states he was born 1 Jan 1819, birth certificate (transcript follows) states 2 Nov 1817. His father was Johann Gehlen, day laborer, age 23, of Olm. His mother was Maria Hantsen, also of Olm. Peter worked at Rheims, Champagne, from age 12 to 26. Then he returned to Olm & m. Catherina Freymann (Charles' 2nd sister) 23 Feb 1846.

Soon after they left for America, arriving at New Orleans on ship Chateaubriand out of Le Havre on July 28, 1846. They were accompaned by Charles Hoffmann, his wife & 4 children, also from Olm. [Ship's manifest in file.] They went up the Mississippi by steamboat to Dubuque, Iowa. They found Luxembourger J.B.Noel family lunching on a point above the river near their farm. (The 1st Lusembourgers in region, they had settled there in 1838.) Peter claimed 80 acres in Section 36, Mosalem Twp, Dubuque Co. (1850 Census shows he was only 2 farms removed from Noel's.) This was abt 8 mi S of town of Dubuque & abt 2 mi N of where village of St. Donatus would later grow. He built a house & eventually owned 240 acres here b/4 moving to St. Donatus. [Cf plat map of Mosalem Twp.] Cf. Catherina's note #427 for her death & deaths of Peter's 1st 2 children.

Peter m. Margaret Catherina ("M. Catherina") Freymann, Charles' 3rd sister in the Cathedral at Dubuque 13 Nov 1848. 1850 Census Dist. 7, Dubuque Co, dwelling 180, family 182: Peter Galen, 31, farmer, value real estate $500; Catherine, 21, both b. Luxembourg; Mary, 1, b. Iowa. Abt 1854 he opened a store in St. Donatus. Later he bought a mill. (The mill is in ruins but, in 1999, the store & adjoining huge stone barn are in good condition, being used as a B&B. Photo & article about barn in file.)

1860 Census Tete des Morts Twp, Jackson Co, Dwelling 425, Family 402: Peter Gehlen, 41, merchant, value real estate $1500; Catherine, 32 (both b. Luxemburg); Mary 11; Susan 9; Elizabeth 7; John 4; Michael 1(all b. Iowa); Peter Ropp, 24, laborer, b. Luxemburg.

He prospered & by 1869 was ready to move farther west in search of greater opportunity. He found it in the newly platted town of LeMars, where he bought 4 quarter sections of land where Willow Creek flows into the Floyd River on which to build a mill. He returned to St. Donatus for his family & brought them to LeMars via the Northwestern RR thru Sioux City, arr. 25 Mar 1870. 1870 Census LeMars, Plymouth Co, taken June 29: Peter Gehlen, 51, miller, value real estate $2000; Catherine, 42, keeping house (both born "Germany"); Susan, 18; John, 13; "Margaret, 11, F" (this must have been Michael, who was 11); Joseph, 9; Nick, 7; Emma, 5 (all born Iowa).

When he d. 9 yrs later of consumption, LeMars was a thriving town & he was among its most prominent citizens. There was a grand funeral w/ orations in both German & English. He is buried next to the large mausoleum built for him because his coffin was to big to fit thru the door!

WIFE - Margaret Catherina Freymann-428

Baptism (from Kehlen Extract): "On the 22nd...of Jan in the yr...1828, at about the 1st morning hour, was born & on the same day baptized, Catherine Freymann, legitimate d. of Peter Freymann & Barbara Kirbach, spouses of Olm. Sponsores Peter Thimesch of Kapp & Catherine Moes of Olm." Note this child's name was exactly the same as her living older sister! Her name also appears variously as Maria Catharina, M. Catharina, Katharina, Margaretha, Margaretha Catharina & Margaret Catherine. Her grandson, Dr. Joseph N. Gehlen, remembered her as "Mary Katherine."

Apparently usually known as "M. Catherina," she m. Peter Gehlen after d. of his 1st wife, her older sis Catherina. She d. in LeMars at age 69 of "heart disease." Long obit, mostly about her husb & early LeMars, in files.

1880 Census, LeMars, America Twp, Plymouth Co, IA; vol 26, ED 174, sheet 29, line 1: Gehlen, Mary C, 52, b Luxemburg; Lizzie, 25; John, 23; Michael, 21; Joseph, 19; Nicholas, 17; Emma, 15; Jennie, 8; Webber, Mary, 29 (daugh); Eddie, 7; Oscar, 6 (both grandsons); all b Iowa; Freyman, Nicholas, 26, servant; also 2 other servants, b Luxemburg.

Births of 10 children documented in typed transcript of church records in St. Donatus Church Rectory (including 2 sets of twins!). Of these, at least 4 are known to have pre-deceased her. 9 surviving children listed in her obit: sons Johann, Michael B, Joseph J & Nikolaus (sic) & daughs Maria Weber, Suzanna Herron, Lizzie Rolling, Emma Linden & Jennie. Jennie, who was 24 & unmarried in 1896, was b. in LeMars abt 1872. Thus M. Catherina bore 13 children. Only 7 of these 9 were listed as heirs in her will (copy follows). Cf their notes below.

CHILD 1 - Maria (Mary) Gehlen-2984

B & d dates from grandson Jack Weber's pedigree (follows). He says she was b in St Donatus, but we know her father was farming in Mosalem Twp, Dubuque Co, until 1853/54. She & next child (Suzanna) not among 10 following children in St Donatus bpt records. She m. John Weber in St Donatus 19 Oct 1869. He d in LA 17 May 1925 & is buried beside her, yet Jack Weber says as children they knew nothing about him. Were they separated? She was listed in 1880 Census of her mother's household as Mary Webber w/ 2 children, Eddie, 7, & Oscar, 6; husb was not listed. She was mentioned in mother's obit (1896) as "Maria Weber of Los Angeles" & in her will as Mary Weber.

Son Oscar John Weber (b 28 Apr 1874) m. May B McClean in Los Angeles in 1916. John Stanley "Jack" Weber b. 15 Apr 1920 in Santa Monica CA. Oscar John Weber d in LA 1 May 1921.

CHILD 2 - Suzanna (Susan) Gehlen-2985

JMF says she was 2nd child & gave 1851 as est b yr. Cf sis Maria's note (2984) for evidence of where she was born. She & Maria were not among 10 following children listed in St Donatus church records. Since 1st bpt in St Catherine's church (the parish in Mosalem Twp where they lived) did not occur until aft Xmas Eve, 1852, both girls were most likely bpt in Dubuque Cathedral, as their dead 1/2 bro Peter (6643) was in 1846. However, no record of this in Cathedral archive.

Husband Peter Gehlen-464

Wife Margaret Catherina Freymann-428

CHILD 2 - Suzanna (Susan) Gehlen-2985 (Continued)

Identified in mother's obit (1896) as "Mrs. Suzanna Herron" & in her will as Susan J. Herron. Since she was not in 1880 Census, presume she was m b/4 1880.

CHILD 3 - Elizabeth Gehlen-2940

Listed as "Lizzie," 25, unmarried, in 1880 Census. She m. Nicholas Rolling [not to be confused w/ Nicholas Rolling #4645 who m. Marianna Kellen (cf MRIN 1704). That family was living in LeMars in 1896.] & lived in Bellevue, IA, about 10 mi S of St Donatus. Identified in mother's 1896 obit as "Mrs Rolling of Bellevue, Jackson Co" & in her will as "Lizzie Rolling."

CHILD 4 - Nicolaus Gehlen-2941

Nicolaus & Dominic were twins. Nicolaus d. bef age 2. Nothing is know about Dominic. He was not mentioned in mother's obit in 1896.

CHILD 5 - Dominic Gehlen-2942

His twin bro Nicolaus d at age 2 but have no d date for Dominic. Not listed in 1880 Census but, if he survived, he would have been 25 then & not likely to be living w/ mother. He was not mentioned in mother's 1896 obit, so must have d b/4 that yr.

CHILD 6 - Johann Gehlen-2943

In 1880 Census he was 23. Mentioned as survivor in mother's obit (1896) but not as an heir in her will (1897). Perhaps this was b/c he "absconded w/ the family money" aft his father's death in 1879 (cf sis Jennie's note, 2986).

CHILD 7 - Michael Gehlen-2944

He was 21 in 1880 Census. Mentioned as survivor in mother's obit (1896) & as an heir in her will. He m. Mary Hoffman & moved to Texas, where they had a peanut farm near Scottsville.

CHILD 8 - Joseph Gehlen-2945

Known to have been alive in 1880 when Census listed one Joseph, age 19.
Thus the 2nd Joseph (child #11, 2947), who would have been 12 in 1880, must have d. b/4 1880. This must be the Joseph mentioned as survivor in mother's 1896 obit.

In view of Luxembourger's predilection for giving children identical names (M. Catherina & her sis, for example!), fact that 1 of twins b 7 yrs later was also named Joseph is not surprising.

CHILD 9 - Nicholas Gehlen-465

He was 17 in 1880 Census. Mentioned in mother's 1896 obit as "Nikolaus" but not as an heir in her will. He farmed near Sioux City b/4 moving his family to Ellensburg, WA.

CHILD 10 - Marianna (Emma) Gehlen-2946

Marianna not listed in 1880 Census of her mother's household but an "Emma, age 15" was. Since Marianna was 15 in 1880, assume "Emma" was her. Mentioned in mother's 1896 obit as Mrs John Linden; in her will as Emma Linden.

CHILD 11 - Joseph Gehlen-2947

Joseph & Gustavus were twins. Gustavus d. at age 4 mo. Cf other Joseph's note (#2945) for reason to believe this Joseph d b/4 1880; also for explanation for 2 children w/ same name.

CHILD 13 - Jennie Gehlen-2986

Going by her age in 1880 Census (8), she was only child b aft parent left St Donatus & settled in LeMars.

B date est from 1880 Census. Identified in mother's obit (1896) only as "Jennie" & in her will as Jennie Gehlen. She was 24 then & not m.

Excerpt from "Luxembourg to Iowa" by Margaret E Hoffman of Denver (1988) sent by Jack Weber (xerox of pp 16-19 w/ photos in file) tells more about Jennie. She went to high school at St Catherinie's Academy in St Paul. She toured Europe w/ sis Susan Herron abt 1900. On her return she m. James Madden, who worked in LeMars post office. They moved to CA & went into real estate business. He d. of diphtheria aft only 10 yrs of marriage. They apparently had no children.

HUSBAND Jacob (Jacques) DONDELINGER-1193 Yr of Birth 1824
WIFE Anna Maria (Emma) BUECHER-2987 Yr of Birth 1821

HUSBAND - Jacob (Jacques) DONDELINGER-1193

Bob Dondelinger [cf note #4625 for address] says Jacob m in wife's home town & emigrated "right afterward." They sailed from LeHavre in Aug 1850, arr NY 30 Sept 1850. They settled in St Donatus in Nov 1850.

1860 Census, P~~a~~rairie Springs Twp: Dwelling 534: Jacob Dondelinger, 55, farmer, real estate $1000, Luxemburg; Mary, 59, Prussia; Mary, 9; Susan, 9; John, 6; all children b. Iowa. Cf. notes on his sis. Maria (418) for location & composition of family in 1870 Census. [Note: ages of Jacob & w. in 1860 must be errors. In 1870 ages 47 & 49, yet children listed in 1860 match except for Susan, who is missing. JMF thinks 5s were actually 3s; i.e., Jacob was 35; Mary 39, which would be abt right.] In 1870 Jacob & w. both "b. Holland." Altho she was b in Prussia (cf her note), she was prob Luxembourger.

Jacob was the great-uncle and godfather of John Joseph Freymann. His grave in LeMars is separated from the plot where Elizabeth Freymann is buried (which was marked only by the gravestone of John [Johan] Freymann when we found it) by that of Nicholas Kellen, Maria Dondelinger Freymann's 2nd husband. Date of burial from St. Joseph's Record of Deaths & Burials.

WIFE - Anna Maria (Emma) BUECHER-2987

Bob Dondelinger says she was b in "Graach a.d. Mosel, Germany." [cf note #4625 for his address] In 1821 Germany did not exist. Mosel River was border b/n Luxembourg & Prussia b/4 flowing on into Prussia. Cannot find Graach in modern atlas so it may have been across river from Luxembourg or further into Prussia. In any case, "Emma" most likely was of Luxembourger stock.

B date from Bob Dondelinger, as are all names & b, m, & d dates of her children.

CHILD 1 - Mary DONDELINGER-2988

She m. Michael Gaspar 28 Feb 1881 in St Donatus, IA.

CHILD 2 - Susanna DONDELINGER-2989

In 1860 Census, missing in 1870 Census, when she was 17. She m. Peter Reding 27 Jan 1880 in St Donatus.

CHILD 3 - John DONDELINGER-2990

B. date est. from 1860 Census. In 1870 same age as sis Mary (19). He never married.

CHILD 5 - Eliza DONDELINGER-2991

WIFE - Catherine NEMMERS-433

B. place, b & m dates from Bunkers (cf Johannes Nemmers #472 for ref). Note her place in birth order not known.

CHILD 1 - Margaret KLEITSCH-415

Margaret Kleitsch, Nicholas Freymann's 1st wife, was the daughter of Catherine Nemmers, whose bro was m. to Nicholas' aunt, Maria Freymann.

B date est from d at age 21 yr, 1 mo.

She d. of "lung fever" at age 21, 4 mo after birth of her 2nd child, who lived 1 d. Plymouth Co. death cert. states she was "paralyzed" for 10 mo. before death. That would have been around end of her 1st trimester of pregnancy. Possible explanation is that she contracted polio.

HUSBAND Gerhard WENTINK-434 Yr of Birth 1818
WIFE Catharina Margaretha Maria ADAM-435 Yr of Birth 1825

HUSBAND - Gerhard WENTINK-434

Designation of Theodore & Gertude Wentink as Gerhard Wentink's parents is circumstantial. They are named as parents of Albert when he m. in 1855 & 1902 (cf. Albert Wentink note). Gerhard & Johan Wilhelm witnessed his 1st marriage. Gerhard named his 1st son Theodore. The 3 were undoubtedly brothers & these were almost certainly their parents.

Cf father's note #1199 for speculation Wentinks might have been Luxembourgers, altho Dutch origin prob more likely. Whatever his origin, Ozaukee Co was settled principally by foreign-born immigrants, most of them Germanic. In 1840 there were only 343 people in Washington Co, most of them in the E part that would become Ozaukee Co. In 1850 the population of the 7 towns in that area had reached 8236, of whom 5405 were foreign-born, & 3955 of these were Germans (including Luxembourgers). In 1860 there were 2204 FAMILIES whose heads were born somewhere in Germany--including 431 Luxembourger families. Latter clustered in Belgium & contiguous areas of Port Washington & Fredonia, "a virtual colony." [SE Wisconsin: A History of Old Milwaukee Co; Gregory, JG, Ed, vol II, pp 1199-1204, xerox in file]

Gerhard's name is variously shown as Gerhard, Gerard, Grudus, Gerhardus & Gerhardt. On the birth record of Maria (Mary) Wentink in 1859, his occupation is "woodenshoemaker." Elsewhere he was "mason" & "farmer."

Naturalization record in Ozaukee Co. Courthouse: "Gerhardus Wentink, b. Holland 1818, arr. New York Sept. 1846, declared 24 Mar 1847. No.3092, Vol 6, Pg 256, District Court, & No.3093, Vol 6, p 259, Circuit Court. Witnesses M. Adam & M. Yung. [By time of naturalization, which could not have occurred until 1852 or later (date not copied), Mathias Adam was his bro-in-law.]

Ozaukee Co. marriage records (Vol 2, pg 43) state "Gradus" Wentink & Catherina Adam were m 16 Feb 1849 in Washington Co. by Fr. Geo. Saufhuber of New Luxemburg, Washington Co. Original records obtained by JMF from Wis. Dept. Health & Social Services, Div. of Health confirm this. No other info on latter form, incl. blank for place "marriage was contracted." No witnesses named. [New Luxemburg apparently no longer exists. Not to be confused with Luxemburg, abt 75 mi N in Kewaunee Co. Ozaukee Co split off from Washington Co in 1853.]

Gerhard Wentink & Elizabeth Frey were sponsors at bpt. of Elisabeth Wentink, d. of his bro Johann Wilhelm Wentink & Anna Maria Wassman, 12 June 1858 (Baptismal Records of St.Mary's Ch. Port Washington).

1860 Census 1st Dist. Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, pg 725, line 28: Gerardus Wentink, 42, mason, real estate $1000, personal $400, born Holland; Catharina, 34, born Luxemburg; Margaretha, 10; Theodore, 9; Elizabeth, 6; Albert, 4; Anna Maria, 2; Marie, 8 mo. All children b. Wis & all but last 2 attended school within year. This was dwelling #193, family #160. [JMF's notes show these data on were on p 23, line 34.]

3 July 1865 he purchased 80 acre farm in Belgium Twp (W 1/2 of SE 1/4 of Sect 35) for $2000, subject to $600 mortgage. [Deed Vol 16, p 337] This was major turning point in his life, which prob explains why he wrote will 4 d later.

1870 Census, Belgium, Ozaukee Co, enum 9 June, p 255, dwelling 165, family 165: Wenting (sic), Gratus (sic), 52, farmer, real estate $4000, pers prop $600, b Holland; Catherine, 44, b Luxemburg; Margaret, 20; Theodore, 19; Elizabeth, 16; Albert,14; Anna, 12; Joseph, 8; Henry, 7; Charles, 5; Mary, 3; Susan, 8/12 (?), b "Sept" (1869); all children b WI. NB: Families 178-180 were D Dondelinger, 26; John Dondelinger, 25; & Dominik Dondelinger, 57.

He d at 55, leaving 5 minor children. Death in Aug suggests may have been farm accident.

In will dated 7 July 1865 Gerhard ("of the town of Belgium") bequeathed everything to his wife. Witnesses A.Heidkamp, J.B.Klopp, John Gengler. He owned E 1/2 of Lot 3 in Block 31, original plat of Port Washington & 80 acres 5-7 mi. north in Belgium: W 1/2 of SE Quarter of Sect 35, 12 Range 22 E in Ozaukee Co. Document dated 9 Sept 1873 listed heirs as w. Catherine; Theodore of Appleton, WI; Margaret Schmitt of Sandusky, WI; Elisabeth; Albert, 17; Anna, 15; Joseph, 12; Heinrich, 11; Carl, 9. A "Certificate of Descent" filed by Ozaukee Co. Judge J.E.Uselding 24 July 1914 confirms above date of d. and lists same heirs except Elisabeth (dead) & Heinrich now Henry. Note Elisabeth had reached majority; i.e., was 21 as of 9 Sept 1873. [Will Ozaukee Co. Probate A 563, file W); 2nd doc. A 567, File W.]

JMF investigated records of St.Mary's Ch., Port Washington, 4 Dec 1957. He found bpt. dates as shown in Family Group Record for all children from Albert (#4, b. 1856) on except Joseph (#7). The church opened in 1847, but extant records date from autumn, 1853, so the 3 eldest children (Margaretha, Theodore & Elizabeth could have been bpt. in this church. Their ages & birth order can be accurately determined by the 1860 Census record. The fact that Marie (b. 1859) & the 3 youngest (Mary, Frank & Susan, b. 1866-69) are not mentioned as heirs in 1873 suggests that all 4 d. before 1873.

The sexton of Old St. Mary's Cem. found record of burial of "G. Wentink" next to graves of Mathias & John B. Adam. Just behind & to left of Mathias Adam's grave is an eroded, broken tombstone. Only inscription legible (& just barely so) is just below broken edge: "7 August 1873." Since this date Gerhard died, this must be his tombstone. To rt. are 3 small, eroded tombstones ornamented w/ lambs inscribed "Maria Franz," "Maria (illeg)," & "(illeg) Susannah." These correspond w/ names of 3 of 4 children mentioned above thought to have d. bef 1873. To rear of these is less eroded tombstone, also w/ lamb, inscribed "Catherine Margaretha Maria." Sexton found no record of burial of Catherine Adam Wentink, but this would be logical place for her grave -- near her children, husband, parents & bro.

In June, 1990, JGF & RKF visited Gerhard's farm outside Belgium, WI, following JMF's directions from Port Washington: go N on N Wisconsin St; go R on 7 Hills Rd (Co Road LL) 3.6 mi; go R on another Co Road abt 1/2 mi, crossing I 43 on overpass; 1st farmhouse & huge red barn on L is Gerhard's farm. He built barn; house was built abt 75 yrs ago on site of older house. Country is lush, gently rolling, w/in sight of Lake Michigan. We talked briefly w/ then-owner, Jim Kerrels. He had told JMF in 1989 his father Milton's 1st cousin was Gene

WIFE Catharina Margaretha Maria ADAM-435 Yr of Birth 1825

Freimann, living in Milwaukee, who was then "quite ill w/ cancer."

WIFE - Catharina Margaretha Maria ADAM-435

The name was also frequently written as Catherine & Katherine. She was known to friends as Kate.

3 yrs aft husb's death, his 3 oldest children, who had reached majority, Theodor, Margaretha & Elisabeth, divested themselves of their shares in his real estate in indentures filed b/n 31 Mar & 1 May 1876, each receiving $500 from their mother. On 5 Aug Catharina, as admistratrix, auctioned off property at Ozaukee Co Courthouse. High bidder ($3800) was her bro-in-law Nicholaus Poull. On 14 Aug, he & wife Barbara sold it all back to Catharina for $4000. Over next 14 yrs remaining children divested themselves of their rights to the property, each doing this within 5 yrs of reaching majority. Ages of each child at time of actions given on each indenture. Elisabeth's shows she was 23 as of 1 May 1876. [Text & citation of documents on pp 7-8, Freymann/ Wentink/Adam notes.]

1880 Census of Belgium Ozaukee Co. lists household: Catherine Wentink, 54; Elizabeth, 25; Joseph, 18; Henry, 17; Charles, 15. (Father Gerhard had d. in 1873.)

Death: Records of St.Mary's Rectory state Catherine d. 18 March 1903, age 77. Ozaukee Co. d. rec. vol 3, p 1049 state that Katherine (Adam) Wentink, d. of John B. Adam & Margaret Adam, d. 16 March 1903 of bronchitis. Buried in Port Washington, but cemetery not named. JGF & RKF discovered grave after locating Gerhard Wentink's grave next to those of John Baptiste & Mathias Adam in front rank of Old St. Mary Cem. Single, small gravestone to rear of Gerhard's & 3 of their children who d young inscribed "Catherine Margaretha Maria." No dates. Sexton has no record of her grave but said burials still being made here in 1903.

John Joseph Freymann accompanied his father, Nicholas, to attend his grandmother's funeral. He was 13 1/2. He recalled meeting his mother's surviving siblings (Margaret, Theodore, Carl, Albert, Henry & Joseph) and that Carl, a bachelor, m. a lady he met at the funeral. (From letters held by JMF.) Cf. note on Carl (#439).

Documents filed in connection w. her estate in 1904 listed survivors: Theodore of Appleton, WI (w. Maggie); Albert of St.Paul (w. Emma M.); Maggie Schmitt of Sandusky, WI (h. Edward); Joe of Chicago; Henry of Chicago; Carl of Appleton; John J. Freymann, minor, son of Lizzie (deceased); and Rosie Hughes adult, Anastacia & Joe Hughes, minors, children of Annie (deceased).

CHILD 1 - Margaretha WENTINK-1189

In absence of b & bpt records cannot prove she & next 2 siblings (Theodore & Elizabeth) b in Port Washington, but all evidence points to Gerhard & Catharina Adam living there from time they wed in 1849. Note Ozaukee Co split off from Washington Co in 1853, so they were really b in Washington Co.

Indenture dated 18 Apr 1876 in which Eduard Schmidt & Margaretha his wife sold her share of her father's real estate to her mother gave Margaretha's age 26.

[cf Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes p 7]

She was named as survivor of her mother in 1904.

CHILD 2 - Theodore WENTINK II-1190

He was named after his grandfather, who apparently never came to America.

Indenture dated 31 Mar 1876 in which he sold his share of his father's real estate to his mother gave his age 25.

Theodore settled in Appleton, WI, where he m. Margaret Wirtz, d. of Frank Wirtz. They had 3 children. He ran a meat market, from which he retired in 1909. ["History of Outagamie Co" pp 756-7]

CHILD 3 - Elizabeth WENTINK-17

Censuses from 1860 to 1880 would place Elizabeth's birth about 1854/5. There is no record of her bpt. in St.Mary's church, Port Washington. However, all her younger siblings were bpt. here. Since records before late fall 1853 are lost, she was prob bpt there b/4 then. Best evidence are 2 legal documents described in father's note (#434). One showed she was at least 21 as of 7 Aug 1873; other that she was 23 as of 1 May 1876. These narrow her b date down to sometime b/n May & Aug 1852.

Census records 1860-70 (cf. Gerhard Wentink 434). 1880 Census, Belgium, Ozaukee Co. lists Elizabeth, 25, at home.

Name also commonly spelled Elisabeth. She & some other siblings may have Anglized their name to "Wenting."

Marriage (cf. Nicholas Freymann #16 for details of meeting, marriage & children).

Death: Plymouth Co. Death Record Book 1, pg 80: Lizzie Freiman, 38, domestic, d. 19 Oct 1891 in America Twp. "Cause of death Hemorrhage after childbirth; duration of disease about 2 hours." C.M.Hillebrand, M.D. [He was German, an 1868 graduate of U. of Berlin, who practiced in LeMars 1890-1914. Until early 1990s Aunt Ottillia Freymann lived in the house he built, the 2nd floor of which was his hospital.]

Elizabeth is buried in an unmarked grave beside Nicholas' 1st wife & the 3 infants the 2 mothers lost. The only marker on the plot when Freymann bros found her grave in 1989 was that of Johann, Nicholas' brother. In 1991 her daugh-in-law Marion Freymann & her 3 grandsons Gordon, Moye & Jarvis placed tombstone on her grave inscribed "Elizabeth Wentink Freymann, 1853-1891."

Photo of gravestone & tribute "Dear Lizzie, Did Anyone Really Know You?" written by JGF in 1992 in Wentink/Adam folder in Freymann file.

CHILD 4 - Albert G. WENTINK-436

Document filed in connection w/ mother's estate in 1904 named him & his wife Emma M. They lived in St Paul.

Birth: Ozaukee Co b. rec. vol 2 p 667.

Anna Maria m. Edward Hughes, farmer, b. Illinois s. of Anthony Hughes & Mary Dempsey, 16 July 1878 in Port Washington. Witnesses Wm. & Anna Hughes, George Poull, Elizabeth Wenting. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 1426]

Document filed in connection w/ mother's estate in 1904 name Rosie, Anastacia & Joe Hughes as children of Annie (deceased).

CHILD 6 - Marie WENTINK-1191

Ozaukee Co b. rec. vol 2 p 583 gives her name as Mary.

Cf. note Gerhard #434 for location of grave.

CHILD 7 - Joseph WENTINK-1192

Document filed in connection w/ mother's estate in 1904 named Joe of Chicago as heir.

CHILD 8 - Henry WENTINK-438

Henry, a farmer living in Port Washington, m. Barbara Meyeres, d. of Michael Meyeres & Catherine Neuhangen, 15 Feb 1887 in Port Washington. Witnesses Nicholar Pron(?), Nicholas Longe. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 6 p 789]

In document filed in connection w/ mother's estate in 1904 he was named as Henry of Chicago.

CHILD 9 - Carl George WENTINK-439

Carl, a butcher living in Appleton, m. Catharina Samport Rock, a widow b. in Port Washington, d. of Jacob Samport & Anna Straus, 21 April 1903 in Port Washington. Witnesses Frank Poulin, Jacob Carels. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 7 p 269] This was just 5 wks after they met at his mother's funeral!

CHILD 10 - Mary WENTINK-440

She was still alive in June 1870, when Census was taken. Cf. note Gerhard # 434 for location of grave.

CHILD 11 - Frank WENTINK-441

Presumed to have d b/c not mentioned in Census enumerated 9 June 1870 or among father's survivors in 1873. Gravestone next to father's (cf note #434) inscribed "Maria Franz" might possibly be his instead of a sister's.

CHILD 12 - Susannah WENTINK-442

She was still alive at time 1870 Census enumerated on 9 June. Cf. note on father Gerhard #434 for location of grave.

HUSBAND	Johann Wilhelm WENTINK-1202	Yr of Birth 1827
WIFE	Anna Maria WASSMANN-2164	Yr of Birth 1832

HUSBAND - Johann Wilhelm WENTINK-1202

Marriage: Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 201. Witnesses Albert & Gerard Wentink. Cf note on son Gerardus (#2165) indicating that Johann was prob m (or at least sired a son) in Holland b/r emigrating.

1860 Census 1st Dist. Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, pg 2, line 14 lists in Dwelling 13, Family 12: Johann William Wentink, 31, mason, born Holland; w. Anna Maria (Wassman, cf. below), 28, born Hesse, Darmstadt; Gerardus, 9, born Holland; Elisabeth, 2; Albert, 8 mo. Latter 2 born Wis. In Dwelling 14, Family 53 was Albert Wentink (cf. his notes).

Gerhard Wentink was a sponsor at bpt. of Elisabeth. This plus Gerhard & Albert witnessing Johann's wedding, plus the names Johann gave his 1st 2 boys, plus the proximity of the above 2 families (Gerhard was not far away in dwelling 193, Family 160) makes it almost certain that these 3 were brothers & therefore sons of Theodore & Gertrude Wentink.

1870 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, enum 9 Aug, p 573, dwelling 374, family 377: Wentink, N(?)W, 43, brickmason, real estate $800, pers prop $200, b Holland; Anna, 41, b Darmstadt; Elizabeth, 12, Albert, 10; George, 8; Amelia, 5; Margaret, 3; Anna, 1. All children "b Darmstadt," obviously incorrect.

Johann & Anna Maria's barely legible tombstones are adjacent to Albert & Margaret's at some distant from Gerhard's. Johann's b. date Mar (May?) 1827; d. date 18 Jan 18?? (Prob 1880 b/c he was not in 1880 Census, enum 9 Aug.) Anna Maria's b. date 18 (7?) July 18??; d. 8 Mar 1889.

Inscription gone from tall cast iron cross immed. rt. of Johann's; undoubtedly person bur. here related.

WIFE - Anna Maria WASSMANN-2164

1880 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, vol 21, ED 151, sheet 39, line 19: Wentink, Annie, 51; Elizabeth, 22; Albert W, 21; George, 18; Emelia, 15; Annie, 11; Bernard, 9.

Will (Ozaukee Co. Probate A 1303 file W-2) gives d. date. Husband not mentioned. Children: Elisabeth W, Albert W, George, Emelia (Emelie?) Barnuch, all of age, and Anna M(ary?) & Bern(h)ard, minors. No mention of Gerardus, who was listed in 1860 Census as age 9. (cf. his note #2165)

CHILD 1 - Gerardus WENTINK-2165

Birth date based on age in 1860 Census. Death presumed because he was not mentioned in Anna Maria Wentink's will in 1889.

Gerardus was 9 in 1860 and listed by census taker in order to suggest he was the oldest of 3 children. However, he was b. in Holland and was 6 at time of Johann & Anna Maria's marriage in 1857. Johann was old enough (22) to have had a son in 1851. Gerardus was either offspring of an earlier marriage in Holland, or perhaps was illegitimate. He was no longer in household in 1870 Census. He might have d b/4 1889, but either circumstance of his origin could explain why he was not mentioned among Anna Maria's children in her will.

HUSBAND Mathias ADAM-1195 Yr of Birth 1816
WIFE Elisabeth Ann FUERST-2185 Yr of Birth 1813

HUSBAND - Mathias ADAM-1195

B & d dates from tombstone.

Declaration of Intent #3665 in Milwaukee Historical Soc archives states Mathias Adam, b Holland 1816, arr NY Sept 1847, renounced allegiance to William, King of Holland 9 Oct 1847. (on Milwaukee Co form) Naturalization certs #2964, vol 6, p 83, Ozaukee Co District Court, & #3443, vol 8, p 181, Circuit Court (dates not copied) contain same info. Thus we can be pretty sure Mathias stayed behind in Luxembourg when rest of family emigrated, m & had 2 children b/4 he followed his father. He went directly from NY to Milwaukee & then on to Port Washington. Only 14 mo after his arrival in US he was prosperous enough to buy lot there. This was followed by number of other land purchases & sales (cf pp 6-7, Freymann/Wentink/Adam notes). In Dec 1852 he sold lot to "Derahard" Adam, prob his younger bro Bernard.

1850 Census, Port Washington, Washington Co, p 1, dwelling 4, family 4: Adams (sic), Mathias, 33, joiner, value real estate $400; Elizabeth, 35; Margaret, 6; Henry, 4; all b. Germany. Mathias & Margaret checked in column "Attended school within year." [Father John B Adam lived in dwelling 10.]

1860 Census 1st Dist Port Washington, p 22, Dwelling 183, Family 150 (next door to John B. Adam): Matthias Adam, 43, carpenter, b. Luxemburg; Elisabeth, 45, b. Luxemburg; Margaretha, 16; Heinrich, 13; John Baptiste, 7; (2 older children b. Luxemburg, John b. Wis).

1870 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, enum 6 Aug, p 560, dwelling 290, family 281: Adam, Mathias, 54, saloon keeper, real estate $7000, pers prop $1000; Elizabeth, 57; both b Luxemburg; John B, 16, b WI, in school.

In 1870 nominated for coroner of Ozaukee Co (Milw Sentinal, 1 Nov 1870, p 2, col 3). In 1876 elected assessor of County (ibid, 6 Apr 1876, p 5, col 2), but he d just 6 mo later..

Will (Ozaukee Co A 693, file A-B) dated 3 Dec 1854 bequeathed everything to wife Elisabeth. Witnesses Adolph Heidkamp, Frederick Knapple, Jahn J Cedinger. Proved 13 Nov 1876, signed by Elisabeth Adam, her mark.

WIFE - Elisabeth Ann FUERST-2185

Elisabeth signed with her mark when Mathias' will was proved. [Ozaukee Co Probate A 693 file A-B]

1880 Census lists her, age 64, in household of son John B Adam [cf his note 2188]. Birth & death dates from tombstone.

CHILD 1 - Margaretha ADAM-2186

B date est from 1860 Census.

Margaretha m. John Fox 5 Sept 1866 in Port Washington. Witnesses Mathias Adam, Heinrich Fox. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 140]

CHILD 2 - Heinrich ADAM-2187

HUSBAND Mathias ADAM-1195 Yr of Birth 1816
WIFE Elisabeth Ann FUERST-2185 Yr of Birth 1813

B date & place from 1860 Census

CHILD 3 - John Baptiste ADAM II-2188

John, a saloonkeeper in Port Washington, m. Mary Herbst, d. of Peter Herbst & Caroline Begel, b. in Fillmore, WI, 30 May 1876 in Port Washington. Witnesses John Herbst, Christine Wittman. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 1187] He was prob working in his father's saloon (1870 Census said Mathias was saloon keeper) & may have inherited it when Mathias d. in Oct aft the weddding.

1880 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, vol 21, ED 151, sheet 51, line 22: Adams (sic), John B, 25; Marie, wife, 23; Mathias, son, 2; all b WI; Elizabeth Adams, 64, mother, b Luxemburg.

John & Mary lost unnamed twins b. 3 Feb 1885 [Ozaukee Co b. rec. vol 7 p 941] & another unnamed child b. 17 Dec 1887 [Ozaukee Co b. rec. vol 7 p 1426]. There may have been other children; e.g., was Katie Adam, who d. in Port Washington 3 July 1970 at age 92 (therefore b. about 1878) a daughter? Ozaukee Co d. rec. vol 29 p 160 does not give her parents, but this birthdate is reasonably consistent with known ones of John & Mary's other children. In fact, if Mathias F's est b yr is correct, she may have been his twin.

D date est from son Henry J's obit in Port Washington Herald, 25 Oct 1939, which states his father d "31 yrs ago."

HUSBAND Nicholas POULL-468 Yr of Birth 1830
WIFE Barbara ADAM-469 Yr of Birth 1833

HUSBAND - Nicholas POULL-468

1860 Census 1st Dist Port Washington, pg 17, ln 37; Dwelling 147, Family 117: Nicholaus Poull, 30, tavern keeper, b. Luxemburg; Barbara Poull [nee Adam, JGF], 27, b. Luxemburg; Jacob, 7; Nicholaus, 5; (both b. Illinois) John, 3; George, 1 (both b. Wis.). Family 118 was that of Nicholaus & Suzannah Kemp, both 31, both b. Luxemburg, & 3 children, John Peter, Elisabetha & Maria.

WIFE - Barbara ADAM-469

CHILD 1 - Jacob POULL-963

NOTE: B & d dates of all children from family tree prepared by Robt Kemp Poull & added to be Dr Joseph N. Gehlen & Louise E. Poull, now in JMF files.

CHILD 2 - Nicholaus POULL-959

He m Eliz Kemp. Children: Mary Barbara, Mathilde Susan, Leona Katherine, Robert Kemp (author of family tree).

CHILD 5 - Mary POULL-5782

D year uncertain. She prob d b/4 sis Mary b in 1865.

CHILD 7 - Mary POULL-466

Mary Poull was Elizabeth Wenting's first cousin; i.e., John J Freymann's ← NB 1st cousin, once removed. Her husb Nicholas Gehlen was son of Peter Gehlen & M. Catherine Freymann; i.e., JJF's 1st cousin, once removed thru his father's side. This is good example of how inter-related these Luxembourgers were after 3 generations!

CHILD 8 - Rose POULL-4542

She m John A. Hoffman (1869-1963). Children (per JMF): John A. Jr, Paula R, Edith. Next to Rose & John's gravestones are 2 of their children's: John A Hoffman, Jr, 1912-1970; Ruth A Hoffman, 1917- (still living in 1989). Could latter be "Paula R?"

Aunt Ottellia Freymann wrote JMF in 1989: "...when your father [JJF] came to LeMars, he always paid a visit to Mrs. John Hoffman who was a cousin of Elizabeth [Wentink's]."

CHILD 9 - Julia POULL-4541

She m Ferdinand Reichman. Children: Ruth, F.J., Alfred, Rosemary, Julia, David J.

Hospitals. On 25 Feb 1958 she sent John Joseph Freymann a letter saying her mother & her mother's sis Catherine Adam Wentink were very close & that Lizzie Wentink (who was Louise's 1st cousin & John's mother) used to stay w. her family on visits. She also sent a genealogical chart that is lost but was the source of the information about the Adam family emigrating from Bissen, Luxembourg & names of 5 of their 6 children. (Chart originally prepared for Paula Hoffman (Mrs. Don O. Hansen, Mercer Is., Wash.)

WIFE	Catherine DELAHAMET-2967	Yr of Birth 1841

HUSBAND - Peter COLLING-2966

Original name: Pierre Collin (Belgian passport owned by Ottellia Freymann)

WIFE - Catherine DELAHAMET-2967

CHILD 1 - Anna COLLING-451

Anna was the sister of Nicholas Freymann's 3rd wife, Susan Colling.

CHILD 2 - Susan COLLING-452

Susan was the daughter of Peter Colling, who owned the next farm to Nicholas Freymann's. (She was also kin, since her sister Anna was married to Nicholas' half-brother, Nicholas D. Kellen.) Left with three little boys after the death of his 1st two wives, Nicholas asked her to care for the boys and then married her a year & a half later. She was the only mother John Joseph Freymann ever knew.

Aunt Ottillia Freymann has passports issued to Pierre Collin (Peter Colling) & his wife Catherine Delahamet by the Kingdom of Belgium. Both were born in Belgian Province of Luxembourg, he on 30 Oct 1829; she on 16 Aug 1841. They were married in Tintagen, Belgium in 1864. In addition to Anna & Susan they had 2 other daughs, Kathryn & Christina, who never married. When the Freymann boys were taken to LeMars to visit family, their parents always stopped in Sioux City to see Aunt Kathryn & Aunt Tina.

CHILD 3 - Kathryn COLLING-2968

She never m. Lived w/ sis. in Sioux City. When Freymann bros. were children, a stop to see "Aunt Kathryn & Aunt Tina" was standard whenever their parents took them to LeMars.

CHILD 4 - Christina COLLING-2969

"Aunt Tina" was a nurse anesthetist. She worked with surgeons from Sioux City in the early days when they went out into the country to operate in farm houses.

HUSBAND Nicholas FREYMANN-16 Yr of Birth 1854
WIFE Margaret KLEITSCH-415 Yr of Birth 1863

HUSBAND - Nicholas FREYMANN-16

Nicholas never knew his f., who d. when N. was 5 wks old. His mother m. Nick Kellen when N. was 5. We know by the 1860 & 1870 Censuses that he lived w. his family until he was at least 16; furthermore that his schooling continued until he was at least 16 (undoubtedly at a Catholic school in St.Donatus). According to "History of Woodbury & Plymouth Counties" pg. 965, he stayed on that farm until 22, then worked as a day laborer in St.Paul for a year. In 1877 he went to LeMars to work in his uncle Peter Gehlen's mill and became a member of that household. (In 1880 Census Plymouth Co, pg 106, Dwelling 198, Family 198 is that of the widowed "Mary C. Gehlen." Nicholas Freyman, 26, is listed as "servant.") In 1880 he bought a 220 acre farm in America Twp & moved there in 1883. [Farm is on S side of County K49 at intersection w/ 7th Ave SE, 2 mi S of LeMars. Site of house now posh estate, "Crownland Acres." Orig. house moved 2 1/4 mi E on left side of K49 opp. 2 blue silos, owned (1990) by Brewer. Identical house on next farm S of Nick's was built by Nemmers (which one?) & served as model for Nick's.]

Marriage #1: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Margaretha Kleitsch of St. Donatus, daughter of Joannes Kleitsch & Catherina Nemmers, 10 April 1883. (There was a close family connection. Nicholas' aunt Mary was m. to Catherina's brother Nicholas.) Witnesses Nicholaus Gehlen & Margaretha Hoffmann. Their 1st child, Charles, b. 30 Nov 1883. 2nd child (bpt. John but listed in burial records of same church as Peter) was b. 9 Aug 1884 & lived 1 day. Peter Nemmers & Maria Cath. Schmits were sponsors. Margaretha d. 15 Dec 1884, age 21, of "lung fever." (According to Plymouth Co. records she was "paralyzed" for 10 mos. before death.)

Marriage #2: Marriage register St. Mary's Church, Port Washington, & Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 6 p 792 show Nicholas Freimann, farmer, m. Lizzie Wentink 27 Sept 1887. Witnesses Charles Wentink & Melchior Kemp. [She was about 35 & had never been married, having still been "at home" in the 1880 Census. She probably met Nicholas thru his relatives living near her home. A section map of Belgium, WI shows 3 Dondelinger farms and a "J.Freiman" farm bounding or close to Gerhard Wentink's. Within 3 mi. are 2 graveyards, 1 full of Dondelingers & 1 of Freymanns. (See JMF notes on Belgium, WI for names.) JMF suspects that the Luxemburger families around St. Donatus, Port Washington & LeMars maintained regular contact for at least 1 or 2 generations.] Their 1st child, Joseph, d. at birth 8 Aug 1888. John Joseph was b. 13 Dec 1889. 3rd child, Joseph Nicholas b. 19 Oct 1891. Lizzie d. that day of post-partum hemorrhage. The baby d. 4 months later.

Marriage #3: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Susannah Colling, d. of Peter Colling & Catherina Delahamet 13 June 1893. The Colling farm was within sight of Nicholas', & Susan had helped care for his 3 small sons after Lizzie died. She was also kin, since her s. Anna was m. to Nicholas D. Kellen, Nicholas' half bro. Susan bore him 3 more children, Albert, Vincent & Armella. He left the farm in 1893 & moved to a house across the tracks from the grain elevator in Oyens, Iowa, which he managed until he retired in 1915. He & Susan then moved to farm near Iona, MN, for brief time b/4 moving back to LeMars early in 1916. He d. there in 1920 of "cancer of the liver."

WIFE - Margaret KLEITSCH-415

Margaret Kleitsch, Nicholas Freymann's 1st wife, was the daughter of Catherine Nemmers, whose bro was m. to Nicholas' aunt, Maria Freymann.

B date est from d at age 21 yr, 1 mo.

She d. of "lung fever" at age 21, 4 mo after birth of her 2nd child, who lived 1 d. Plymouth Co. death cert. states she was "paralyzed" for 10 mo. before death. That would have been around end of her 1st trimester of pregnancy. Possible explanation is that she contracted polio.

CHILD 1 - Charles Mathias FREYMANN-416

Charles lived all his life in LeMars area. He spent yr at Notre Dame & then returned to Oyens to try his hand at banking. He then took up farming on his father's farm but failed at this. He finally got job as postman & did this for rest of his life.

Charles' middle name raises possibility he was named for Elisabeth Wentink's Uncle Mathias. Doubt this b/c Nicholas presumably did not meet Elisabeth until shortly b/4 he m. her in 1887. However, if Charles really was named after Mathias Wentink (how will we ever know?), it would indicate much closer links b/n Iowa & Wisconsin Luxembourger families than we know about now.

JGF has clear memory of Uncle Charlie & Aunt Clara during summer he & his little bros stayed in LeMars (prob 1929). Their home was across street from large park. JGF was 7 & worshiped his 14 yr old Cousin Carl, who kindly tolerated the little boy playing w/ him.

CHILD 2 - John Peter FREYMANN-254

This, the 1st John in Nicholas' family, d. at birth; i.e., Aug 8, 1884. However, St Joseph's Bpt Record 1A, p 21, gives date of his bpt Aug 9. Date of burial from St Joseph's Record of Interments.

WIFE	Elizabeth WENTINK-17	Yr of Birth 1852

HUSBAND - Nicholas FREYMANN-16

Nicholas never knew his f., who d. when N. was 5 wks old. His mother m. Nick Kellen when N. was 5. We know by the 1860 & 1870 Censuses that he lived w. his family until he was at least 16; furthermore that his schooling continued until he was at least 16 (undoubtedly at a Catholic school in St.Donatus). According to "History of Woodbury & Plymouth Counties" pg. 965, he stayed on that farm until 22, then worked as a day laborer in St.Paul for a year. In 1877 he went to LeMars to work in his uncle Peter Gehlen's mill and became a member of that household. (In 1880 Census Plymouth Co, pg 106, Dwelling 198, Family 198 is that of the widowed "Mary C. Gehlen." Nicholas Freyman, 26, is listed as "servant.") In 1880 he bought a 220 acre farm in America Twp & moved there in 1883. [Farm is on S side of County K49 at intersection w/ 7th Ave SE, 2 mi S of LeMars. Site of house now posh estate, "Crownland Acres." Orig. house moved 2 1/4 mi E on left side of K49 opp. 2 blue silos, owned (1990) by Brewer. Identical house on next farm S of Nick's was built by Nemmers (which one?) & served as model for Nick's.]

Marriage #1: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Margaretha Kleitsch of St. Donatus, daughter of Joannes Kleitsch & Catherina Nemmers, 10 April 1883. (There was a close family connection. Nicholas' aunt Mary was m. to Catherina's brother Nicholas.) Witnesses Nicholaus Gehlen & Margaretha Hoffmann. Their 1st child, Charles, b. 30 Nov 1883. 2nd child (bpt. John but listed in burial records of same church as Peter) was b. 9 Aug 1884 & lived 1 day. Peter Nemmers & Maria Cath. Schmits were sponsors. Margaretha d. 15 Dec 1884, age 21, of "lung fever." (According to Plymouth Co. records she was "paralyzed" for 10 mos. before death.)

Marriage #2: Marriage register St. Mary's Church, Port Washington, & Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 6 p 792 show Nicholas Freimann, farmer, m. Lizzie Wentink 27 Sept 1887. Witnesses Charles Wentink & Melchior Kemp. She was about 35 & had never been married, having still been "at home" in the 1880 Census. She probably met Nicholas thru his relatives living near her home. A section map of Belgium, WI (date?) shows farms of Dominik Dondelinger (2268) & John Dondelinger (2265), son of Dominik's bro Nicolaus (2263), adjoining Gerhard Wentink's. Houses prob abt 3/4 mi apart. Abt 3 1/2 mi away was farm of John B. Freymann (2238) & his son John (3232). [Cf Ozaukee Co Freymann/Dondelinger file. Relation b/n these people & Nicholas' parents not estalished, but they must have been kin. Quite likely Luxembourger families around St. Donatus, Port Washington & LeMars maintained regular contact for at least 1 or 2 generations.]

Their 1st child, Joseph, d. at birth 8 Aug 1888. John Joseph was b. 13 Dec 1889. 3rd child, Joseph Nicholas b. 19 Oct 1891. Lizzie d. that day of post-partum hemorrhage. The baby d. 4 months later.

Marriage #3: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Susannah Colling, d. of Peter Colling & Catherina Delahamet 13 June 1893. The Colling farm was within sight of Nicholas', & Susan had helped care for his 3 small sons after Lizzie died. She was also kin, since her s. Anna was m. to Nicholas D. Kellen, Nicholas' half bro. Susan bore him 3 more children, Albert, Vincent & Armella. He left the farm in 1893 & moved to a house across the tracks from the grain elevator in Oyens, Iowa, which he managed until he retired in 1915. He & Susan then moved to farm near Iona, MN, for brief time b/4 moving back to LeMars early in 1916. He d. there in 1920 of "cancer of the liver."

WIFE - Elizabeth WENTINK-17

Censuses from 1860 to 1880 would place Elizabeth's birth about 1854/5. There is no record of her bpt. in St.Mary's church, Port Washington. However, all her younger siblings were bpt. here. Since records before late fall 1853 are lost, she was prob bpt there b/4 then. Best evidence are 2 legal documents described in father's note (#434). One showed she was at least 21 as of 7 Aug 1873; other that she was 23 as of 1 May 1876. These narrow her b date down to sometime b/n May & Aug 1852.

Census records 1860-70 (cf. Gerhard Wentink 434). 1880 Census, Belgium, Ozaukee Co. lists Elizabeth, 25, at home.

Name also commonly spelled Elisabeth. She & some other siblings may have Anglized their name to "Wenting."

Marriage (cf. Nicholas Freymann #16 for details of meeting, marriage & children).

Death: Plymouth Co. Death Record Book 1, pg 80: Lizzie Freiman, 38, domestic, d. 19 Oct 1891 in America Twp. "Cause of death Hemorrhage after childbirth; duration of disease about 2 hours." C.M.Hillebrand, M.D. [He was German, an 1868 graduate of U. of Berlin, who practiced in LeMars 1890-1914. Until early 1990s Aunt Ottillia Freymann lived in the house he built, the 2nd floor of which was his hospital.]

Elizabeth is buried in an unmarked grave beside Nicholas' 1st wife & the 3 infants the 2 mothers lost. The only marker on the plot when Freymann bros found her grave in 1989 was that of Johann, Nicholas' brother. In 1991 her daugh-in-law Marion Freymann & her 3 grandsons Gordon, Moye & Jarvis placed tombstone on her grave inscribed "Elizabeth Wentink Freymann, 1853-1891."

Photo of gravestone & tribute "Dear Lizzie, Did Anyone Really Know You?" written by JGF in 1992 in Wentink/Adam folder in Freymann file.

CHILD 2 - John Joseph FREYMANN M.D.-7

Birth: Plymouth Co. Birth & Death Records, Book 1, pg 172, entry 2148: John Joseph Freyman; father Nicholas, German, b. Jackson Co, farmer; mother Lissie (Wentink) b. Wis. J.W.Hines, M.D., LeMars. (Dr. Hines was an 1861 graduate of U. of Virginia. Initially surgeon of Stonewall Jackson's Brigade, he was chief purveyor of the Army of Northern Virginia when Lee surrendered at Appomatox. He arr. in LeMars in 1880. Source: "History of Plymouth Co, Iowa" Vol 1, pg 339.)

Baptism: St.Joseph's Church, LeMars, Book 2, pg 105: 14 Dec 1889; Josepham Joannem Freiman. Godparents Jacobus Dunlinger (great uncle, bro of grand mother Maria Dondelinger) & Maria Poull (Eliz. Wentink's cousin, who later m Nicholas Gehlen).

For complete biography see "John J. Freymann, 1889-1964" by Jarvis M. Freymann, Eilert Printing Co, NY, 1967. Copies in JGF library & extra copies in storeroom at 2 Catalpa Court, Avon, CT. Following is brief summary:

He was raised in household where Luxembourger was spoken & attended German language elementary school. Thus he was fluent in both languages as well as English, which was still his mother tongue. He graduated w/ gold medal for excellence from St Catherine's School in Oyens in 1905 & went off to Campion, a Jesuit school for boys in Prairie du Chien, WI. He went thru prep school & college there, graduating w/ BA, magna cum laude, in June 1911.

He returned to Campion as instructor in math in 1911-12, working at same time toward MA in sociology (his thesis was "The Housing Problem"), which he received from Marquette U in 1913. He went to Gonzaga College in Spokane in fall of 1912 as instructor in German, typing & shorthand. (The former was easy; the latter required him to stay one lesson ahead of his students). At a Halloween dance in Oct he met Marion Wicks. Visiting his cousin Joe Gehlen, who had moved from LeMars to Ellensburg, WA, John confided he had fallen in love w/ her.

His appt at Gonzaga ended in 1913 & John, now 23, cast about for new teaching position. He looked into one at Creighton U in Omaha, met some Campion friends who were students there, &, more or less on the spur of the moment, enrolled in the School of Medicine. (Marion would tell her sons yrs later the only other reckless thing he ever did was marry her.) Four yrs later, in April 1917, the US entered WW I, Creighton gave John his M.D. 2 mo early, & he was ordered to Mare Island, CA, as a newly commissioned Lt (j.g.) in the Navy Medical Corps.

John served as medical officer on destroyer "Caldwell" from Nov 1917 to Sept 1918. On way from Mare Island to its base in Ireland, his ship stopped in Portsmouth, VA, in Jan-Feb 1918. For 1st time since he left Spokane in 1913 he had chance to see Marion again. They had been engaged since June 1917! (The only explanation Marion ever gave for this was "we corresponded regularly.") She was in the Navy too, a Chief Yoeman in Naval Intelligence stationed in Philadelphia (cf her note #8). After this brief reunion, his ship sailed for convoy duty off Ireland, & John was aboard until shortly b/4 the war ended.

In Sept 1918 he was assigned to US Naval base at Queenstown (now Cobh), Ireland, & served there until Feb 1919, thru worst part of influenza pandemic that swept the world, killing millions. Then he was posted to former German liner "Prinz Frederick Wilhelm" that was bringing American troops home. This gave him chance to see Marion again, & after his 2nd voyage they were m. in Church of the Jesu, Philadelphia, on 31 May 1919. He made several more voyages on "The Prinz," then in July was sent w/ his bride to Great Lakes Naval Training Station near Chicago. At that time he intended to stay in regular Navy & held a USN commission, but illnesses of his father & bro Vincent in LeMars led him to reconsider. Instead of duty at USN Hospital, Yokahoma, for which he had applied, it would be better to practice in Omaha, where he could be near his family. He therefore resigned his regular Navy commission in Nov 1919. Yet he loved the Navy too much to leave it. He took a commission in the Naval Reserve.

John & Marion arrived in Omaha in Nov 1919. He became junior partner to Dr E.C.Henry, a distinguished physician whom he had known at Creighton, but John found this gave little opportunity for professional growth. Then their world collapsed: their 1st child, Moxley Sorrel, d. in June 1921 at age 6 mo. A week later, altho they were flat broke, John left Dr Henry &, w/ loan from a banker in LeMars & faith in what he called for 1st time (but, I can say 75 yrs later, not the last!) the "Freymann Star," he went into solo private practice.

The next 19 yrs were devoted to building a thriving practice, teaching at Creighton Medical College, weekly drills w/ 43rd Fleet Division, USNR (John had never lost his love of the Navy & gradually moved up to rank of Lt. Cmdr., MC, USNR), & enjoying his family. In 1923 they had moved to a modest house at 3222 Pacific St where his 3 sons grew up. In 1937 they moved to a spacious house at 321 S 53rd St where, for 1st time, his family could experience some sense of gracious living. He was able to take his family on summer trips, usually in conjunction w/ his annual Naval Reserve cruises: Chicago World's Fair in 1933-4, Washington in 1935, down the West Coast from Seattle to LA in 1936, etc. By 1939, when John was 50, he was reaching his most productive & rewarding yrs, the peak of his career. Then, on 3 Sept, while on the way to a Campion reunion w/ his family, they heard Britain declare war on Germany. WW II had begun.

In Sept 1940 John returned to active duty in the Navy. Initially this was restricted to the Recruiting Station in Omaha, but by Aug 1943 he was Medical Inspector of the 7th Service Command, a 9 state area, & had been promoted to Captain. In Aug 1944, his youngest son Jarvis having entered college, he closed what was left of his medical practice, sold the lovely home on 53rd St, took Marion off to a rented flat in Northampton, MA, & became medical officer of the WAVE Officer Training School at Smith College. In Dec, Marion set up her home at the St George Hotel in Brooklyn while John served at the Brooklyn Naval Hospital. In April 1945 John got what he wanted, command of a mobile Naval hospital training at Lido Beach, Long Island, for the invasion of Okinawa &, ultimately, Japan. Leaving Marion behind at the St George in June, John led his unit ("Cub 17") to California & then on a slow transport across the Pacific to Okinawa, where they landed 12 Aug. On 15 Aug Japan surrendered. There being no need for Cub 17 now, all its equipment was dumped into the Pacific, & in Dec John was given command of Military Govt Hospital #202 on Saipan. Its mission was caring for civilian population of this devastated, former Japanese island. In March 1946 he was ordered back to NYC & used his terminal leave to take refresher courses there in gynecology. In June he & Marion returned to Omaha. He had been on active duty for nearly 6 yrs. He had no practice, & the only housing they could find was two rooms in a 2nd rate hotel. They were back to where they had been when they arrived in Omaha for the 1st time 27 yrs before, only this time he was 56 yrs old.

Marion Alvord (who had been w/ him since 1928), altho working for another doctor, had maintained contact w/ his equally loyal patients. His practice was soon humming again, & the housing problem was solved by buying a small house on Mayberry St. By 1952 they were able to fulfill a lifelong dream by spending the summer in Europe. They repeated this in 1955, interspersing these long trips w/ visits to the growing families of sons Gordon & Jarvis on the East Coast. In 1958 flew to India to see Moye & his family & then on around the world. In 1960 they toured Central America & in 1961 cruised the Mediterranean before returning to India for Xmas with Moye's family. Between trips he eagerly returned to his office, kept up his teaching & medical reading, & also became quite adept at playing the stock market.

He was still enjoying life to the full when, in Feb 1964, he had his 1st heart attack. He recovered from this but succumbed to another on 30 Mar. He was 74 yrs, 3 mo, 17 d old. He was buried at Arlington National Cemetery w/ the full military honors due a Navy Captain.

For yrs John clipped items he liked & pasted them in notebooks. The last one he saved before he died ended with this passage: "You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt -- as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear -- as young as your hope, as old as your despair."

That epitomizes John Freymann.

CHILD 3 - Joseph Nicholas FREYMANN-1206

Plymouth Co death records & LeMars Sentinel (JMF has citations) gave d date 12 Feb & burial 13 Feb. St Joseph's Church record of deaths & burials gave d date 13 Feb, burial date 15 Feb.

According to the LeMars Sentinel, Joseph d. of "congestion of the lungs."

Joseph Nicholas' godparents were Nicholas & Maria Kellen, his father's mother & stepfather.

John Joseph Freymann never knew he had a little brother who d. at 4 mos & an older one who d. at birth. JJF always thought he was Elizabeth's only child.

farm in his neighborhood. In June, 1857, he started for America, going, upon his arrival, to Lee county, Ill., where he was employed as a farm hand until 1862. He then enlisted in Company C, Fourteenth Illinois volunteers, and served three years, when he received his discharge and returned to Lee county. In a short time, however, he removed to Jones county, Iowa, where he resided until 1870, when he bought eighty acres of land in section thirty-two, Grant township, Plymouth county, where he has since carried on general farming. He now owns 240 acres in that vicinity. Mr. Pecks married Annie Madde, in 1866, and they are the parents of eight children: Matilda, Minnie, Henry, Frederick, Bennett, Herd, Annie and William. In politics he is a democrat, and is a member of the German Lutheran church.

Lyman Williams Sibley, farmer, Le Mars P. O., is a grandson of Nathan and Rachel (Studley) Sibley, of Massachusetts. His earliest known ancestor was an Englishman, who came to Massachusetts in 1628. Isaac, son of Nathan Sibley, married Mary Burbank, like himself, a native of Massachusetts, and settled in Cuba, Allegany county, N. Y., where was born to them, May 21, 1825, the subject of this sketch. Of their eight children, six of whom grew to maturity, he is the seventh. He was educated in the common schools, and has always engaged in farming. He is possessed of an independent, reflective mind, and makes a progressive citizen.

In 1845 he married Mary Hammond, a native of Rushford, Allegany county, N. Y., and daughter of John and Eliza (Butterfield) Hammond, born in New York and Massachusetts, respectively. Mrs. Sibley's grandparents, Luthan and Mary (Rood) Hammond, were also natives of New York. Mr. Sibley engaged in farming in Cuba till 1864, when he removed to Franklin, Story county, this state, and came thence to America, Plymouth county, in 1872. Here he purchased 240 acres in section thirty-five, and thereon carries on general farming. While enjoying the fruits of a life of industry, he is surrounded by the following children: Floyd B.; Stanton; Ada Rosalia (Mrs. George W. McLain), Le Mars; Clarence Hammond; Evangeline, a teacher, at home; Ruth Elizabeth (wife of Carey G. Williams, America) and Samuel Edward, at home. Politically Mr. Sibley is an independent republican, and religiously a free thinker. He has served as school director and township trustee.

Charles Burns, farmer, P. O. Le Mars, was born in Conarragh, county Wicklow, Ireland, May 29, 1832, a son of Harry and Ann (O'Neal) Burns. His grandfather was Thomas Burns, also of county Wicklow. In 1841 he emigrated with his parents to Canada, shortly after to Ohio, and later to Pennsylvania, where his father died. Of eleven children, Charles was the oldest. He received a very limited education, never attending school in this country. He has been engaged quite extensively in railroad building; helped lay the tracks from Pittsburgh to Steubenville; was section foreman for two years, and traveled as such, south, building levees and ditching. He was afterward employed as a farm laborer in Illinois. In 1867 he took up a homestead in section thirty-two, America township, where he now lives. He has added 100 acres to his domain, and follows general farming. Mr. Burns was married in 1865 to Ann Toole, a native of the same place as himself. Their first-born child, Maggie, died at the age of twenty-one, and the fifth, Mary, when two years old; the living are William, Lizzie, James, Charles and Mary. Mr. Burns is a member of St. James Roman Catholic church, Le Mars, and has always been a democrat.

John Becker, farmer, P. O. Le Mars, is the eldest of ten children born to Casper and Elizabeth Becker, and was born April 7, 1849, in Clayton county, Iowa. He attended school until twelve years old, then assisted his father on the farm until sixteen, when he finished his education by taking four terms at the Briggs academy at Garnavillo, Clayton county. He remained in Clayton county until the spring of 1874, when he removed to Plymouth county, buying 320 acres of land in section twenty-five, on which he has carried on general farming ever since. January 21, 1878, Mr. Becker married Amelia, daughter of Henry and Clara Niemyer, of Guttenburg, by whom he has five children: Clara, John, Elizabeth, Henry and Emily. In politics he is a democrat, being elected by that party as a member of the board of county commissioners. In religion he is a member of the Roman Catholic church.

Nicholas Freymann, farmer, P. O. Le Mars, was born, February 22, 1854, in Jackson county, Iowa, and is the youngest of six children born to Charles and Mary Freymann, of Luxemburg, Germany. He attended school until fourteen years of age, and worked on the farm for his father until twenty-two years old, when he went to St. Paul, and was engaged as a day laborer until the fall of 1877. He then came to Le Mars, where he was engaged in the City Rolling mills until 1883, when he built on his farm of 220 acres, in section thirty-four, America township, which farm he had bought in 1880, and has lived there since, engaged in farming and stock-raising. He has since added forty acres to the original farm. March 10, 1888, he married Maggie Kleitsch, of Linn county, Iowa, and by her has one child, Charlie. His first wife having died December 15, 1884, September 27, 1887, he married Lizzie, daughter of Garhart and Kate Wentink, of Port Washington, Wis., and one child, Johnnie, has blessed their union. In politics Mr. Freymann is a democrat; he is a member of the Roman Catholic church.

Herbert E. Rounds, miller, Hinton, is a son of Harley and Elizabeth Rounds, of New York state, and was born at Eureka, Winnebago county, Wis., June 27, 1868. He attended school at the latter place until twelve years old, when his parents moved to Clear Lake, Iowa, where they remained

Dear Mr Freymann:

We rec'd your letter with the two checks enclosed. Thank You very much. You will find the January Newsletter enclosed and also your membership card. The check for $10.00 more than covers the charges, thank you.

We look forward to having the book about your Father's life, as part of our library and again Thanks!

I am also enclosing the photo copies from the old newspapers. Sorry to say that there really isn't much information in the articles. I am not sending a photo copy of one of the papers because the printing is so poor that it would not photo copy. It was the birth of a male Freyman--LeMars Sentinel 3 Oct 1890 p 3 col 1.

(Special Correspondence.)

The first quarterly meeting in this conference year, will convene at the Salem church from May 13 to 15th. Rev. L. Wilde is expected to be here and conduct the meetings. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Lydia Brylan, of Sioux City, spent several days of last week visiting with Miss Anna Koenig, of Churchville.

The Young People's Alliance held its semi-annual election of officers on Sunday last, with results as follows: Pres., Rev. J. H. Rubentaed; vice pres., Miss Tilda Koenig; sec., George Pfoner; corresponding sec., Etta Kortemeyer; treas., Henry Kortemeyer; organist, Anna Koenig; librarians, Fred Kopt and Christian Koenig.

Will Koenig and sister Minnie, of Le Mars spent Sunday at their home here.

MERRY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Mr W. H. Harris has gone to his home in Wisconsin after a lengthy visit here.

Baker Bros. have put in a drive well for Mr. A. T. Eckenbeck on the Post property. Plenty of water is reported.

Hon. M. C. Mills is not doing well of late at Spring Center, Minn. He had one of his worst [illegible] attacks last week. His many friends will be sorry to hear of this unfavorable report.

The merchants here have some leisure since the farmers have been busy plating the soil.

G. W. Eckenbeck, of Redding, Cal. gave his brother, A. T., a short call as he was passing on his travels, looking after his interests in among the glittering gold.

We hear the hollow tread of the pedestrian on Henry's new sidewalks.

A broken hearted lady who intended to take the train at LeMars for Remsen stepped from the train to return to LeMars where she will take the proper train. The conductor must have made a mistake in reading her ticket and she entered the car.

There were no Sunday school or church services Sunday in the morning or evening. The church was warmed and lighted in the evening, but the mud and threatening rain prevented a turnout.

M. M. Kennedy, [illegible] Kolck and A. T. Eckenbeck have purchased a full blood English [illegible] of the Percheron [illegible] from the finest [illegible] Pennsylvania.

JOSEPH H. O'NEILL.

Mr. O'Neill is just turned into his fortieth year. Originally from Fall River, he located in South Boston and plunged actively into politics. He has always had to fight for success, but has always succeeded. As there are in South Boston a number of bright young men like himself, ambitious for a public career, the fact that Joseph O'Neill has always succeeded speaks for itself of him as an adroit politician. By profession he is a lawyer, but politics takes up his time, and he practices but seldom. His public career began in 1875 as a member of the Boston school committee. From 1878 to 1884 he was in the Massachusetts house of representatives. He was city clerk of Boston for two years and was then sent to the Fifty-first congress to begin his promising national career.

To Mr. O'Neill will be committed in the coming congress the planning of the annual pension appropriation bill and the lead of the Democratic party in the fight over the pension question. Imagine a vigorous man about 5 feet 9, clear cut from the ground up, broad shoulders, deep chest, big bones—as compactly put up as a strong shoulder hitter. His hair is coarse, dark colored, with a faint suggestion of reddishness. His face is smooth shaven; features clearly defined. His mouth is large, but it is his nose that would distinguish him anywhere.

It is large, long and points straight out into the air—not a curiously inquisitive nose, but one that pokes itself into anything it thinks it has a right to know about and measures things by the cold, hard facts of its discoveries unbiased by sentimental considerations such as usually weigh strongly with an Irishman. He does not speak often in the house, and when he does drives squarely at the matter under discussion in a sharp, rather harsh voice set off by no gestures save a straight propulsion of the right arm. He is a fine stump speaker. Though a young man, he is not of the Quincy wing of the Massachusetts Democracy. He was not a Cleveland man, and in the last speakership contest was not a Mills man but

A Boat Club.

LeMars Sentinel - 7 June 1894

LeMars young people are enjoying an amusement this spring that they have not had for a number of years. The river is quite high and in good condition for boating. For a long time the land about the mill-dam has been used as city dumping grounds on purpose to fill in low spots which increased the danger from freshets and this has spoiled the land for pleasure purposes, but now it is becoming well overgrown and before long will be pretty enough for a park. About twenty neat and servicable skiffs and boats have been built. Andrew Hendricksen has turned out two to order and at present is building another, furnished with sails, for his own use. The pond makes a very good place for boating. Why not have a LeMars boat club or canoe club?

The Larrabee Mines Sold.

Dubuque Times: For about a year J. M. Nix, of this city, has endeavored to organize a company composed of eastern capitalists for the purpose of buying and operating the Gov. Larrabee coal lands near the Black Hills in Dakota. He has met and overcome many obstacles and has just closed the deal. Gov. Larrabee gets $100,000 for the mines. Mr. Nix is backed by New York capitalists and today with Engineer Wakefield, formerly of Dubuque, begins to survey the line from Munesella seventeen miles to the coal mines. The rails have been bought and the road will be in operation early in July.

The Dubuque friends of Mr. Nix will be pleased to hear of his success. It is understood that he will make over $50 000 in the deal by the time the mines are in full operation. He is general manager of the new enterprise. The SENTINEL will add that Mr. Nix is a brother of Mrs. T. M. Zink of LeMars.

Loaned to the Library.

The city library is now in possession of thirty-five books loaned by Will L. Clark. Among the lot are fourteen large, well bound, finely illustrated histories of Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota and Wisconsin counties. Of this number ten are histories of Iowa counties, including Plymouth, Woodbury, Cherokee and Harrison counties.

These books are left at the city library for use within the building, but are not to be loaned out. As reference books this collection is invaluable to the daily patrons of the library.

WARD COMMITTEE.

A caucus of the Republican voters of the Third ward will be held at the hose house on Friday at 7:30p.m. to select eight delegates to attend the Republican county convention on Saturday, Oct. 4th, 1890. By order of ward committee.

WARD COMMITTEE.

Court Proceedings.

Court has been in session since Monday. One or two divorce cases were attended to first.

Husted vs. Husted, Beach vs. Beach, and Fleming vs. Fleming were among them. In the two latter the decrees were granted.

The case of Gamble vs. Johns was decided in favor of Johns and a judgment for $0 rendered.

In case Iowa Railroad Land Co. vs. Thompson, Tuesday, jury instructed to find verdict for plaintiff.

The last case was that in which C. L. Trenery sues one Pemberthy for $10,000 damages for malicious prosecution in a former case.

Sheriff Boyle arrived last evening from Anamosa with Williamson who is a witness in the stealing cases.

The case of State vs. Knowles is set for today but it may not be reached.

Children's Day.

Prof. Love as well as Prof. Wilson and the other teachers of our public schools have taken much pains to make the arrangements whereby the children of the city schools under twelve and over five years of age may make the trip to the corn palace today and return at a greatly reduced rate. The total cost of railroad fare and admittance to the palace will be 65 cents. Each pupil wears a neat badge which will admit one to the palace all day. There are several hundreds of our little folks who are very happy today and there will be several hundred very sleepy eyes and tired babies tonight, but they will all have learned a great deal during the day and it won't be book learning either.

A New Sidetrack.

The Illinois Central R. R. Company is putting the ties on the ground for a side track to extend 3,500 feet along the main track near the depot. The grade and commencement of the work would indicate that the new siding would commence at the south side of Seventh street and extend thence, east [illegible] the Union depot. The council met in special session Wednesday evening, and the Marshal was instructed to order the work discontinued on Seventh street until the proper course of procuring right-of-way from the city, had been gone through with.

HUSBAND - Nicholas FREYMANN-16

Nicholas never knew his f., who d. when N. was 5 wks old. His mother m. Nick Kellen when N. was 5. We know by the 1860 & 1870 Censuses that he lived w. his family until he was at least 16; furthermore that his schooling continued until he was at least 16 (undoubtedly at a Catholic school in St.Donatus). According to "History of Woodbury & Plymouth Counties" pg. 965, he stayed on that farm until 22, then worked as a day laborer in St.Paul for a year. In 1877 he went to LeMars to work in his uncle Peter Gehlen's mill and became a member of that household. (In 1880 Census Plymouth Co, pg 106, Dwelling 198, Family 198 is that of the widowed "Mary C. Gehlen." Nicholas Freyman, 26, is listed as "servant.") In 1880 he bought a 220 acre farm in America Twp & moved there in 1883. [Farm is on S side of County K49 at intersection w/ 7th Ave SE, 2 mi S of LeMars. Site of house now posh estate, "Crownland Acres." Orig. house moved 2 1/4 mi E on left side of K49 opp. 2 blue silos, owned (1990) by Brewer. Identical house on next farm S of Nick's was built by Nemmers (which one?) & served as model for Nick's.]

Marriage #1: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Margaretha Kleitsch of St. Donatus, daughter of Joannes Kleitsch & Catherina Nemmers, 10 April 1883. (There was a close family connection. Nicholas' aunt Mary was m. to Catherina's brother Nicholas.) Witnesses Nicholaus Gehlen & Margaretha Hoffmann. Their 1st child, Charles, b. 30 Nov 1883. 2nd child (bpt. John but listed in burial records of same church as Peter) was b. 9 Aug 1884 & lived 1 day. Peter Nemmers & Maria Cath. Schmits were sponsors. Margaretha d. 15 Dec 1884, age 21, of "lung fever." (According to Plymouth Co. records she was "paralyzed" for 10 mos. before death.)

Marriage #2: Marriage register St. Mary's Church, Port Washington, & Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 6 p 792 show Nicholas Freimann, farmer, m. Lizzie Wentink 27 Sept 1887. Witnesses Charles Wentink & Melchior Kemp. She was about 35 & had never been married, having still been "at home" in the 1880 Census. She probably met Nicholas thru his relatives living near her home. A section map of Belgium, WI (date?) shows farms of Dominik Dondelinger (2268) & John Dondelinger (2265), son of Dominik's bro Nicolaus (2263), adjoining Gerhard Wentink's. Houses prob abt 3/4 mi apart. Abt 3 1/2 mi away was farm of John B. Freymann (2238) & his son John (3232). [Cf Ozaukee Co Freymann/Dondelinger file. Relation b/n these people & Nicholas' parents not estalished, but they must have been kin. Quite likely Luxembourger families around St. Donatus, Port Washington & LeMars maintained regular contact for at least 1 or 2 generations.]

Their 1st child, Joseph, d. at birth 8 Aug 1888. John Joseph was b. 13 Dec 1889. 3rd child, Joseph Nicholas b. 19 Oct 1891. Lizzie d. that day of post-partum hemorrhage. The baby d. 4 months later.

Marriage #3: Marriage register St. Joseph's Church, LeMars, shows Nicholas m. Susannah Colling, d. of Peter Colling & Catherina Delahamet 13 June 1893. The Colling farm was within sight of Nicholas', & Susan had helped care for his 3 small sons after Lizzie died. She was also kin, since her s. Anna was m. to Nicholas D. Kellen, Nicholas' half bro. Susan bore him 3 more children, Albert, Vincent & Armella. He left the farm in 1893 & moved to a house across the tracks from the grain elevator in Oyens, Iowa, which he managed until he retired in 1915. He & Susan then moved to farm near Iona, MN, for brief time b/4 moving back to LeMars early in 1916. He d. there in 1920 of "cancer of the liver."

WIFE - Susan COLLING-452

Susan was the daughter of Peter Colling, who owned the next farm to Nicholas Freymann's. (She was also kin, since her sister Anna was married to Nicholas' half-brother, Nicholas D. Kellen.) Left with three little boys after the death of his 1st two wives, Nicholas asked her to care for the boys and then married her a year & a half later. She was the only mother John Joseph Freymann ever knew.

In 1900 Census, Susan gave b. date 29 Oct 1870 & age 29.

Aunt Ottillia Freymann has passports issued to Pierre Collin (Peter Colling) & his wife Catherine Delahamet by the Kingdom of Belgium. Both were born in Belgian Province of Luxembourg, he on 30 Oct 1829; she on 16 Aug 1841. They were married in Tintagen, Belgium in 1864. In addition to Anna & Susan they had 2 other daughs, Kathryn & Christina, who never married. When the Freymann boys were taken to LeMars to visit family, their parents always stopped in Sioux City to see Aunt Kathryn & Aunt Tina.

CHILD 1 - Albert Nicholas FREYMANN-453

Albert attended Campion w/ bros John & Vincent, but not known for how long or if he graduated. He was farmer all his life. Most of this was spent in Perry, OK, where his many Rolling cousins settled. He did not marry until he was 44. For some reason he moved back to LeMars later in life & was farming his father's old farm S of LeMars when he d. He was only 59.

JGF & his bros have clear memories of Uncle Albert. He was shy, seldom spoke, but they remember him best for his warm, quiet smile.

CHILD 2 - Vincent Peter FREYMANN-454

Vincent had a tragic life which JGF can sketch only briefly b/c this is based entirely on memory. He attended Campion prep school & college in Prairie de Chien, WI, w/ older bros John & Albert. Served in Army in WW I in France & occupation of Germany. Was natural athlete & such a good pitcher he was scouted by 1 of the Chicago teams. After War worked for LeMars Globe Post. In 1923 came to Omaha at invitation of bro John to take course offered by Omaha World-Herald. Wife Ottellia accompanied him & both stayed with John & Marion while Ottellia delivered 3rd child Phyllis. [1994 letter from Ottellia recounting this in Freymann file.]

Some time aft 1923 he moved family to Omaha & worked 7 yrs as reporter for Omaha World-Herald. JGF has clear memories of Sunday dinners w/ Uncle Vincent's family & playing with Cousins Jack, Jeanne & Phyllis who were of abt same age. What he was not aware of was Vincent's alcoholism & how often John would admit him to County Hospital to "dry out." He lost job at paper & was unemployed for some time in depths of Depression. Sometime in 1930s he recovered from alcoholism & got job with Dept Agriculture. Transferred to Chicago in 1941. Just when it seemed he had finally achieved stability & financial security, he contracted polio & was confined to wheel chair for rest of his life. JGF saw him for last time at his home in Chicago sometime in 1940s, wheelchair-bound but, as always, cheerful & charming. Vincent was 61 when he d.

He fered a severe illness last year but overed and was in poor health un- a few weeks ago. His death was e to kidney and liver trouble.

Mr. Freymann was one of the old idents having come here when a uth in the twenties and made his me here for nearly forty-five years. e was born at St Donatus, Jackson unty, Iowa on February 22, 1854, d was the youngest of six children rn to Charles andMary Freymann, o came from Luxemburg, Europe an early day to Iowa. He attended hool and helped his father on the rm until he attained manhood. After working for a brief time in St. ul he came to Plymouth county in 76. In early days he worked in e Gehlen Mills, which was the only ill in this part of the territory at at time and where farmers came om sixty miles around to get their ist and market their grain.

In 1878 he bought a farm south of eMars still known as the Freymann Matgen of Le Mars, and John Umiker of Ravinia, S. D. The funeral was held from the Beeley Undertaking rooms yesterday afternoon conducted Rev. S. C. Steinbrenner of St. Paul's church.

Martin Kress, one of the early pioneers of Plymouth county passed away at his home on Clark Street on Saturday evening at half past six. The deceased was born in Germany on February 28, 1835 and had attained the great age of 85 years and 6 months. He was hale and rugged and until within a few hours of his death enjoyed unusualgood health for one of his years. He came to America when a boy in 1847 and first settled in New York state later moving to Illinois and in 1881 came to Plymouth county locating in Stanton township, where he engaged in farming for many years and made a success of his occupation. After twenty-five years in Stanton he retired and came to LeMars, where he spent his last years.

He was united in marriage in 1862 with Mary Brandstetter who survives him. Four children were born to them who are Mrs. William Wecker of Mendota, Ill., John Jacob and Martin all residing in Stanton township.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at the Emanuel Evangelical church, Rev. J. J. DeWall officiating.

Mr. Kress was a good citizen and neighbor and enjoyed the respect of the community where he lived for forty years of his long well spent life.

Fred Uthe, of Madison, S. D., was a caller at the Sentinel office on Saturday. He and his father formerly lived in Plymouth county. Fred Uthe, the father died recently at Marison, and was buried there. He farmed in Plymouth county from 1882 to 1910.

He farmed south of Remsen and when he located there first there were only three buildings in that town. Mr. Uthe was born in Saxony, Germany, on November 8, 1840. He came to this country when a young man and located near Cleveland, Ohio and later came to Buchanan county, Iowa. He was married to Sarah Fry while living there. She died in 1880. He is survived by seven children who are Miss Lizzie Uthe, Will John and Fred,

He subsequently bought grain there for the Plymouth Milling company until 1915 when he retired from active business and came to LeMars to live. Mr. Freymann was the first clerk in America township. He was active in securing the incorporation of the town of Oyens and was first mayor at that place. He was a democrat in politics and took an active part in community and civic affairs. Mr. Freymann was a charter member of the Trinity council, Knight of Columbus, and was a member of the Sioux City council before the LeMars Council was organized. Mr. Freymann is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Colling, and four sons and a daughter who are Charles Freymann, of Le Mars, Dr. John Freymann, of Omaha, Nebr., Albert Freymann, of Perry Oklahoma, Vincent Freyman, of Le Mars and Miss Armella Freymann of Sioux City He is also survived by two sisters who are Mrs. Nicholas Rolling of Perry, Oklahoma and Mrs. Math Hoffman of Hospers, and one brother, N. D. Kellen of LeMars. Mr. Freymann had a wide acquaintance in Plymouth and adjoining counties and was very popular among a large number. He was a generous whole souled man, willing always to do a good turn for a friend or neighbor. In his younger days he did his share in building up the community and was always interested in movements for the growth and revelopment of the new territory. In social life he was congenial member of any party and his home life was ideal. The funeral services will be held this morning at St. Joseph's church of which he was a member since the church was organized.

FARMER HAS HEAVY LOSS

FIRE DESTROYS $30,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY.

Kingsley News-Times: Tuesday morning fire broke out on the John Hebeler farm southwest of Kingsley, destroying a large barn, a new elevator and a double corn crib. A number of the firemen with the truck and many citizens in cars started for the scene of conflagration, but were unable to do any great amount of good, although with the chemical apparatus they extinguished the fire which had spread from the burning buildings to the garage and other buildings about the place.

The large barn and new elevator and double corn crib were entirely destroyed, together with about 5,000 bushels of corn, some oats and other grain and feed in the buildings.

The origin of the fire is unknown The threshing crew were blowing the straw in to the barn, but the machine was operated by an oil pull engine and it is not possible that it started from that cause. The only solution so far advanced is that it might have been caused by some careless smokor.

The loss will amount to about $30 000. While Mr. Hebler carries a large amount of insurance, his actual loss will reach several thousand dollars. He will be put to a great expense and inconvenience in replacing the buildings especially at this season.

There will be a ball game each day at 3:30. LeMars playing Remsen the first day and Kingsley the second.

An added feature just secured is the presence at the celebration of fifty or more Indians from the Winnebago reservation, who will give each day two or more exhibitions that will recall the period fifty years ago when the Indian roamed these prairies.

FAVORS MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Takes Exception to Statement About Merrill Light Plant

TO THE EDITOR SENTINEL:

I wish to take on exception to an article that appeared in the Globe Post of August 23rd, in regard to the municpally owned plant of the City of Merrill. The writer of that article, I am sure took only a one sided view of the matter, and is leaving the people ignorant of the real facts.

In regard to this plant being a municipal plant, it is, and will continue to be, and not a privately owned plant as the writer would make it appear.

This plant is not only a lighting proposition, but a combined water and light plant. It has been operated by the City of Merrill for a number of years, and has not been operated at a loss as stated in that article. They are at the present time about to vote for an issue of bonds for building a line from a neighboring city for light and power for the only reason that the consumption is too large to make it pay to operate their own plant, which the city has outgrown.

The writer of the article of the 23rd. states they will build from LeMars. He knows more about the matter than the people of Merrill do themselves. When they do build their line, the distribution will still be municipally owned. He also states that the present plant is about fit for the junk pile. I beg to differ with him. The plant is still worth a considerable amount of money, even after it has given fifteen years of service as stated.

In regard to Merrill not wanting a municipally owned plant will say I had the pleasure of being refused the proposition of installing a private plant there. It is therefore impossible for me to understand why the citizens of Merrill are going to continue municipal ownership, and vote bonds to meet their requirements, if it is a total loss to them.

I will further say that the citizens of Merrill are for municipal ownership so strong, that they themselves are buying the bonds for this electric line. In regard to the costly improvments as tsated, will say They are all paid for by the city, and not by the citizens as they are at a lot of places, such as extentsions of lines and water mains to serve the public. If this was charged to the public as it is in neighboring towns, there would be a lot of money in the treasury.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD-333
DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND Nikolaus CLASEN-1214 Yr of Birth 1841
WIFE Catherine FREYMANN-421 Yr of Birth 1852

HUSBAND - Nikolaus CLASEN-1214

The name Clasen is also variously spelled Classen & Clausen in documents in the Jackson Co. Courthouse. Said to have arr in America in 1877, but since same source (D/F/K genealogy) says he was m 8 Jan 1877 at St.Donatus, something doesn't quite fit.

B. & d. dates for Nikolaus & Catherine from their gravestones.

WIFE - Catherine FREYMANN-421

Catherine & Nikolaus Clasen had a number of children, many of whom, along with THEIR children, are buried near them in the Springbrook Cemetery.

All info on children except where otherwise noted from Dondelinger/Freyman/Kellen genealogy in file.

DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND	Nicholas GEHLEN-465	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Mary POULL-466	Yr of Birth 1865

HUSBAND - Nicholas GEHLEN-465

He was 17 in 1880 Census. Mentioned in mother's 1896 obit as "Nikolaus" but not as an heir in her will. He farmed near Sioux City b/4 moving his family to Ellensburg, WA.

WIFE - Mary POULL-466

Mary Poull was Elizabeth Wenting's first cousin; i.e., John J Freymann's 1st cousin, once removed. Her husb Nicholas Gehlen was son of Peter Gehlen & M. Catherine Freymann; i.e., JJF's 1st cousin, once removed thru his father's side. This is good example of how inter-related these Luxembourgers were after 3 generations!

CHILD 1 - Joseph N. GEHLEN M.D.-467

Joe Gehlen was a contemporary of John Joseph Freymann. They were 2nd cousins. When Joe rode the caboose of a cattle train from Spokane to Omaha in 1913 to start medical school, he invited John (who was teaching at Gonzaga) to ride with him. This may have influenced John, who did enroll in the class entering Creighton Medical College in the fall of 1913. [Personal recollection JJF to JGF.] Joe practiced medicine in the Twin Cities. His w. was Viola.

CHILD 2 - Vincent GEHLEN-2977

CHILD 4 - Rose Poull GEHLEN-2979

Rose & Genny were twins. (Note Nicholas Gehlen's m., M. Catharina Freymann, had 2 sets of twins, while his Aunt Maria Freymann Nemmers, Uncle Charles Freymann & possibly his father's 1st w., Catharina Freymann, also had twins!)

CHILD 5 - Marie GEHLEN-2980

CHILD 6 - Lawrence GEHLEN-2981

CHILD 7 - Paul Ferdinand GEHLEN-2982

CHILD 8 - Walter GEHLEN-2983

Child of Jacob Dondelinger

HUSBAND - John Baptiste ADAM II-2188

John, a saloonkeeper in Port Washington, m. Mary Herbst, d. of Peter Herbst & Caroline Begel, b. in Fillmore, WI, 30 May 1876 in Port Washington. Witnesses John Herbst, Christine Wittman. [Ozaukee Co m. rec. vol 4 p 1187] He was prob working in his father's saloon (1870 Census said Mathias was saloon keeper) & may have inherited it when Mathias d. in Oct aft the weddding.

1880 Census, Port Washington, Ozaukee Co, vol 21, ED 151, sheet 51, line 22: Adams (sic), John B, 25; Marie, wife, 23; Mathias, son, 2; all b WI; Elizabeth Adams, 64, mother, b Luxemburg.

John & Mary lost unnamed twins b. 3 Feb 1885 [Ozaukee Co b. rec. vol 7 p 941] & another unnamed child b. 17 Dec 1887 [Ozaukee Co b. rec. vol 7 p 1426]. There may have been other children; e.g., was Katie Adam, who d. in Port Washington 3 July 1970 at age 92 (therefore b. about 1878) a daughter? Ozaukee Co d. rec. vol 29 p 160 does not give her parents, but this birthdate is reasonably consistent with known ones of John & Mary's other children. In fact, if Mathias F's est b yr is correct, she may have been his twin.

D date est from son Henry J's obit in Port Washington Herald, 25 Oct 1939, which states his father d "31 yrs ago."

HUSBAND	Charles Mathias FREYMANN-416	Yr of Birth 1883
WIFE	Clara REICHMAN-2964	Yr of Birth 1889

HUSBAND - Charles Mathias FREYMANN-416

Charles lived all his life in LeMars area. He spent yr at Notre Dame & then returned to Oyens to try his hand at banking. He then took up farming on his father's farm but failed at this. He finally got job as postman & did this for rest of his life.

Charles' middle name raises possibility he was named for Elisabeth Wentink's Uncle Mathias. Doubt this b/c Nicholas presumably did not meet Elisabeth until shortly b/4 he m. her in 1887. However, if Charles really was named after Mathias Wentink (how will we ever know?), it would indicate much closer links b/n Iowa & Wisconsin Luxembourger families than we know about now.

JGF has clear memory of Uncle Charlie & Aunt Clara during summer he & his little bros stayed in LeMars (prob 1929). Their home was across street from large park. JGF was 7 & worshiped his 14 yr old Cousin Carl, who kindly tolerated the little boy playing w/ him.

WIFE - Clara REICHMAN-2964

Clara's f. was Ferdinand Reichman; m. Wilhelmina Lampert.

CHILD 1 - Carl Nicholas FREYMAN-2965

Carl spent most of his career as an FBI agent. Later he managed security for the Jewell Tea Co. Note he dropped last "n" from his surname.

Son of Nicholas Freymann + Eliz. Wentink

HUSBAND - John Joseph Freymann M.D.-7

Birth: Plymouth Co. Birth & Death Records, Book 1, pg 172, entry 2148: John Joseph Freyman; father Nicholas, German, b. Jackson Co, farmer; mother Lissie (Wentink) b. Wis. J.W.Hines, M.D., LeMars. (Dr. Hines was an 1861 graduate of U. of Virginia. Initially surgeon of Stonewall Jackson's Brigade, he was chief purveyor of the Army of Northern Virginia when Lee surrendered at Appomatox. He arr. in LeMars in 1880. Source: "History of Plymouth Co, Iowa" Vol 1, pg 339.)

Baptism: St.Joseph's Church, LeMars, Book 2, pg 105: 14 Dec 1889; Josepham Joannem Freiman. Godparents Jacobus Dunlinger (great uncle, bro of grand mother Maria Dondelinger) & Maria Poull (Eliz. Wentink's cousin, who later m Nicholas Gehlen).

For complete biography see "John J. Freymann, 1889-1964" by Jarvis M.
Freymann, Eilert Printing Co, NY, 1967. Copies in JGF library & extra copies in storeroom at 2 Catalpa Court, Avon, CT. Following is brief summary:

He was raised in household where Luxembourger was spoken & attended German language elementary school. Thus he was fluent in both languages as well as English, which was still his mother tongue. He graduated w/ gold medal for excellence from St Catherine's School in Oyens in 1905 & went off to Campion, a Jesuit school for boys in Prairie du Chien, WI. He went thru prep school & college there, graduating w/ BA, magna cum laude, in June 1911.

He returned to Campion as instructor in math in 1911-12, working at same time toward MA in sociology (his thesis was "The Housing Problem"), which he received from Marquette U in 1913. He went to Gonzaga College in Spokane in fall of 1912 as instructor in German, typing & shorthand. (The former was easy; the latter required him to stay one lesson ahead of his students). At a Halloween dance in Oct he met Marion Wicks. Visiting his cousin Joe Gehlen, who had moved from LeMars to Ellensburg, WA, John confided he had fallen in love w/ her.

His appt at Gonzaga ended in 1913 & John, now 23, cast about for new teaching position. He looked into one at Creighton U in Omaha, met some Campion friends who were students there, &, more or less on the spur of the moment, enrolled in the School of Medicine. (Marion would tell her sons yrs later the only other reckless thing he ever did was marry her.) Four yrs later, in April 1917, the US entered WW I, Creighton gave John his M.D. 2 mo early, & he was ordered to Mare Island, CA, as a newly commissioned Lt (j.g.) in the Navy Medical Corps.

John served as medical officer on destroyer "Caldwell" from Nov 1917 to Sept 1918. On way from Mare Island to its base in Ireland, his ship stopped in Portsmouth, VA, in Jan-Feb 1918. For 1st time since he left Spokane in 1913 he had chance to see Marion again. They had been engaged since June 1917! (The only explanation Marion ever gave for this was "we corresponded regularly.") She was in the Navy too, a Chief Yoeman in Naval Intelligence stationed in Philadelphia (cf her note #8). After this brief reunion, his ship sailed for convoy duty off Ireland, & John was aboard until shortly b/4 the war ended.

In Sept 1918 he was assigned to US Naval base at Queenstown (now Cobh), Ireland, & served there until Feb 1919, thru worst part of influenza pandemic that swept the world, killing millions. Then he was posted to former German liner "Prinz Frederick Wilhelm" that was bringing American troops home. This gave him chance to see Marion again, & after his 2nd voyage they were m. in Church of the Jesu, Philadelphia, on 31 May 1919. He made several more voyages on "The Prinz," then in July was sent w/ his bride to Great Lakes Naval Training Station near Chicago. At that time he intended to stay in regular Navy & held a USN commission, but illnesses of his father & bro Vincent in LeMars led him to reconsider. Instead of duty at USN Hospital, Yokahoma, for which he had applied, it would be better to practice in Omaha, where he could be near his family. He therefore resigned his regular Navy commission in Nov 1919.
Yet he loved the Navy too much to leave it. He took a commission in the Naval Reserve.

John & Marion arrived in Omaha in Nov 1919. He became junior partner to Dr E.C.Henry, a distinguished physician whom he had known at Creighton, but John found this gave little opportunity for professional growth. Then their world collapsed: their 1st child, Moxley Sorrel, d. in June 1921 at age 6 mo. A week later, altho they were flat broke, John left Dr Henry &, w/ loan from a banker in LeMars & faith in what he called for 1st time (but, I can say 75 yrs later, not the last!) the "Freymann Star," he went into solo private practice.

The next 19 yrs were devoted to building a thriving practice, teaching at Creighton Medical College, weekly drills w/ 43rd Fleet Division, USNR (John had never lost his love of the Navy & gradually moved up to rank of Lt. Cmdr., MC, USNR), & enjoying his family. In 1923 they had moved to a modest house at 3222 Pacific St where his 3 sons grew up. In 1937 they moved to a spacious house at 321 S 53rd St where, for 1st time, his family could experience some sense of gracious living. He was able to take his family on summer trips, usually in conjunction w/ his annual Naval Reserve cruises: Chicago World's Fair in 1933-4, Washington in 1935, down the West Coast from Seattle to LA in 1936, etc. By 1939, when John was 50, he was reaching his most productive & reward- ing yrs, the peak of his career. Then, on 3 Sept, while on the way to a Campion reunion w/ his family, they heard Britain declare war on Germany. WW II had begun.

In Sept 1940 John returned to active duty in the Navy. Initially this was restricted to the Recruiting Station in Omaha, but by Aug 1943 he was Medical Inspector of the 7th Service Command, a 9 state area, & had been promoted to Captain. In Aug 1944, his youngest son Jarvis having entered college, he closed what was left of his medical practice, sold the lovely home on 53rd St, took Marion off to a rented flat in Northampton, MA, & became medical officer of the WAVE Officer Training School at Smith College. In Dec, Marion set up her home at the St George Hotel in Brooklyn while John served at the Brooklyn Naval Hospital. In April 1945 John got what he wanted, command of a mobile Naval hospital training at Lido Beach, Long Island, for the invasion of Okinawa &, ultimately, Japan. Leaving Marion behind at the St George in June, John led his unit ("Cub 17") to California & then on a slow transport across the Pacific to Okinawa, where they landed 12 Aug. On 15 Aug Japan surrendered. There being no need for Cub 17 now, all its equipment was dumped into the Pacific, & in Dec John was given command of Military Govt Hospital #202 on Saipan. Its mission was caring for civilian population of this devastated, former Japanese island. In March 1946 he was ordered back to NYC & used his terminal leave to take refresher courses there in gynecology. In June he & Marion returned to Omaha. He had been on active duty for nearly 6 yrs. He had no practice, & the only housing they could find was two rooms in a 2nd rate hotel. They were back to where they had been when they arrived in Omaha for the 1st time 27 yrs before, only this time he was 56 yrs old.

John returned to his old office at 1113 Medical Arts Bldg where his loyal secy. Marion Alvord (who had been w/ him since 1928), altho working for another doctor, had maintained contact w/ his equally loyal patients. His practice was soon humming again, & the housing problem was solved by buying a small house on Mayberry St. By 1952 they were able to fulfill a lifelong dream by spending the summer in Europe. They repeated this in 1955, interspersing these long trips w/ visits to the growing families of sons Gordon & Jarvis on the East Coast. In 1958 flew to India to see Moye & his family & then on around the world. In 1960 they toured Central America & in 1961 cruised the Mediterranean before returning to India for Xmas with Moye's family. Between trips he eagerly returned to his office, kept up his teaching & medical reading, & also became quite adept at playing the stock market.

He was still enjoying life to the full when, in Feb 1964, he had his 1st heart attack. He recovered from this but succumbed to another on 30 Mar. He was 74 yrs, 3 mo, 17 d old. He was buried at Arlington National Cemetery w/ the full military honors due a Navy Captain.

For yrs John clipped items he liked & pasted them in notebooks. The last one he saved before he died ended with this passage: " You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt -- as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear -- as young as your hope, as old as your despair."

That epitomizes John Freymann.

WIFE - Marion Wicks-8

B. date from family Bible. Book 2: Births in City of LA, Feb 1888 to Feb 1893 indicates female child b. alive to "M.L.Wicks" & mother not named 19 Jan 1892. Affidavit in this book dated 28 Dec 1945 by Moxley S. Wicks states she is mother of "Marion Langley Wicks." Altho not given a middle name at birth Marion was registered under this name all thru her 3 yrs at Mary Baldwin (1909-12) & used "Marion Langley" as her stage name during brief career.
(Cf. Oct 1991 section, Wicks/Jarvis Geneal. Notes for full discussion. Note that NO childrens' names appear in early LA birth records.)

In her 1979 bio of her father, MWF describes her own childhood: "The next child ....was a third daughter, named Marion. She must have been a dreadful nuisance, always tagging behind her two sisters. She was told by them that she was a waif, left on the door-step. When Marion, in tears, asked her mother if it were true and was assured it was not, she triumphantly told them that they were her sisters. They replied, sotto voce, 'Of course, she isn't going to tell YOU.' For years Marion was uncertain of her parentage! " In her old age, MWF became increasingly convinced that M.L.Wicks, not Moye, was her father, but the careful search of LA birth records noted above gave no convincing evidence to support this.

In 1907 she was sent to Ward (now Ward Belmont), a girl's school in Nashville. [Date based on educational trust payments. First for MWF paid 4 Nov 1907.] She was unhappy & stayed only 1 yr. Next yr she was in Prof. Welch's private day school in Houston. In Sept 1909 she entered Mary Baldwin Seminary in Staunton, VA. She finished 3 yrs, leaving 6 May 1912 w/o taking her final exams. In transcripts of all 3 yrs she was listed "in Rom. Cath. Ch.," altho in 1992 she said she "never set foot inside it."

When, or if, Marion was actually baptized Catholic remained a mystery until 1999, when we found she was bpt at St. Aloysius, Spokane, WA, 15 Aug 1911. She is conspicuously absent from bapt registers in Archives of Diocese of Galveston- Houston for 6 of her siblings b/n Jan 1909 & June 1910. (Only oldest & young- est bros Moye & "Judgie" also escaped.) She was away at school in Oct 1909, when 4 youngest were bapt but certainly back in June 1910, when Muriel was.
She & Muriel were bridesmaids on day Mandy was both bapt & married, so Marion had same exposure. Yet, for some reason, she waited until summer b/4 her last yr at Mary Baldwin, when she was 19, to take this step. (As of 2000, have not found her father's bpt date, but I'll bet it was the same day!) Cf JGF's "Growing Up in Omaha in the 1920s & 30s" for further discussion.

In the fall of 1912 Marion escorted her sis Mildred ("Meeky") from Spokane, where the family had moved in 1911, to Mary Baldwin. [Dates based on educational trust payments for MWF's "traveling expenses home" on 8 Oct & payment of Mildred's tuition 1 Nov.] Later in Oct 1912 she met John Freymann at a Halloween party. About this time she took over management of her parent's household, particularly of her 2 youngest siblings, Dottie (8) & "Judgie" (5). This involvement lasted long enough to include the family's brief return to their house in Houston & then return again to Spokane.

At some point, perhaps in 1915 (MWF is vague on dates), "I left our home in Spokane in a huff; I didn't want to be the despised old maid sister, or a 'burnt offering.' Leaving with my father's encouragement, I went to visit my sister Mandy in Philadelphia....I never again went back, except for brief visits....It was at this time that I briefly entered 'show biz.'" This was a traveling vaudeville troupe whose act involved the artistic "draping," to background music, of several beautiful young women by a skilled couturier. Marion dyed her hair red. The show opened at a theatre on Houston St. in NYC, then went on the road. On 20 Dec 1916, Moye Wicks wrote "Miss Marion Langley" at Holyoke Theatre in Holyoke, MA, seemingly supporting her decision [copy in Freymann file]. Nevertheless, he followed her to nearby Springfield, MA, (indicating this must have been shortly after he wrote this letter) & prevailed upon her to return to Philadelphia. [This was prob the time when the Wicks family resided briefly in that city b/c Moye's letter was posted from Philadelphia.] What caused him to change his attitude? Was he influenced by Marion's redoubtable mother?

In 1917 W(illiam) Barkley Henry, a wealthy banker who had been commissioned to organize the Philadelphia branch of what was to become the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI), invited MWF to join him as his secretary. Though lacking any secretarial skills, she agreed & the two of them opened an office that ultimately employed hundreds. She enlisted for 4 yrs as Yoeman 1st Class (F), USNRF, at Phila 20 Oct 1917. (Later promoted to Chief Yoeman (F).) ONI operated under the "cover" of a bank in the Morris Bldg, just off Broad & Chestnut Sts. Except for a brief furlough home in Spokane in the summer of 1918, she spent her active Naval career in downtown Phila. Shortly after the War ended in Nov 1918, she was sent the USN HQ in Seattle & placed on inactive duty (essentially civilian status) until honorably discharged at Great Lakes, Ill. 30 Sept 1921. She received a Washington State veteran's bonus of $300.

Returning to Phila, she m. Lt. John J. Freymann (MC) USN 31 May 1919 at Church of the Gesu. Only 3 others attended: Mandy & Bobby Kennedy & their 5 yr old son Sorrel. After a 1 night honeymoon in NYC, John went back to duty on a transport ship returning troops from France. In 1920, John was transferred to the Naval Station at Great Lakes, Ill. He intended to stay in the regular Navy. The young couple was looking forward to duty in Yokahama, Japan, when the illness of John's father forced them to leave the Navy & settle nearer him in Omaha. (Cf. notes on John Freymann #7 for details on their married life.)

In 1966, after John's death, MWF decided to resettle in her beloved South. The found her ideal spot in Chapel Hill, NC. Altho her son Moye & family moved there at about the same time, she led an active social life among her own circle of friends for many years. There she began the genealogical studies that her children are continuing. She gave up driving her car in 1987, when she was 95. Feeling ever more isolated & confined to her apartment, she decided to move into a retirement home, Abbotswood, in Raleigh in Feb 1989. In Aug 1991, at the invitation of Gordon & Ruth Freymann, she moved to another retirement home, The Gables, in Farmington, CT. At Gordon & Ruth's home in Avon on 18 Jan 1992 she celebrated her 100th birthday surrounded by her 3 children & their spouses, 9 of her 10 living grandchildren & their spouses, & all 7 of her great-grandchildren. Six days later she underwent a cataract operation.

The cataract operation failed to improve her reading vision, but she continued to enjoy independent living at The Gables for 2 more years, listening to re- corded books, dining w/ other residents who vied for her attention, & receiving visits from her sons & daughs-in-law, her grandchildren & great-grandchildren. She began to fail after her 102nd birthday, becoming weak & needing such constant attention she was moved to Avon Convalescent Home. Her family continued to visit her frequently here, but now, except for occasional flashes, she lost interest in life. Except for faulty recent memory, she maintained her mental faculties to the end. After careful consideration, she asked her physician to stop all her medications. (He had thought these necessary to maintain her failing heart.) Even w/o any medications she did not go into congestive failure. Instead she gradually lapsed into semi-stupor. Occasionally she would cry out, "My baby, my baby, where is my baby? [In the 73 yrs since little Sorrel died, she had never been far from her mother's heart.] Marion died quietly 5 wks later w/ her son Gordon at her side.

When she died, her life had spanned almost exactly half of the time since George Washington was inaugurated. See tribute to her read by JGF after her funeral along w/ other items relating to her following these notes.

CHILD 1 - Moxley Sorrel Freymann-9

--- TO MY SWEET MARION ---

A mother eagle from her lofty nest
Gazed with unblinking eye upon the sun;
She watched its arrowy beams till, in the west,
The shadows crept east as the day was done.
She saw the clouds above, the verdant heath,
The distant river like a silver thread,
The peaceful cattle grazing far beneath,
The wild deer crouching in its leafy bed --
The while she waited until time should bring
The glad fulfilling of her proud desire
That from the egg beneath her there should spring
A warrior eagle with a heart of fire!

So the young mother broods with ardent pride,
Thrilled at the fond thought that there soon shall be
Two pink-toed feet to linger by her side,
Two starry eyes in which her soul will see
The light that angels radiate as they sing,
Two loving arms to twine around her neck,
Two tiny hands whose tender touch will bring
The thought that she would die for his sweet sake --
Then later, like the mother eagle's thought,
She dreams the time will come when he will wing
A flight above life's clouds and, fearing naught,
Will tower above the rest -- an uncrowned king!

MAMA ON HER ONE HUNDREDTH BIRTHDAY

So, Marion Wicks, born in one-eight-nine-two,
In the last hundred years just what did you do?

Well, to show my life was seldom the norm,
I began by surviving the Galveston storm!

And, in the year when I was eleven,
The Wrights took man's first flight t'ward heaven.

Woodrow Wilson often dropped in
When I was a student at Mary Baldwin.

In 1912, at a Halloween dance,
I first met John -- but just gave him a glance.

Then, in hobble skirt and with hennaed hair,
I took a shot at the theatair!

But life in the theatre was not all gravy,
So I turned around and joined the Navy!

Then John reappeared, now a Navy doctor,
And at wooing a girl a persuasive concocter.

So in 1919, on the thirty-first of May,
We were wed in Philadelphia, PA.

R We settled way out in Nebraska --
Well, at least it wasn't Alaska!

J I then set about to produce us a boy,
And we got Gordie, Jarvis and a Wicks named Moye.

R When those boys grew up they chose wives most clathy:
Sweet Ruth, dear Alice, and lovable Kathie.

J Although not quite like the famed lady turtle,
Those women all proved to be wonderously fertile:

TOGETHER TO WIT:

R Amanda, Martha, Sarah, Louise,
Douglas, Saxton, John and Vance, if you please.

J At last Jeffrey and Gordon were to appear,
And those two fine fellows brought up the rear.

TOGETHER BUT NOT FOR LONG!

R Those grandkids have been choosing spouses like crasy;
So far we have Andy, Michael, Bob, Mia and Stacy.

J Now a new generation -- a bonanza obstetric --
Is beginning to grow at a rate geometric:

R Amanda and Gordon, Christina and Sarah,
Andrew, Michael and Carl: all gems in my tiara.

So, you ask what I've done these last hundred years?

Your Farver and I have been pioneers!

We set out together on a future uncharted;

Just look around: YOU are what the two of us started!

MARION WICKS FREYMANN

Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Chief Yoeman, USN

Friday, October 28, was a perfect autumn day: warm sun, blue sky, golden foliage. At 11 o'clock the hearse bearing Mamá's flag-draped coffin drew up on a tree-lined avenue before a Navy chaplain and seven sailors, all in dress blue uniforms, all saluting.

The chaplain leading, the sailors bore the coffin under the trees and through the rows of gravestones to where Farver's grave had been opened. Many of us had been there at his funeral, 30 years ago last April. Then our children had been the same ages as our grandchildren are now; now we, Mamá's and Farver's children, are near the ages they were then. Then the avenue was lined with saplings clothed in spring leaves; now they had grown into sturdy young trees and were resplendent in fall colors.

The family gathered on one side of the grave, where Mamá's coffin rested. The sailors, lined up on each side of the coffin, raised the flag above it and stood there at rigid attention. The chaplain, a young man of slight build, stood just in front of the family and conducted a simple, beautiful service.

After several readings from Scripture, especially the 23rd Psalm, he began to talk about Chief Petty Officers and how important they are to the Navy. Without addressing the great grandchildren directly, we knew, and they knew, he was talking to them. Before, some may have had a vague idea that their Mamá had served in something called the Navy; now they all knew how important and how unique Mamá's service had been.

The chaplain expanded on the Navy theme by drawing a metaphor of Mamá's life as a voyage that had lasted over a hundred years. Now, he said, here beside her beloved husband she had reached her last, safe harbor.

When the chaplain finished his service, he turned to face the coffin and saluted. A detail of seven rifle-bearing bluejackets drawn up on the gentle slope above us fired three volleys. Then, far off in the other direction, a lone bugler blew the haunting notes of "Taps."

The sailors who had been holding the flag above Mamá all this time now began the slow process of folding it into a triangle with only the blue union and its white stars showing. The commander of the detail turned, saluted the chaplain, and handed him the flag. The chaplain brought it to me, as Mamá's oldest son, saluted, and placed it in my hands. Then he shook my hand, saying he did this on behalf of the United States of America in recognition of Mamá's service to her country.

That ended the service. We of the family lingered a while there at the graveside. A number of us were able to come back the following day to commune again with our Mamá. We were somber, but not really sad. How could we be when she had lived such a long, full, happy life? How could we be when she had reached her last, safe harbor?

JGF
November 6, 1994

Mama died 102 years, 8 months and 16 days after the day she was born: January 18, 1892. Now if we count back 102 years, 8 months and 16 days from her birthdate we come to May 2, 1789. That was two days -- just two days -- after George Washington was inaugurated as the first president of the United States!

Thus Mama's life spanned almost exactly half the history of the United States of America.

When Mama was born, veterans of the Civil War were in their prime. It had been just 26 years since Lee surrendered at Appomatox. Benjamin Harrison occupied the White House. There were only 45 states. The population of the nation was 65 million, but so many immigrants were pouring in that they opened on new center to receive them that year -- a place called Ellis Island. The place she was born, Los Angeles, now our second largest city, had only 50,000 people.

Her parents had electric lights and a telephone, and everyone traveled by train, but most of the inventions we take for granted now lay in the future. In 1892 the Duryea brothers built the first American automobile, but Mama was a teen-ager before cars were more than a curiosity. Moreso with airplanes. The Wright brothers took their first flight at Kitty Hawk the month before Mama's eleventh birthday. She was 30 when she heard her first radio program; nearly 60 before she first saw TV.

It's hard for us to imagine now the world in which Mama grew up, particularly the confined world of women. Just think, when, at age 17, she went to Mary Baldwin, she was taught how to climb into a carriage without exposing her ankles! I remember once when I complimented Farver on marrying a girl with such pretty legs. Mama overheard me and commented that this was pure luck, that he never saw her legs until after they were married.

Women couldn't vote, of course.

The 19th century didn't end in 1900. It ended in 1914 when the first World War destroyed that era of security where everyone knew his place, where every day, in every way, everything was supposed to get better and better. Mama was 22.

What I am leading up to is that Mama was a child of the 19th century. Similarly, her great grandchildren, born in the last two decades of the 20th century, will be children of that century even though they will most of their lives in the 21st. The world in which one grows up leaves an everlasting mark.

What's remarkable is how Mama made the transition to an entirely new world so fast. The first inkling, I think, was when she dyed her hair red and joined a theatrical troupe. Then came the Navy and her work in naval intelligence. She adapted to this quickly, although not completely. For example, she flatly refused to get a chair for an admiral; that was simply something a lady DID NOT DO! Most amazing of all, she married Farver! No two people could have had more dissimilar backgrounds, and she had seen him only briefly -- a few months in 1912-13, then on occasional days when his ship was in port in 1918-19. Most of their courtship was done by letter. Some letters!

Fast forward now through generations. Moye, Jarvis and me: Mama was always there, guiding our steps, making us think, making us look beyond the horizon. Then our wives: they became the daughters she never had. Then our children. Then their children.

Mama seldom looked back and, even when she was past 100, could not conceive of herself as "old." Yet she was our link with another age, an age we must not forget because its values are so vital to our future. As long as she lived we could not forget because she embodied those values: an inquiring mind, love of learning, certainty about what is right, humor, loyalty to family, and so many more.

As long as she lived Moye and Jarvis and I were the children. Now, at long last, we are the adults. We must perpetuate what Mama stood for until our children pick up the standard and carry it on for another generation.

luncheon after Mama's funeral 28 Oct 1954.

Navy veteran Marion Freymann, 102

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Marion Wicks Freymann, a Navy veteran of World War I and a former longtime Chapel Hill resident, has died at the age of 102.

She died Oct. 3 at a convalescent center in Avon, Conn. Her long, rich life took Mrs. Freymann on travels across the country, from her birth in 1892 in Los Angeles, a town of 51,000 at the time, to Virginia, North Carolina, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Nebraska.

Freymann

Her circle of acquaintances included the likes of author Thomas Mann, former first lady Grace Coolidge, President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Helen Keller and boxing champion Gene Tunney.

A staunch Democrat, she prided herself on having cast a ballot in every U.S. election in which women were able to vote.

Mrs. Freymann spent much of her childhood in Texas, then attended Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Va., from 1909 to 1912.

Following a brief flirtation with the New York theater, she enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1917 and spent the remainder of World War I as a chief petty officer in the newly created Office of Naval Intelligence in Philadelphia.

Before marrying Dr. John Freymann in 1919, Marion Wicks served the Navy as a chief petty officer in World War I.

She married Dr. John J. Freymann, a Naval surgeon in 1919. After their discharge from service, they settled in Omaha, Neb., where she became prominent in civic, social and cultural affairs.

Her husband returned to duty in World War II, and Mrs. Freymann spent a brief stay in Massachusetts before settling in New York. She worked with Naval Relief until the war ended when her family moved to Omaha. They stayed until Dr. Freymann's death in 1964.

She moved to Chapel Hill in 1967 and remained there until 1991.

Always an avid reader and student of European history, Mrs. Freymann continued following world events and pursuing her interest in genealogy until her final years.

Mrs. Freymann is survived by three sons: Dr. John Gordon Freymann of Avon, Conn.; Dr. Moye Wicks Freymann of Chapel Hill; and Jarvis M. Freymann of Scituate, Mass. She will be buried next to her husband in Arlington National Cemetery.

Marion Freymann, 102, World War I vet

FARMINGTON, Conn. — Marion (Wicks) Freymann, 102, of Farmington, a Navy veteran of World War I, died Monday in a convalescent facility in Avon, Conn.

Mrs. Freymann, the mother of Jarvis M. Freymann of Scituate, enlisted in the Navy during World War I in 1917 and was a chief petty officer (Yeomanettes) in the newly established Office of Naval Intelligence in Philadelphia.

Before entering the service she had a brief career in the New York theater.

After her marriage to Dr. John J. Freymann, a U.S. naval surgeon, in 1919, she moved to Omaha, Neb. Later, she lived in New York City and was active in Navy Relief. She lived briefly in Northampton, Mass., when her husband returned to active service in World War II as a captain in the U.S. Navy Medical Corps. She audited several courses at Smith College.

She had an avid interest in genealogy and cast a ballot in every election in which American women have had the right to vote.

Mrs. Freymann moved to Chapel Hill, N.C., after her husband's death and to Farmington in 1991.

During her lifetime, she traveled extensively and studied European history. She acquired a circle of acquaintances such as German novelist and Nobel Prize winner Thomas Mann, first lady Grace Coolidge, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and first lady Eleanor Roosevelt, the author and lecturer Helen Keller, who achieved fame despite being blind and deaf, and the world heavyweight boxing champion, Gene Tunney.

Mrs. Freymann was born in Los Angeles and spent her childhood years in Texas. She attended Baldwin College in Staunton, Va. She was living in Spokane, Wash., where her father, Moye Wicks, was a judge, when she enlisted in the Navy.

She is also survived by two other sons, Dr. John G. Freymann of Avon, Conn., and Dr. Moye W. Freymann of Chapel Hill, N.C.; a sister, Moxley W. Duggan of Phoenix; 10 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

A graveside service with full military honors will be held at 11 a.m. Oct. 28 at Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Arrangements were made by the Ahern Funeral Home, Unionville, Conn.

When her husband returned to active service as a captain in the U.S. Navy Medical Corps during World War II, Freymann lived briefly in Northampton, Mass., where, at the age of 52, she audited several courses at Smith College. Later, she moved to New York City and became active in Navy Relief. Following the war, she and her husband returned to Omaha, where they remained until Freymann's death in 1964.

A voracious reader and keen student of European history, Freymann traveled extensively throughout her long and colorful lifetime. She acquired a diverse circle of acquaintances which included Thomas Mann, Mrs. Grace Coolidge, President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Helen Keller and Gene Tunney.

Freymann moved to Chapel Hill in 1967 and continued to live there, except for a brief period spent in Raleigh, until settling in Farmington, Conn., in 1991.

In recent years, she continued to pursue an avid interest in genealogy and to follow world events closely. A staunch Democrat, Freymann prided herself on having cast a ballot in every U.S. election in which American women have had the right to vote.

Burial will be with Freymann's late husband in the U.S. National Cemetery in Arlington, Va.

Survivors include three sons, John G. Freymann of Avon, Moye W. Freymann of Chapel Hill, N.C., and Jarvis M. Freymann of Scituate, Mass.; ten grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

World War I Navy Veteran Marion Wicks Freymann '12, dies

by Jarvis M. Freymann

Marion Wicks Freymann, a Naval veteran of World War I and member of the Mary Baldwin Class of 1912, died October 3, 1994, at the age of 102. She was a long-time resident of Omaha, NE, and Chapel Hill, NC. She most recently lived in a convalescent facility in Avon, CT.

Born in Los Angeles on January 18, 1892, Mrs. Freymann spent her childhood years in Texas and attended Mary Baldwin from 1909 to 1912. Following a brief flirtation with the New York theater, she enlisted in the Navy in 1917. She spent the remainder of World War I as a chief petty officer in the newly established Office of Naval Intelligence in Philadelphia.

While stationed in Philadelphia Mrs. Freymann was featured in her parents' hometown newspaper, the Spokane Chronicle. The June, 1918 story recorded her appointment as a chief petty officer and quoted her, "I was not satisfied with doing my bit," she says, with emphasis. "I wanted to do my utmost for the country in this crisis. I have two brothers in the service, and when they come home I want to look them in the face and say that I too have done my duty for our country."

Commander Frank S. Klapach, Chaplain Corps, USN
Office of the Navy Chaplain
Arlington National Cemetery
Arlington, VA 22211

Dear Chaplain Klapach:

On behalf of the family of Marion Wicks Freymann -- children, grandchildren and great grandchildren -- I thank you for the way you conducted her funeral on October 28.

All of us came away from the service feeling that you said what we needed to heal the wounds of grief, to put our dear Mama at rest, and to send us on into life without her.

You made a particular effort to communicate with her great grandchildren, and you succeeded. In your wonderful discourse on the place of Chief Petty Officers in the Navy, you opened their eyes to the importance of a role she served which, up to then, seemed so vague and long ago that it meant little to them.

To the adult members of the family, whose lives have intertwined with Mother or Grandmother for so long it's hard to imagine life without her, your metaphor of her life as a voyage completed was a great comfort. Thanks to you, we left the graveside feeling that there, beside her dear husband, our Father and Grandfather, she had reached her last, safe harbor.

We realize that you conduct many funerals, but we want you to know that you made Marion Freymann's family feel that her funeral was unique. We felt that you were sharing with us in a rare and deeply emotional experience.

With grateful appreciation,

John Gordon Freymann

The Lullaby

You are holding the telephone for a dying woman, right against her cheek, a woman near coma for weeks, now her throat opened for breathing and unable to speak.

You think this call hopeless,
the waterwheels softening, slowly easing their rush and flood.
Then she hears her daughter's voice, her eyes dilate, and her face, which looked puffy with drugs, takes on that soft, smudgy light of May when women in mountain villages open their shutters and the early air tumbles in, gauzy and pink.

I don't know what her daughter said, but it's as if this woman were surveying the blue alleys of the town below, mountains brightening in the east. She cradles the phone, makes clicking sounds with her tongue, taps excitedly with one finger, the low drowning in the throat like reeds rushing in streams.

What did her daughter understand?
I write this for her:

Your mother lay with the phone beside her ear.
Those sounds you heard were a lullaby.
You made all the difference.
She died rocking a baby to sleep.

Jeanne LeVasseur, RN
Columbia, Conn

As Mamma lay dying, she began crying, "My baby, my baby — where is my baby?"

HUSBAND	Vincent Peter FREYMANN-454	Yr of Birth 1895
WIFE	Ottillia BERNER-459	Yr of Birth 1899

HUSBAND - Vincent Peter FREYMANN-454

Vincent had a tragic life which JGF can sketch only briefly b/c this is based entirely on memory. He attended Campion prep school & college in Prairie de Chien, WI, w/ older bros John & Albert. Served in Army in WW I in France & occupation of Germany. Was natural athlete & such a good pitcher he was scouted by 1 of the Chicago teams. After War worked for LeMars Globe Post. In 1923 came to Omaha at invitation of bro John to take course offered by Omaha World-Herald. Wife Ottellia accompanied him & both stayed with John & Marion while Ottellia delivered 3rd child Phyllis. [1994 letter from Ottellia recounting this in Freymann file.]

Some time aft 1923 he moved family to Omaha & worked 7 yrs as reporter for Omaha World-Herald. JGF has clear memories of Sunday dinners w/ Uncle Vincent's family & playing with Cousins Jack, Jeanne & Phyllis who were of abt same age. What he was not aware of was Vincent's alcoholism & how often John would admit him to County Hospital to "dry out." He lost job at paper & was unemployed for some time in depths of Depression. Sometime in 1930s he recovered from alcoholism & got job with Dept Agriculture. Transferred to Chicago in 1941. Just when it seemed he had finally achieved stability & financial security, he contracted polio & was confined to wheel chair for rest of his life. JGF saw him for last time at his home in Chicago sometime in 1940s, wheelchair-bound but, as always, cheerful & charming. Vincent was 61 when he d.

HUSBAND - Moye Wicks Freymann M.D.-10

Baptism: Christened Nicholas Moye Wicks. Godparents: his uncle Vincent Peter Freymann & step-grandmother Susan Colling Freymann.

Lived w/ family at 3222 Pacific St, Omaha, & attended Field Club School until 1937, when they moved to 321 S 53 St. Graduated Dundee School & Central High School. Entered Yale, Feb 1943; Dartmouth Medical School, Mar 1945 (wartime acceleration; from July 1943-autumn 1945 was A/S, V-12, USNR). Transferred to Johns Hopkins Medical School where he received MD in 1948. Intern & asst res in internal medicine & James Hudson Brown Research Fellow at Yale-New Haven Hosp 1948-50.

Commissioned in USPHS in 1948. In 1951 trained for Aid for International Development Program. Was then posted to Iran, where he co-directed Provincial Health Depts in 3 different regions, 1952-55. Returned to Harvard School of Public Health, where he met future wife Kathy & was awarded Dr.P.H. in 1956. Aft 1st son born in 1957, they went to New Delhi, India, where he was Chief Consulatant, Health & Population, Ford Foundation, India, until 1966. They then moved to U of NC, Chapel Hill, where he founded Carolina Population Center & was its Director until 1974. Remained at U of NC as Professor in Dept of Health Policy & Administration, School of Public Health, where he continued to teach until week b/4 his death. He also continued to be involved in international health, with emphasis on population control, heading missions in Egypt, Nigeria, Uganda & several other Asian countries.

He developed cancer of prostate in 1989. He received radiation therapy which controlled the disease for abt 5 yrs. It then recurred & , in spite of remissions brought about by other Rx, gradually progressed until it spread to his liver. Deeply jaundiced, only his family knew the seriousness of his problem. In spite of increasing pain and weakness, he continued to teach (his students were told he had hepatitis) & remained active until the week he died. His wife, sons & 2 bros were at his bedside in his final hours. He was cremated & his ashes are buried in Memorial Grove, an oak & pine woods beside the old Chapel Hill Cemetery.

On 10 Nov 1997, International Health Section of American Public Health Assn bestowed its highest honor, The Lifetime Achievement Award for Excellence in International Health, on Moye.

WIFE - Katherine Theresa Marie Cantwell-785

Kathy attended parochial elementary & high schools in Albany & was awarded BA from a Catholic college for women in Albany. A gifted mathematician & statistician, she was working for doctorate at Harvard School of Public Health when she met Moye.

Notes

HUSBAND - Joshua John Reese-6812

Josh's parents were divorced when he was 2, his mother remarried, & he grew up in the family of his step-father, John Natale. He received his bachelor's degree from Western CT University & a master's in history from Central CT U. We was a teacher & asst. baasketball coach at West Hartford Catholic High School when he met Amanda. Now (2008) he has been promoted to Director of Athletics.

WIFE - Amanda Jennings Miser-44

Named for her Aunt Amanda Wicks Freymann (RIN # 3)and also in honor of her Great-Great-Great-Grandmother Sarah Amanda Jennings Wicks (RIN #589).

Lived with parents at 44 Goshen St., Hartford,Ct., until they moved to present home at 277 Oxford St.,Hartford.

Christened at First Church of Christ Congregational, Farmington. Godparents are Amanda Wicks Freymann (RIN #3-mother's sister) & Vance Gordon King Freymann (RIN #6-mother's brother). Minister was the Rev. Richard Bauer. A champagne brunch followed the ceremony at 37 Main Street, Farmington, the home of her maternal grandparents. Present in addition to her parents & the god-parents were all four of her grandparents; her maternal great-grandmother Marion Wicks Freymann; & her maternal aunt & uncle, Sarah Freymann Fontenot & Michael Fontenot.

Education: Attended Knight Hall nursery school, West Hartford, Ct. 1986-1988. Completed elementary education at Noah Webster School, Hartford. After middle school, completed high school at West Hartford Catholic> This is where she met Josh Reese, her future husband, who was one of her teachers. Attended Syracuse U. for one year, then transferred to Trinity College, Hartford, where she received her BS in psychology & certificate in teaching in 2007. At graduation, she received a special award for the future teacher most devoted to education of underprivileged children.

She & Josh were married on a perfect summer day at the Wentworth Estate in Middletown, CT. They moved into a small house with a huge yard on Christina Drive in East Hartford. After their son Brody was two years old she began teaching in the Hartford Public Schools & currently (2008) teaches 4th grade at her old school, Noah Webster. She is also working on a master's degree in special education at St. Joseph College.

Notes

HUSBAND - Gordon Ridley Fontenot-47

Born at Methodist Hospital, Dallas, Texas. Lived with parents at 4500 Preston Road until they moved to Branford, CT in 1986 when he was 6 months old. Moved with family to 51 Wilkins St., Hamden, CT in April 1989. In July 1994 moved to new home in Fredericksburg, TX.

Named for both his grandfathers, John Gordon Freymann & Charles Ridley Fontenot.

Christened in the garden of Mr. & Mrs. Trammel Crowe. (Parents lived in the Crowe's garage apartment while Michael attended medical school). Godparents are Elizabeth & Leo Tynan, now of Fredricksburg, Tx. (Leo & Michael were classmates in medical school). Methodist minister Wayne Banks officiated. A champagne brunch was served following the ceremony. Attending, in addition to his parents & god-parents, were his paternal grandfather, Ridley Fontenot & his maternal grandparents' Jeff & Ruth Freymann.

Education: Home with his Mom for 18 months. Attended Infant/Toddler program 1986-1988. Attended Yeladim Nursery School in Hamden 1988-1990. Completed kindergarten & grade 1 at Foote School, New Haven, & went thru grades 2-3 in the Hamden Public Schools. Completed elementary & high school education in Fredericksburg Public Schools. After 1 unsuccesful year at U. of Texas SanAntonio, he went to Waltham, MA, & graduated from a Boston University program in editing media. Since then has been enployed by a company that produces video advertising for automobiles.

He & Urvi now live in Waltham, MA.
